tration's plan for "marketing areas" in the master units.

Local Discussion

The O & C committee of the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's Assn. met Monday night at the Osburn Hotel to discuss the proposed sustained yield setup, and stressed the value of manufacturing lumber from the O & C areas within the marketing regions tributary to them.

Under the plan, future purchases of O & C timber must be processed in the marketing areas set up for each master unit.

Master units mainly involving Lane, Douglas, Linn and Benton County timber are:

1. South Coast Unit: 7,786,595,000 feet of merchantable O & C timber; 142,000,000 feet of allowable cut; Gardner, Reedsport, North Bend, Coos Bay, Empire, Coquille, Myrtle Point, Powers, Bandon for marketing areas;

2. Douglas unit, 6,214,059,000 merchantable; 92,500,000 allowable; Drain, Yoncalla, Elkton, Oakland, Sutherlin, Roseburg and Dillard, marketing areas;

3. Alsea-Richreall unit; 1,148,322,000 merchantable; 31,000,000 allowable; Salem, Dallas, Corvallis, Albany, Philomath, Alsea, Valsetz and Toledo, marketing areas;

4. Santiam River unit; 1,028,889,000 merchantable; 30,000,000 allowable; Salem, Corvallis, Albany, Dallas, Lebanon, Sweet Home, Mill City, marketing areas;

5. Upper Willamette unit; 4,076,017,000 merchantable; 87,000,000 allowable; Albany, Eugene, Junction City, Cottage Grove, Oakridge, Creswell;

6. Siuslaw unit: 2,531,850,000 merchantable; 50,900,000 allowable; Eugene, Springfield, Cottage Grove, Noti, Junction City, Swiss Home, Mapleton, Florence, marketing areas.

The hearings on the South Coast, Douglas, South Umpqua, Josephine, Jackson and Klamath units will be at Roseburg July 21; Alsea-Rickreall, Clackamas-Molalla, Santiam, Columbia River and Upper Willamette units at Salem, July 23.
