Market Reports

By HORACE BURNETT, Market Editor

Prices paid to producers for eggs have advanced in the local market the past few days. Grade A large are quoted at 45 cents; grade B large, 30 cents; grade A medium, 35 cents; grade B medium, 18 cents, and grade A small, 14 cents. The whole prices to retailers, except that of grade A large, remain the same as before. Grade A large are quoted at 54 cents.

At the public market Saturday every fruit and vegetable stall was loaded with the finest produce Lane county has to offer. Apples and grapes appeared at all fruit stalls, the latter being more plentiful than at any time before this fall.

In the vegetable line, tomatoes are still coming in, there having been no frost and very little rain to curtail the crop. Celery, cantaloupes, cabbage and cauliflower, red and green peppers, sweet corn, string beans and green peas are in abundance. There are still a few strawberries to be seen at several stalls.
