on the approaches to the Belfort gap.

In the northern tip of Belgium, the Canadian 1st army reinforced its Schelde estuary bridgehead, while allied bombers pounded German batteries near Knocke on the Belgian coast.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's American 3rd army, farther south, continued its house-to-house battle for Maizieres-Les Metz, 6 miles north of Metz. Patton's men also repulsed a strong German counterattack near Letricourt, 15 miles northeast of Nancy.

One objective of the U. S. command in attacking the slaughterhouse and factory districts of Aachen was to destroy ammunition available to the Germans and also seize their food supplies which were said to include scores of beef cattle.

LT. JACKSON MEMORIAL

Memorial services for Lt. Joseph H. Jackson, Jr., son of Mrs. Joseph H. Jackson, 1603 Twenty-second Avenue east, who has been reported killed in action June 10, will be held Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, at St. Mary's Episcopal church. It will be the usual communion service by the rector, Rev. E. S. Bartlam.

County Morse Group Gathers At Dinner

Wayne L. Morse, republican nominee for the six-year term in the United States senate, was welcomed home by his Lane county committee at a dinner gathering Wednesday evening at the Eugene hotel, more tnan 50 attending.

Morse was here Wednesday night to meet with his local committee and to take part in the non-partisan forum staged by the League of Women Voters later in the evening for senate candidates, leaving early Thursday for Portland to join the special train carrying Gov. John W. Bricker, GOP vice-president nominee, to Eugene.

Elmo B. Chase, general chairman for the Wayne Morse-for-Senator club in Lane county, presided at the Wednesday dinner and outlined the work ahead for the group preceding the Nov. 7 election.

Chase announced the committee workers would assemble for informal luncheons and "workshop" sessions each Wednesday noon from now until election, at the Eugene hotel.

Morse gave a few remarks, reporting on his recent tour through several sections of the state and expressed appreciation for the backing being given him by his home-town neighbors and friends.

Labor Leaders To Meet Local Men

State labor leaders on their way to the winter convention of the Oregon State Building and Construction Trades to be held at Bend Saturday and Sunday, will stop in Eugene Thursday and Friday to confer with local labor officials.

James Marr, newly-appointed executive secretary of the state federation of labor, who succeeded the late Del Nickerson, will meet with local Eugene union men all day Thursday in the Eugene hotel. Friday, John O'Neill, secretary of the state building trades, Frank Fowler, representing the pile-drivers; Phil Van Hoomisen, the steamfitters, and Lawrence Kramer, the teamsters, will be available for pre-convention conferences with Eugene men.

Delegates to the Bend convention from Eugene will be Ray McInnis, representing the building trades; John Weldon, bricklayers; Fritz Larsen, pipefitters; D. B. McFadyen, teamsters; Carl Lay, plumbers, and Mr. Hartman, electricians.

State Conference On 6th War Loan Set

John R. Snellstrom, Lane county war finance committee chairman, has received notification of a state conference Oct. 18 and 19 in Portland to plan Oregon's part in the sixth war loan. The drive is scheduled for Nov. 20 through Dec. 16.

Ted R. Gamble, national director, war finance division, and Sobert Coyne, field director, will headline the schedule of events on Oct. 18, when national plans for the sixth war loan drive will be presented. Second day of the conference will be devoted to planning Oregon's localized campaign so it will coordinate with the national campaign, according to E. C. Sammons, state chairman.

Over-all goal was announced as $14,000,000,000. Five billion dollars is set as the goal for individuals, of which $2,500,000,000 must be raised in E bonds. Marketable issues will be on sale from Dec. 1 to Dec. 16.

Oregon's quota has not yet been set.
