River Road Has Summer Library

RIVER ROAD — The summer library program of River Road community will begin Thursday when the library of River Road school will be open from 10 a.m. to 12 noon (DST) for loaning books. The project is sponsored by the River Road PTA and is open to anyone in the River Road-Santa Clara communities.

The 2,000 books of the school library will be supplemented by a supply of several hundred books from the Oregon state library, including adult books. There are books for pre-school age children, school children through the eighth grade, and adult books. Anyone eligible to borrow a book for a period of two weeks, and the service is free.

This is the third year for this program by the River Road PTA. Reports from the state library say that the books loaned here have had the most use of any library borrowed in the state.

Mrs. E. L. Cherry, a registered librarian who also teaches during the school year, will be the librarian. The program will run through Thursday, Aug. 28.

A story hour for children from pre-school age through the third grade will be held each Thursday at 10:30 a.m. Mothers in the community will tell the stories. Volunteers for the story-telling hour may call the library chairman, Mrs. William E. Trommershausen, 7-1365.

COIN A PUZZLE

MEMPHELO, Miss.—(U.P.)—Thomas Jones, 15, was digging fishing worms when he turned up a large gold coin dated 1781 and bearing a Latin inscription, "Many Things Lead to Happiness." The origin of the coin has been stumped.

More than one-half the hospital beds of the United States are occupied by mental patients.

CONSUELO VANDERBILT'S own story

"Prisoner" in a marble mansion, married into a loveless marriage with a Duke, Consuelo struggled in trade her millions for freedom and love. And in the Ladies' Home Journal you can read this fabulous life story of one of the world's greatest women. Here is a dramatic personal story of a lost era of incredible grandeur and the tragedy of misery and bondage it brought to this woman.
