May B. Boring

May Beach Boring, 78, of 971 Hilyard St., Eugene, died Friday. She was born July 28, 1870, at Lawrence, Kan., and married William E. Boring at Kansas City, Mo., in 1889. She had been a resident of Eugene for six months.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. George E. French and Miss Frances Boring, both of Eugene.

Services were held Saturday in the Pool-Larsen Chapel with Rev. E. S. Bartlam officiating. Concluding services were in the Eugene Crematorium.

James Stobie

James Le Roy Stobie, 19, McKenzie Bridge, died on Luzon Jan. 25, 1945, while serving with United States forces in the recent World War. He was born April 18, 1925.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stobie, both of McKenzie Bridge; one brother, Douglas Stobie, McKenzie Bridge; and a grandmother, Mrs. May Wiley, Riddle.

Upon arrival of the remains in Eugene, services will be in the Simon-Lounsbury Chapel.

Council to Eye Amazon Bids

Eugene's city council will consider the awarding of bids during a Monday night meeting for widening and deepening the Amazon Creek from 20th Ave. and Hilyard St. to City View St.

Bids were opened at city hall Wednesday, but efforts to call a special session of the council before the regular Monday night meeting failed. Bids were submitted by Groesbeck and Hickson, $21,300; T. Charneski, $37,100; Inter-City Sand and Gravel, $19,-900 and Miller and Strong $47,000.

Bill Payments

City councilmen will have numerous bill payments to approve Monday night, plus the consideration of several petitions for streets and improvements.

Petitions will include one signed by Clarence Miller and three other property owners consenting to the improvement of Eighteenth Ave. E. between Patterson and Kincaid Sts. However, another petition signed by Norman Schneider and 19 other property owners will protest the same improvement.

Paving Request

Another petition will ask for paving 22nd Ave. from Lawrence to Washington St. The petition contains the signatures of 91.6 per cent of the affected property owners who would be assessed.

Olive A. McCoy

Olive Almira McCoy, 70, Cottage Grove, died Friday in the St. Charles Hospital, Bend. She was born June 13, 1878, in Minnesota and married L. P. McCoy at Cottage Grove Nov. 11, 1893. She has been a Cottage Grove resident for 55 years.

Surviving are one son, Everett V., Cottage Grove; one daughter, Mrs. Iva Brownlee, Lebanon; one brother, Milton Clow, Springfield; and two grandchildren.

Services will be 2:30 p. m. Monday in the Mills Mortuary in Cottage Grove with Rev. Frank Brown officiating. Interment will be in the Brumbaugh Cemetery at Blue Mountain.
