Police and and ambulance had arrived by this time and Dowling was rushed off to a hospital. Physicians smeared his hands with ointment. Gave him cold water to drink, assured him that he was not going to die and sent him home.

As he left the hospital, Dowling was muttering: "Never again. Never again."

Reedsport Judge Hears Many Cases

REEDSPORT — Fourteen cases were heard Monday in the local Justice Court by Judge Fred Wright. Two juvenile boys were remanded to the Portland Juvenile Court for the theft of the Howard Humphrey car which was taken Saturday evening from the front door of the Reedsport Garage and recovered a short time later at the Drain junction by the state police.

Robert and James Ashe, formerly of California, and former employes of the city of Reedsport who were arrested in Medford while driving a Reedsport city truck, which they had taken without permission, were fined $25 each and given 60 day jail sentences on a second charge which had been filed against them by Clair Wilson, owner of the Weeks Hotel. The $25 fine would be remitted upon the payment of the hotel bills.

Floyd E. Hansen was arrested upon a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses filed by Harold E. Smith, owner of the Silver Moon; Howard Orval Haynes, of the U. S. Coast Guard, was given a ten day suspended sentence for speeding a truck at night without proper lights; Svend Knudsen received a $10 fine for driving on the wrong side of the highway; a juvenile of Hauser, was fined $500 and given six months in the county jail for theft of parts of a truck belonging to Frank Boye of Reedsport. The youth was paroled to his father, who suffered serious injuries in an accident which occurred while enroute to Roseburg to visit his son while in the county jail. The young man was badly needed at home to assist with farm work while the father was convalescing, according to testimony of the mother.

J. M. Webber, 68, Seattle promoter who is constructing a lumber mill on Smith River, near here, was arrested in Reedsport Thursday night by Sgt. R. M. Miles of the state police, and Deputy Sheriff A. B. Smith, upon a San Francisco warrant for forgery of a $5000 check. Being unable to raise $2500 cash bail locally Mr. Webber spent Thursday night in the Reedsport city jail and was bound over to the Douglas County grand jury by Justice of the Peace Fred Wright and taken to the county jail in Roseburg Friday, where he posted bail money and was released.

Funeral services for Mrs. Palestine Bain, 90, who died early Tuesday at the home of her daughter in Reedsport, will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Poole-Larsen Funeral Home in Eugene, with interment in Rest Haven Cemetery, Eugene.

Mrs. Bain was born in Dekalb County, Tennessee, May 23, 1856, and had resided in Oregon for the past six years, coming to Reedsport from Eugene about a year ago. Among the survivors are two daughters and a grandson, Delbert Chappee, Reedsport night marshal.

Columbus's second expedition to the New World was made in 1493 with 17 vessels carrying 1,500 persons.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Higher tendencies persisted in today's post-holiday stock market although the national fuel situation remained as a cautionary influence.

While dealings tapered appreciably after a fairly active opening, they picked up in the final hour and gains of fractions to 2 or more points predominated near the close. Transfers ran to around 1,000,000 shares.

In the rising division were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Woolworth, American Telephone, International Paper, Anaconda, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Johns-Manville, Eastman Kodak, Standard Oil (NJ), Santa Fe, Southern Railway and Great Northern.

Selected bonds edged forward.

Aussie Brigadier Tells of POW Camps

TOKYO — (AP) — Australian Brigadier Arthur Seaforth Blackburn, who was imprisoned during most of the war in the same camps as Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, told the International War Crimes Tribunal Friday that even the most high ranking prisoners were "without rights" and subject to the merest whims of their Japanese guards.

Blackburn, whose testimony was just under way when the war crimes court was adjourned for the weekend, related that he had been informed frequently by Japanese officers that "prisoners had no rights whatever" under the Japanese Bushido code and that the principles of the Geneva convention did not concern the Japanese.

He testified that in a Batavia prison camp in April, 1942, the Japanese housed from 2600 to 4000 Allied prisoners in barracks which the Dutch had constructed to care for a maximum of 1000 troops.

Four hundred and fifty survivors of the United States cruiser Houston and the Australian cruiser Perth were lodged in the camp and refused medicines, food and clothing although "they were in a pitiful state due to neglect and ill health," Blackburn testified.
