New York Markets

By BERNARD S. O'HARA

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—(AP)—Steels led the stock market higher today on a wave of buying that spread to most divisions of the list.

Gains of the leaders ranged from major fractions to about two points.

Off to a fast start, dealings slackened occasionally but still had enough steam to run up an aggregate of around 2,000,000 shares.

Good war news helped stimulate demand that apparently grew from a waning of fears additional taxes on speculative gains might get early congressional attention.

U. S. Steel was prominent from its opening rise of 7-8 on a 3,000-share block. Bethlehem touched a new peak and Republic and Youngstown were higher. Santa Fe, New York Central, Great Northern, Goodyear, J. I. Case, Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, American Telephone, General Electric, Westinghouse and Western Union "A" also were active climbers.

Rail liens paced a rally in the bond division.

Eugene Hi News

The Girl's Glee club was featured in an assembly at the Eugene high school, Wednesday. The club sang the following selections: "Star Dust" by Carmichael; "Old King Cole," by Forsyth; and "O Sing your Songs," by Cairo.

The Pack Rat club took its fifth ski trip of the year Sunday, Feb. 18. The club went up the Santiam to Hoodoo Butte. On the trip were Hank Wittwer, Bob Moffitt, Hank Boehnke, Cal Smith, Gregg Smith, Wilbur Eaton, Wallace Owen, Walt Banks, Steve Andrews, Andy Anderson, Otis Halland, Larry Johnson, and six from University high.

These ski trips are under the supervision of the Willamette ski patrol and an instruction program is carried on under the direction of Tony Vogel, National ski patrolman. Mr. Lyon, club adviser, accompanies the club on all trips.

The Eugene Hi-Y club planned future activities at the meeting Monday, Feb. 19. Plans for the Father and Son banquet were discussed and the club committees were reorganized for the rest of the year.

Mask and Dagger, drama organization, presented an all-girl play entitled "Star Struck" Friday morning, Feb. 23.

Taking parts were Diane Barnhart, Janet Heisel, Florence Hawkesworth, Linda Pedron, Shirley Hansen, Evelyn Jonez, Karolyn Strong, Nolda Winter and Norman Van Osdal. Working on the stage set were Dean Quam, Deryl Ross, Dorothy Tomlin and Allen Graves. Properties were under the supervision of Shirley Hansen, Jeanne Gibson and Evelyn Jonez. The play was directed by Mrs. Roger Houglum, drama instructor.

The A cappella has added 17 new members; Glenn Bryan, Elizabeth Northam, Jack Wright, Kenny Whitmore, Stanley Turnbull, James Stuart, John Spicer, Paul Simon, Bob Sargent, Merlene Peoples, Don Pengra, Gene Miner, Bob Little, Marie Jacquenod, Leonard Gardner, Harold Gardner, and Thelma Dammen.

A red rose was chosen as the class flower by the officers of the senior class last week. The officers also held a meeting on the 19th to discuss the plans for commencement exercises and class day. Plans will be made in the near future for ordering the caps and gowns as soon as all members are assured of graduation.

A Mardi Gras party for all French students was given at the home of JoAnne Goodlin at 2145 Charnelton, Wednesday, Feb. 23. Dick Moll acted as master of ceremonies. The program consisted of: piano solos by Gwen Huffman and JoAnne Goodlin, vocal solo, "Florian song" by Peggy Tatham.

Two French plays were presented by the first year students. Those who had parts in "Un jor A l'ecale" were Jacqueline Day, Ruth Saballus, Wilma Morefield, Pat Bucklin, Frank Collins, Barbara Shreve, Gloria Shreve, Rose Young, and Peggy Tatham.

In "Le Charlatan" David Venes and Pasty Bowling played the part of the doctor and his wife. Other parts were played by JoAnne Goodlin, Yvonne Lundeen, Donna Plaisted, and Dean McCorkle.

Second year students played "Cendrileon." Margaret Flock, La Verne Watts, Colleen Pattison, Gwen Huffman, and Dick Moll were in the cast.

Patsy Bowling gave a French dialect reading. Refreshments were served after the program.

The "Hatchet Hop," sophomore dance, was held Feb. 23, in the school auditorium. A novel feature were the games. Chairman of the dance committee was Johnny McNutt, sophomore. Lesser committee heads are Sigrid Skade, decoration; Ed Peterson, tickets; Robert Pfieffer, refreshments; Gordon Diebel, music; Jean Hefferman, game room; JoAnn Goodlin, publicity and check rooms. Delores Miller, entertainment; Gerry Gaylord, reception; John Spicer, door.

A very short Paletteer meeting was held immediately after school Feb. 20. The initiation and potluck was held Thursday evening. Betty Peterson was appointed official reporter for the Paletteers.

The first Monday of March the sophomore art students will give a demonstration in design work for art students.

Approximately 10 members have been dropped from the Paletteers, due to absence from meetings. Robert Banister is adviser to the club. Co-adviser was elected at the last meeting, and is Mrs. L. M. Houglum.

Robert Banister's fifth period class is studying ballet, and several stage decorations have been planned and drawn by various members of the class; several are on display in the art room—303. Various oil paintings of the fine arts class, sixth period, are also on display, and are of still life. Various students of these classes have been asked to display their work at the university later in the year.

Short topics were given at the Feb. 21 meeting of the Ambassadors. God's Will to Know was presented by Beverly Brown. God's Will to Love by Milton Hopper. God's Will to Do by LaVerne Carey. The remainder of the meeting was spent singing songs.

The girls' physical education classes are practicing pivoting and basket-ball passes. They have started playing girls regulation basket-ball.

The Oral English students have been putting on short radio plays over the public address system in the large lunchroom. The plays could be taken from a book or could be original. The students use their own commercials.

"Am I Late?" was put on by Claudell Jackson, Loretta Whitstruck, Nadine George, Bobbie Jean Russell, Mimi de Temple, and Carolyn Wright.

"The Return," by Cora DEdson, Thelma Dammen, and Marian Walker.

"How Do I Look?" presented by Phyllis Stiles, Helen Harding, Dorothy Miller, Jo Ann Appling and Marion Denzer.

Relief At Last For Your Cough
Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.
Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.
No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)
