re was another flourish of trumpets and Lord Curzon arose and stood for a moment impassive. Then, in impressive tones, he delivered a speech and read the message from King Edward. In his ad-dress the Viceroy announced the corona-tion of the King, extelled the loyal Indian people, and prophesied prosperity for the Indian Empire. He said also that it had been decided not to exact interest for three years on all loans made or guaran-teed by the Government of India from the native states in connection with the recent The Viceroy announced also the n of the Indian staff corps, which famine. has long been an army sinecure.

In the King's message, which was then read by Lord Curzon, His Majesty said that the Prince and Princess of Wales would shortly visit India. He regretted his absence from the durbar, and sent his greetings to his Indian people. In sion, King Edward said:

"I renew the assurances of my regard for the liberties of the Indian people; of my respect for their dignities and rights; of my interest in their advancement and of my devotion to their welfare. These are the supreme aims and objects of my rule which, under the blessing of Almighty God, will lead to the increasing prosperity of my Indian Empire, and to the greater happiness of its peoples." As the Vicercy finished reading the King's words, the assembled people broke into cheers for the King and Emperor The cheering was taken up by the multi-tude outside the amphitheater, and was long sustained.

There then followed the presentation of Indian Princes to the Viceroy and the Duke of Connaught, and polltical officers paid homage to the sovereign. This end 3 the ceremony, and the royal cortege the left the arena, followed by the delegat from foreign powers and the Indian

MAPLE, FURNITURE MAN, IS HURT.

Lord Curzon's Allusion to His Products Evokes a Protest.

LONDON, Jan. 1-Lord Curson has brought on himself the wrath of the furniture dealers of Great Britain by a disnture dealers of Great Bruin by a dis-paraging allusion in his speech at the opening of the art exhibition at Delhi December 30, to "Totenham Court Road furniture, its cheap Italian mosales and finning Brussels carpets," and appealing to the Maharajahs to furnish their palaces with Indian work rather than these British products. Sir John Blundell Ma-ple, M. P., who is governor of a large firm of furniture dealers of the Totton-ham Road, leads the attack and clinches his indictment with showing a letter dat-ed Calcutta from Lord Curzon, ordering carpets and requesting that the order be cuted yearly.

private apartments for luncheon. According to programme, the reception should have ended at 2 o'clock, but the President directed that all persons in line should be afforded an opportunity of entering the White House and being received. The total number of callers fell a trifle short of 7000. The President extended a cordial greeting and handshake to each one. He was particularly interested in the bables many of whom were carried by their parents. At the conclusion of the reeption the President manifested littl fatigue, and expressed hin.self as being delighted at the opportunity he had enjoyed of meeting so many or his friends. The police arrangements were under the nal supervision of Major Svivester erst and Captain Wilkie, of the Secret Service, was present with agents of his corps.

Detectives permitted no one to pass the line with hands in pockets or covered. So perfect were the arrangements that not a hitch occurred throughout the en tire programme

AT MAZATLAN. Outbreak Grows More Virulent and

Panic Seizes the People-Cordons Guard Inland Towns.

MAZATLAN, Mexico, Jan. 1.-There is no longer the slightest doubt that the disease now afflicting this city is genuine Asiatic plague, for microscopic investigadisease. The plague has grown virulent within the last 48 hours, and the alarm, which had begun in some measure to abate, has returned with increased strength. The people are ficeing from the city at the rate of 300 per day, and some

5000 have already gone It is a remarkable fact that more than 50 per cent of the persons attacked are women

The news of the recrudescence of the plague at this port has reached the interior towns of the state, and is causing a panic. Cordons of armed men have been placed around the towns to prevent the entrance of any one from this place.

Trying to Ward Off Plague.

HERMOSILLO, Mexico, Jan, 1-Owing to the scare caused by the epidemic at Mazatlan, strenuous measures are being taken here to improve the sanitary conditions of the city. Streets are to be made acrupulously clean, and the city government has appointed an inspector for each sity block.
