New York Markets

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The stock market righted itself today after a sharp dip in the first hour and moved toward the close with most leaders showing gains of fractions to around a point. Some specialties were up 2 or more.

Early selling, attributed to news of continued advances in the Russian drive for Berlin, soon dried up, encouraging a moderate buying revival. American Telephone, down about 1½, retrieved its loss and steels and rails enjoyed a good recovery.

Highlighting the late proceedings was brisk bidding for a wide assortment of specialties and low priced issues. Transactions were approximately 1,100,000 shares.

Prominent in the high group in the final hour were Studebaker, Chrysler, Willys-Overland, Johns-Manville, Montgomery Ward, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Woolworth, Case, U. S. Gypsum, International Telephone, International Mining, Standard Steel Spring, and American Distillers. Aircrafts and a few coppers and higher priced industrials were backward.

Bonds registered late improvement but remained in an irregular range.

David Ross Announcer On Coca Cola Hour

When "Songs by Morton Downey" start over station KORE and the Mutual broadcasting system during the week of Feb. 5, Mondays through Fridays at 9:15 a.m., it will have one of the best known names in radio—David Ross—as its announcer, according to Jack Foster of Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Eugene, sponsor of the program.

Although Ross, whose voice is known to millions of listeners, had planned originally to become an agriculturist, or a journalist, he finally decided in favor of the stage. He bowed into radio almost during its infancy, back in 1926 and has since appeared on many of the top-rating air shows.

His reputation as an announcer with excellent diction won for him the diction award in 1932 by the American Academy of Arts and Letters. He has been a definite influence in moulding public speech. More than that, to Ross goes another bouquet for contributing to American culture. He is the author of an anthology of poetry, "Poet's Gold."

The announcer will be heard each day with Morton Downey, Jimmy Lytell and his orchestra, Leah Ray, the "Listening Lady" and the Jimmy Rule chorus.

City Manager Takes Offer At Coos Bay

COOS BAY—(AP)—Harry C. McCrea, city manager of Silverton since last April, will become Coos Bay's first city manager.

A letter of acceptance has been received by the city council here. Mayor F. E. Fitzzalter said McCrea would assume the post as soon as he can be released from the Silverton position.

McCrea's post here would be for an indefinite period. The new charter adopted last November provides that the manager may be discharged at any time.

Down Front
By Will Lindley

We dashed to Portland over the weekend and thus missed reviewing several local cinemas, including the Mac's "Laura" (an excellent murder mystery) and the Heilig's "Can't Help Singing," technicolor musical with Deanna Durbin and Robert Paige, which will move to the Mayflower Thursday (very entertaining film of a mighty tame west; Jerome Kern music).

Having under consideration the possibility of taking in a production of an old-time mellerdrammer playing in the big city, we phoned the theater.

"Good Evening, 'The Drunkard'," said a well-modulated voice.

To which we considered replying "We'd never have guessed it."

Long line outside a local cinema wasn't for the film, we discovered, 'Twas the popcorn machine.

They tell of the director who ordered his camera crew to go out one morning and film a sunrise over the ocean.

At noon they returned. They informed the director that the sun does not rise over the ocean in California; it only does that on the east coast.

The great man blustered through this magnificent oversight.

"You fools," he roared, "go out tonight and film a sunset and we'll run it through the projector backwards."

And they did.

The next morn the crew appeared and the film was run and the waves lapped the shore as the sun rose slowly. Suddenly the director jumped to his feet, cursing. There had been another technical oversight . . .

The seagulls were flying backwards!
