New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Oct. 28—(AP)—Stocks generally jogged over a losing trail in today's market although scattered issues, including gold mines, managed to contest the shift with some success.

The direction was downward with dealings slow after a fairly active opening. Losses of fractions to around 3 points predominated near the close. Oils were a bit heavier than usual. Transfers were in the neighborhood of 900,000 shares.

Homestake Mining, Dome Mines and Alaska Juneau enjoyed an early bulge in the wake of a broadcast report that the gold price might be hoisted. These issues ultimately backed away when Washington authorities denied that any such action was contemplated.

Bonds were mixed.

Missouri Students Face Arson Charge

FULTON, Mo.—(AP)—Two Westminister College sophomores—one a basketball star — faced arson charges Monday in connection with a fire that destroyed the three-story Beta Theta Pi fraternity house and severely burned two of its 35 occupants.

Prosecuting Attorney Hugh Williamson said Thomas Campbell, 22, of Ironton, Mo., signed a statement admitting he soaked Halloween decorations with gasoline and set the fire. The statement, Williamson said, implicated Otto Grosse, 22, of Granite City, Ill.

The prosecutor added that Campbell, who was expected to spark this season's Westminster baseball team, gave no reason for the act. Preliminary hearing for the youths will be held Tuesday. Neither student belonged to a fraternity.

During the fire which occurred early Saturday, Grant Duncan, 80-year-old chief of this central Missouri town's volunteer fire department, suffered a heart attack and died.
