Creswell Plans Playground

CRESWELL — Representatives of civic organizations met Tuesday evening with the finance committee of the council and discussed plans for establishing a permanent playground on lots south of Ore-gone avenue down town. A soft ball field, a tennis court, a picnic ground with outdoor fireplace, tables and benches were among the suggestions. The various groups will decide what project they favor and will report at another call meeting. A blue print of the lots will be drawn with approximate measurements for each project.

The fire department responded to a call at the Noland place east of town Tuesday afternoon. A spark from a near by mill caught the roof of the barn on fire and damaged it considerably.
