Rainey Loses Texas Race

DALLAS, Texas— (AP) —Texas Monday was beginning to recover from one of its most colorful and bitterly fought political campaigns in history.

Beauford H. Jester, member of the State Railroad Commission and an attorney-farmer from Corsicana, won the gubernatorial nomination over Homer P. Rainey, former president of the University of Texas, in the Saturday run-off election that climaxed a campaign that had begun nearly five months ago. (Rainey was a University of Oregon professor in 1927.)

With an estimated 98 per cent of the vote tabulated by the Texas election bureau, Jester held a landslide count of 683,605 votes to 355,888 for Rainey, or a total of 65.76 per cent of the 1,039,493 votes counted.

Tabulations represent returns from 252 of the state's 254 counties, with 135 complete.

For lieutenant governor, State Senator Allan Shivers of Port Arthur held a commanding lead over Boyce House, Fort Worth newspaper man, 561,582 to 438,038.

Latest returns indicate renomination of two veteran Texas congressmen, Rep. J. J. Mansfield in the Ninth District and Rep. Milton H. West in the 15th.

Wagenman Reports Need for Carpenters

An urgent need for carpenters to assist with building has been voiced by John Wagenman, business agent of Carpenters Local 1273, AFL.

About 50 new members were taken into the union last week, Wagenman said, but demand for this type of labor is so great that the situation was only slightly eased.

Winifred L. Vodjansky

Winifred L. Vodjansky, Rt. 4, Eugene, died Monday at the family home. She was born in Portland in 1908, making her home in Eugene the past seven years. She was a member of St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Surviving are the widower, Emil J.; a son, John W.; her mother, Mrs. W. W. Vinson, of Portland; a sister, Mrs. Alvin Gannon, Portland.

Private services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Veatch-Hollingsworth Mortuary, with the Rev. E. S. Bartlam officiating. Cremation will follow.

Billy Ray Howard

Billy Ray Howard, six-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lee Howard, of Dexter, died at the home of his parents Sunday. He was born July 13, 1946, in Eugene.

Besides his parents he is survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gage of Hoquiam, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Howard of Gaylord, Ore. Funeral services will be announced later by the Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary in Springfield.

Eugene Warren

Eugene Warren, 50, of 667 Willamette St., died at a local hospital Saturday. Complete obituary and funeral arrangements will be released later by the Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary in Springfield.

Georgia Voting System Upheld

ATLANTA—(AP)—A three-judge federal court Monday upheld Georgia's county unit vote system of deciding Democratic primary elections and refused to invalidate nomination of Eugene Talmadge to a fourth term as governor.

The tribunal dismissed a suit of an Emory university professor and an Atlanta woman civic leader which sought to have the unit system declared void and the nomination of Talmadge cancelled.

The judges said it was their unanimous opinion that "an interlocutory injunction should be denied."

The opinion said "these unit votes also appear in the electoral college in choosing a President, so that there have been Presidents who did not receive a majority of the popular vote."

In the July 17 Democratic primary, Talmadge won the nomination under the unit vote system although he trailed James V. Carmichael, backed by Governor Ellis Arnall, by about 14,000 votes in the statewide popular vote total.

Under the unit vote system, each county is allocated a designated number of unit votes—from two to six. The candidate receiving the most popular votes in a county received its unit votes. There are 410 unit votes in the state and 206 are required to nominate.

In the suit, Dr. Cullen B. Gosnell of Emory and Mrs. Robert Lee Turman, former president of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, contended that the system violated the equal rights provision of the fourteenth amendment to the U. S. Constitution.

They said a vote in a small county allotted two unit votes would have perhaps as much as 100 times the value as a vote in Fulton (Atlanta) County, arbitrarily pegged at six unit votes.

Small Cities Said in Need

PORTLAND — (AP) — The state must allow Oregon municipalities to gain more revenue from local sources to prevent a new period of financial chaos in local governments, the League of Oregon Cities has reported to Gov. Snell's interim tax study commission.

The league recommended that county assessors be required to re-assess all real estate every two years; allotment of 15 per cent of state revenue (instead of present five percent) to cities; ten per cent of liquor commission sales and repeal of state amusement taxes to open the source to local taxation.

Special assistance would be given smaller Oregon cities that have boomed during the war years and face emergency conditions in the next several years. Cities among those cited were Springfield, Hermiston, Oakridge, Sutherlin and Sweet Home.

Police Make Arrest For Parole Violation

Orville A. Frazier, Rt. 1, Springfield, was arrested by Springfield police Sunday for parole violation. Frazier was charged with driving an automobile while his operator's license was suspended. He had been on parole since July after conviction of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Two arrests were made over the weekend by state police. Ray Wyatt, 1550 D St., was arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol while Merlin Edward Burnett, Harrisburg, was arrested in Junction City for driving while his operator's license was revoked.

Police to Begin Tests Of Two-Way Radios

All two-way radio sets to be installed cars of local law enforcement agencies have arrived here, and the city police department will begin a 10-day testing period Wednesday, Police Chief L. L. Pittenger said Monday.

Two-way radio sets yet to be installed include one in a police department car, one in the fire chief's car and three in the Lane County sheriff's cars. They will be installed early this week, Pittenger said. All two-way radios will operate through radio equipment in the police department.

Roy Crabtree

Final services for Roy Crabtree, native of Oregon who died Saturday, will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Poole-Larsen Mortuary, with concluding services at Rest Haven Memorial Park.

Mr. Crabtree was born at Crabtree, Ore., on Jan. 24, 1875. Dec. 24, 1902, he was married to Mary F. Bilyiu at Albany. He was a well-known farmer on Route 2, Eugene, and retired several years ago.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. Ivan Clark, Duane Crabtree and Cyril Crabtree, all of Eugene; a brother, Byron Crabtree, of Washington; a sister, Mrs. F. E. Brewster, of Lebanon; and five grandchildren.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Jim DeCamp, Harrisburg, was brought to Sacred Heart Hospital by Arrow Ambulance Sunday morning after his auto overturned in Harrisburg about 2 a.m. that morning. Other passengers were uninjured. After treatment at the hospital, he was released.

Circuit Court Gets Tax Suit

Suit has been filed in circuit court to foreclose on 167 pieces of privately-owned property throughout the county on which there are allegedly delinquent taxes, the county clerk's office announced Monday.

Owners of the property will have one year in which to redeem the property and prevent it being sold for taxes, it was announced. Most of the property is logged-off timber land.

County officials pointed out Monday that the foreclosure list is one of the smallest in recent history. The list of property taken over for taxes and sold in 1940 included 14,854 acres of rural property, 291 city tracts, and 200 small town plots, it was announced.

The present list is known as the 1945 tax delinquency list. Action is taken every four years to foreclose on tax delinquent property, it was explained.

Senator Hits Army Justice

EVERETT, Wash. — (U.P.) — Sen. Hugh B. Mitchell (D-Wash.) said Monday the new Congress would investigate the present system of military justice and would make necessary reforms if the war department failed to make needed changes.

Mitchell said the war department advisory committee had scheduled public hearings for the West Coast and advised GIs of Washington state to "sound off their ideas about military justice."

He said the war department was awaiting a final report by the committee before making any changes in courts-martial procedure. He said the enlisted man must get his "story across and make sure his reports are more than minor technical complaints."

Mitchell said the finding on the Doolittle report showed the largest distinction was in the field of military justice and courts-martial procedure which permitted "inequities to fall upon enlisted personnel."

"A review of sentences by clemency boards, which the war department proposes, is not enough to protect the rights of enlisted men," he said.

"The whole system must be overhauled and infused with a democratic spirit of fair play and equal justice."

Army to Emphasize Quality in Future

Emphasis for Army enlistments will be placed on quality and not on quantity in the future, according to Sgt. R. M. Manley, recruiting agent in the Eugene vicinity. Sergeant Manley visited last week in Portland with the Sixth Army Recruiting Officer from Sixth Army Headquarters.

It was also announced that the Caribbean Defense Command has been closed to enlistees, in addition to the European and Mediterranean Theaters. Still open are the Pacific and Alaskan Theaters.

Mary M. Gray

Mary M. Gray, 69, of 172 12th Ave. W., died Monday at a local hospital. She was born in Brownsville, Tex., on April 20, 1877, and was married to Dr. Grant Gray Sept. 3, 1914 in Chicago. They came to Oregon 26 years ago.

Mrs. Gray was a member of the Christian Church of Eugene, the Rebekah Lodge at Oakridge, and Eastern Star in Eugene.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Grace Winkelman, Eugene; a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles McConnaughey, Eugene; a grandson, Donald Starr, Eugene; three sisters, Mrs. Edna Schultz, Mrs. Georgia Brackett, and Mrs. Alice Humphrey, all of Tacoma, Wash.; a brother, Donald Morrison.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Church, with the Rev. Hugh McCallum officiating. Interment will be in IOOF Cemetery No. 2, with Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary in charge.

night, indicated that whether the United States would hale Yugoslavia before the United Nations Security Council for shooting down two U. S. transport planes depended on "the efforts of the Yugoslav government to right the wrong done.")

Despite compliance by the Yugoslav government with U. S. requests for high military honors and for assistance in the search for the missing, the Yugoslav Ministry of Information made new accusations against aircraft of Britain and the United States Sunday.

The ministry asserted that 110 "Anglo-American military planes" violated Yugoslav territory between Aug. 10—the day after the first U. S. transport was shot down—and Aug. 20.

It said that of this number 34 were fighters, 57 bombers and the remainder transports.

Tito declared previously that the purpose of the flights was "reconnoitering" regions occupied by military units.

Official and semi-official newspapers in Belgrade called the incidents part of a planned campaign which the western powers intended to use to discredit Yugoslavia at the Paris Peace Conference.

Worker Total Hits '46 High

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Pacific Coast industrial employment hit a new high for 1946 in June.

Aggregate factory rosters for the three coast states and Arizona gained about 20,000 over May, totaling 941,700. That figure lacked 29 per cent of matching the June, 1945, total, when war plants were still operating.

California's 656,000 industrial workers gained an even 10,000 and accounted for half the rise. Most industries participated in the gain.

Oregon's food industries contributed heavily to the June rise of 7000, lifting the roll to 113,800 in that state.

Washington had its first increase since the war ended, gaining 2400 for a total of 159,000, food industries again coming to the fore with the biggest gain.

Arizona's 10,900 factory workers numbered 400 more than in May.

by Vera Scott, wife of "Oiwen," after her extravagance prompted the chain of rollicking events.

Glenn Hasselrooth as the overbearing brother-in-law and Ted Loud as the bartender performed a terrific exit in one scene, with Ted assisting Glenn off stage with a modified "rabbit-hop" which brought down the house.

In supporting roles were Don Motter as bombastic Mr. Carver, Eva McGinnis as the hotel maid and Nina Stafford as a reporter.

Francis Cole and Motter provided the three sets, which kept stage crews working overtime making the five changes necessary for the six scenes.

All in all, "Three Men on a Horse," seems destined to join the ranks of the best comedy jobs of the VLT.—P.J.D.

Civilian Boat Dive-Bombed

TOLEDO, O.—(U.P.)—Adolf Reisig, Toledo, was recovering in Riverside Hospital Monday from shock, burns, and lacerations received when Navy dive bombers mistook his cabin cruiser for a target ship anchored in Lake Erie and hit it with a practice bomb.

Reisig was the only one of seven persons aboard the vessel who was injured when one of the bombers scored a direct hit amidships and set his 32-foot cruiser, "The Albatross," afire. The vessel burned to the water line and was beached off West Sister Island, near Toledo.

The passengers were picked up by a fishing boat and transferred to a Navy crash boat which sped to the scene. Navy personnel aboard the crash boat said the fliers were about seven and one-half miles off their course.

Navy officers said the bombs were practice missiles weighing two pounds each. They contained only enough powder to send up a small puff of smoke when they hit.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Aug. 26—(AP)—A few leaders managed to cling to the recovery side in today's stock market but late selling intervened and the general direction was lower at the close. Bonds were a trifle uneven.

Transfers were in the neighborhood of 800,000 shares.

American Telephone retrieved about 4 points of its last week's slump but eventually cut the advance. Ahead were Douglas Aircraft, American Can, Eastman Kodak, Johns-Manville and Standard Oil (NJ).

Hiram Walker fell more than 4 and lesser casualties were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Woolworth, Paramount Pictures, Allied Chemical, Du Pont, Union Carbide, Consolidated Edison, Electric Power & Light; Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway and Texas Co.
