Drain Plans Elections On Civic Problems

DRAIN — A special election will be held Thursday, June 12 at the city recorder's office to vote on exceeding the six per cent limitation by $11,840 to provide for building a bridge on B St. near the grade school, and using $1340 for equipment for playground; also to amend the charter and authorize the council to issue and see negotiable bonds in the amount of $35,000 or below to construct a new water reservoir and repairing existing pipe lines.

The annual school meeting is Monday, June 16 in the afternoon at the grade school, to elect two directors, vote on levying a district tax, and discussion of the budget. The district is to receive $16,309.31 from the state under the new basic school fund law, thus lowering to $17,847.92 the amount to be raised by taxation.

Dave Dixon is home from the hospital following the shooting fray in which he was allegedly injured by Richard Knight Monday, May 19. Knight was arraigned Wednesday on a charge of assault while armed with a dangerous weapon and is being held in the county jail pending his hearing. Knight's home is in Yoncalla, but he had been running a taxi here during recent weeks and had been appointed temporary marshal. Bill Blomberg now is serving in that capacity.

Baccalaureate was Sunday evening in the high school with Fred Hunt, local minister delivering the sermon.

McKenzie Says Yes To School's Plans

VIDA—Voters of the McKenzie River Consolidated School District voted unanimously Wednesday evening to approve the budget as presented by the school board. 52 votes were cast. The budget was for $101,480.16. The voters also approved of exceeding the six per cent limitation, in the amount of $7640.25. Bonded indebtedness will be $67,000.

Smith Taylor, chairman of the board, expressed thanks on behalf of the board and the superintendent. T. R. Powers, for the unanimous expression of interest in the school and approval of its hopes.

McKenzie School picnics were held this week. Tuesday the first three grades went to McKenzie Bridge Recreation Park for their picnic, and the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades went to a picnic at Paradise Park. Wednesday the high school students went to Belknap Springs.

All teachers of the McKenzie River School were hired for next year, with the exception of Mrs. Constance Terperning, who is leaving. This leaves a vacancy for a fifth grade teacher, who has not as yet been hired. Another change in the school personnel is the hiring of Mr. Riley of McKenzie Bridge, as janitor, who replaces Karl Hulburt. Otis Finn, who has been custodian of the building since it was built has reached the retirement age, but not wishing to retire, application was made to have his time extended, and he was given another six months extension to go on working.

Special awards and honorable mention was given on the last day of school to the following students who were not absent any day during the school year: Dale Rodebaugh, Larry Lewis, Nancy Lewis, Tommy Allen, Maxine Carlton, and Roma Dall Tolliver. Scott Thomson received an athletic award and Charlotte Gregory received an award from the Readers Digest, also her name was entered on a plaque to be kept in the trophy case, for being valedictorian of the senior class. Alan Power also had his name entered on the same plaque for being salutatorian of the class.

Mrs. T. R. Powers, who has been giving piano lessons at the McKenzie School during the past year, presented her pupils in recital, recently at the school.
