Cub Scout Pack 307 Concludes Activities

Cub Scout Pack 307 of Lincoln School concluded Scout week activities with a February pack meeting and advancement council Friday evening, at the school. Approximately 150 cubs and parents present.

A program on the theme of scouting and famous men was given by dens two, six and nine. Instrumental numbers and songs were presented between acts by dens one, three and four. Mrs. B. R. Rutledge played the piano for group singing. Twenty-two advancement awards were presented to those cubs earning them during the past month, by the cubmaster, Robert Christner, and Assistant Cubmaster John Warren. Five boys, Charles Bonnett, Bobby Cox, Kenneth Hopkins, Bob Foley, and Ronald Jaros were inducted into the pack in a campfire ceremony.

Oregon Girl Will Be Bride In New Zealand

WEST LINN — (AP) — Muriel White, dean of girls at West Linn high schol, will reverse the trend of British and Australian brides migrating to the United States by leaving for New Zealand as a bride-to-be.

She plans to leave San Francisco Feb. 23 for Masteron, New Zealand, where Ron F. Buick, her fiance, has a 1200-acre sheep ranch. They met six years ago aboard the Queen Mary en route to England.

Miss White's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert White, Salem.

Ulysses Grant Warfel

Ulysses Grant Warfel, 80, of 1292 Eighth Ave. W., died at a local hospital Tuesday, Feb. 19. He was born Dec. 10, 1865 at Hagerstown, Md., and married Minnie Ellen Fetter at Pawnee City, Neb. He had lived in this community for five years.

Surviving are his widow; three sons, Roy of Phoenixville, Pa., Manuel L. of Eugene, and Orville M. of Wendling; one sister, Mrs. E. W. Taylor, of Alhambra, Calif.

Funeral services will be held at the Poole-Larson Mortuary Thursday at 2 p.m., with the Rev. F. E. Crook officiating. Interment will be in Rest Haven Memorial Park.

Vitamin C is closely connected with resistance to illness.
