Two Passenger Trains Derailed

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind.—(AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad's Gotham Limited, en route from Chicago to New York, left the rails as it sped through Columbia City at 12:12 a.m. (Central Standard Time) Monday morning and about 40 of its 300 passengers were injured. No one was killed.

Fifteen injured were taken to two Fort Wayne hospitals.

Doctors said that although three or four were hurt seriously all would probably recover.

GRANGER, Wyo.—(AP) — Four cars of the Union Pacific eastbound streamliner City of Portland were dertailed here Sunday in a collision with a freight train. Officials said eleven passengers suffered minor injuries.

The injured included Mrs. Rosie B. Aplin, Vancouver, Wash., bruised hip; Mrs. C. L. Carson, Vancouver, Wash., bruised wrists and legs.

Municipal Court Sets Hearing for City Driver

Clarence R. Ballew, 610 Fourteenth Ave. E., was scheduled to appear in municipal court here April 9, following his arrest by city police on charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

City police said they arrested Ballew at Thirteenth and Ferry Sts., at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, after his car allegedly struck a parked car belonging to Wesley Nicholson, 275 Nineteenth Ave. W.

Eugeneans Set Tokyo Reunion

Reunion in Tokyo for Eugene boys in the service in that area has been set for April 27 at 1 p. m. in front of the Ernie Pyle Theater. Anyone with sons or relatives in that part of Japan is requested to pass the word along by letter so the reunion can be a big one.

The boys themselves have no satisfactory way of contacting each other to promote the gathering, for in many cases they do not know where the Eugeneans are or who they are.

John Quiner, Jr., Paul Agerter and Harry Paulus of Eugene met in Tokyo in March and a picture of the event was published later in The Eugene High School News. They hope the next reunion will be a whopper.

Bail May Release Accused Daughter

SANTA ANA, Cal.—(U.P.)—Calm and cheerful after three weeks in the Orange County jail, charged with the timebomb murder of her parents, 17-year-old Beulah Louise Overell expected to gain her freedom Monday on $50,000 bail.

The heiress to a $6000,000 estate, dubbed "The Enigma Girl" by a matron, was visited Sunday by her uncles, Emanuel and Fred Jungquist, who indicated they would provide bail.

Her chubby, blond fiance, George (Bud) Gollum, 21, indicted with her for the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Overell aboard their yacht March 15, will be held without bail pending their trial set for May 26.

Superior Judge Franklin West made Miss Overell eligible for bail in view of her age and the weakness of presumption of guilt against her.

Serenia Waples

Serenia Waples, 77, Cottage Grove, died at the home of her daughter in Eugene Saturday. She was born March 17, 1870 at Sullivan, Ind., and married Chester B. Waples at Fairbury, Neb., Oct. 13, 1889. He died in 1946. She was a member of the Church of Christ, and lived in Cottage Grove since 1921.

Surviving are three children, M. L. Waples and Mrs. Arthur Henningan, Eugene, and Mrs. Roy Gillespie, Sutherlin; eight grandchildren; two brothers, W. C. Drake and John R. Drake, Fairbury; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Blanding, Formosa, Kans., Mrs. Dan Clasby, Cottage Grove, and Mrs. C. L. Berry, Klamath Falls.

Services will be held at Mills Mortuary in Cottage Grove Tuesday at 2:30 p.m., with the Rev. Michael Shelley officiating. Interment will be in the Masonic-IOOF Cemetery in Cottage Grove.

John Calvin Keakey

John Calvin Keakey, 74, died suddenly at the home of Ralph Sears at Delight Valley Sunday. He was born Nov. 18, 1872, in Erath County, Texas, where he spent his early life, and was married to Sarah Burd in 1893. She died in 1898. He moved to Arizona, then to Washington, and came to Oregon in 1915. He had lived in and around Eugene and Cottage Grove since that time. He lived the last four years with Ralph Sears. He was a member of the Creswell Grange.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Roy Kennedy, Cottage Grove; a son, Vern Keakey, Creswell; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at Smith Mortuary in Cottage Grove Wednesday at 1:30 p.m., with the Rev. Michael Shelley officiating.

John R. Beyer

John R. Beyer, 85, died at his home in Springfield Sunday. He was born Nov. 26, 1861 at Auburn, N. Y., and married Isabel Hacker in Minnesota in 1882. He lived in Springfield the past 24 years.

Surviving are his widow; three children, Mrs. Grace Orr, Springfield; Arthur Beyer, Timber, and John Beyer, Alea; 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at Poole-Larsen Mortuary Wednesday at 10:30 a.m., with interment at Hillside Cemetery at Forest Grove, Ore.

Rich Formosans Blackmailed

NANKING—(U.P.)—Smuggled letters received here Monday from strife torn Formosa claimed that rich Formosans who avoided last month's reported "massacre" and "mass arrests" are being blackmailed for huge sums in order to escape further molestation by police and soldiers.

According to the letters, the wealthy Formosans were charged with "complicity in the riots" that recently led to an appeal from Gov. Chen Yi to the Nationalist government for troops. The alleged victims were said to have been forced to pay heavily for their continued freedom.

Disclosure of the letters came shortly after John W. Powell, editor and publisher of the China Weekly Review, charged that Gov. Chen Yi inaugurated a reign of terror when Nationalist troops arrived March 8 to quell the riots. Powell said that at least 5000 Formosans were massacred when the rioting ended March 18.

The source which showed the letters to the United Press said the author still was in Formosa and must remain anonymous.

Madge Randall

Madge Randall, 66, Springfield, died at her home Saturday. Born in Coalbale, Kans. Feb. 26, 1881, she married Charles Randall, who preceded her in death. She had lived in Springfield the past three years and in Oregon the past 11 years and was a member of the Christian Church.

Surviving are four sons, Joe, Cottonwood, Ariz., Glenn, Westfir, Charles, Springfield, and Roy, Eugene; five daughters, Faye Stires Pomona, Calif., Ruth Dorman, Grace Robb and Marie Kearns, Springfield, Charlotte Stear, Wrangel, Ariz.; three sisters, Mrs. Maude Maynard, Gods City, Kans., Mrs. Jossie Cook, Venice, Calif., and Mrs. Jessie Burcher, Kingisey, Kans.; three brothers, Guy Mathes, California, Claude Munhall and Roy Mathes, Burley, Idaho; 33 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced later from Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary.

William F. Landrum

William F. Landrum, 70, of 1330 High St., a resident of Eugene for 29 years, died at a local hospital Monday. He was a charter member of the Eugene Gleemen, and a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Eugene W.O.W. Lodge, Central Presbyterian Church and of the Hotel Greeters. For some time he was chief clerk at the Osburn Hotel.

Mr. Landrum was born Dec. 19, 1876 in St. Paul, Neb., and was married in Pendleton Nov. 9, 1904 to Louise Norris.

Surviving are his widow, Louise, of Eugene; two sons, William R. and H. Norris Landrum, both of Eugene three grandchildren, Billy, Susan and Jimmy Landrum, Eugene; a brother, H. D. Landrum, Klamath Falls; and three sisters, Mrs. H. R. Hanna, San Francisco, Mrs. Herbert Martinez, Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Hazel Grant, Pendleton.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Simon Mortuary.

Man Escapes As Car Goes in Stream

SALEM— (AP) —Kenneth Cecil Prather, North Bend, escaped serious injury and swam to shore from his submerged automobile Saturday when his car plunged into Mill Creek through the side of a bridge.

State police reported Prather was treated at the general hospital but suffered only shock in the accident at the edge of the city.

Martha Rhodes

Martha Rhodes, 78, died at the Florence home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Saturday. Martha Wassenaar was born June 23, 1868, at Pella, Iowa, and was married in 1899 to Horace Chester Rhodes. In 1902 she and her husband moved to Saskatchewan, Canada, where they took up a homestead and engaged in wheat farming. There were early residents of Sutherlin, Ore., and for the past 16 years Mrs. Rhodes lived at Florence. Mr. Rhodes died in Florence in 1932.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Johnson, Florence, Mrs. Milton Bickwell, and Miss Leona Rhodes, San Jose, Calif.; a brother, Harry Wassenaar, Prairie City, Iowa; three sisters, Mrs. Louise Kane, Prairie City, Mrs. Jane Stears, Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. Nell Van Maren, San Jose.

PUBLISHER'S FUNERAL

STAYTON — (AP) — Funeral services were held Monday for E. D. Alexander, former Stayton postmaster and publisher of the Stayton Weekly Mail, who died Friday at the age of 84.

Penalty Fits Crime As Youth Refills Tire

A 17-year-old youth paid for his mischieviousness here Sunday night when a city police officer forced to repump air into a car tire. The youth and another boy allegedly let the air out of the tire while the car was in a parking lot.

The officer's report said the boy was "released to go home after the tire was pumped up."
