200 Present For Boy Scout District Meet

COTTAGE GROVE—Approximately 200 boy scouts, cub scouts, leaders, parents, and friends of scouting attended the annual meeting of the South Lane district of the Oregon Trail council, Boy Scouts of America, held Wednesday evening in the I.O.O.F. hall in Cottage Grove.

The national colors were presented by troop 13, Dorena, and Rev. Frank E. Brown, pastor of the Cottage Grove Methodist church, gave the invocation. Following the pot-luck dinner, H. L. Wolfard, chairman of the South Lane district committee, introduced the committee chairmen and unit leaders

Group singing was led by W. J. Nelson, Jr., and Judson W. Compton, field scout executive, reviewed highlights of scouting activities in the district during the past year. He announced that the set goal of 95 scouts and cubs had been exceeded; one new cub pack and one new scout troop had been organized. Keith Wooley, a Cottage Grove boy, was made an Eagle Scout in April.

Kenneth A. Wells, scout executive, Oregon Trail council, in his talk "As You Will It" challenged men in the community who are interested in seeing boy scout work flourish, to offer their services for leadership. Wells explained the scouting program, its purposes, and the job to be done. Scouting in America is 35 years old and last year it grew more than it had at any previous year.

The following were elected to serve on the district committee for the coming year: district chair-man, Orlo Bagley; district vice-chairman, Fred Blickle; district commissioner, Joe Crick; members at large, Donald Kabler, L. S. Hird, H. L. Wolfard, N. L. Nelson, Jr., Damon Scott.

The institutional representatives, named by sponsoring groups, are Carl Shoberg, Frank E. Brown, George E. Hardy, E. R. Husted. The nominating committee was composed of Joe Crick, Frank Brown, and Damon Scott.

At the close of the meeting, Jimmy Valentine, troop No. 18, Cottage Grove, led the scouts in the scout oath.

VIDA NEWS

VIDA — The McKenzie River Active club met recently in the Vida hall. Following a potluck supper, the president, Howard Kirkpatrick, called a short business meeting.

A resolution was presented, asking to have the dues raised from $1.00 a year to $2.00. The resolution was discussed and will be read and voted on at the next business meeting. It was explained that the raise in dues is necessary due to the increase in overhead expenses, including insurance and janitor service.

Plans were discussed for installing windows in the front of the building. The windows will be donated by Mr. Goddard and the men present at the meeting volunteered to do the work.

Floyd Tharp was hired as janitor for the club.

A card party was the entertainment for the evening. Some of the members also played pingpong and other games. Each person brought a prize and they were exchanged, so each received a surprise prize.

AT BETHEL

BETHEL—Mrs. Pearl Chapman is home after spending several months in Gem, Kansas, visiting relatives. Her brother, Robert Bugbee, went to Kansas for two weeks and accompanied her home.

Miss Eunice Anderson of Portland visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson.

Mrs. W. W. Jones and daughter, Joyce, of Seattle, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sorenson.
