Cleaning Silver

Instead of scouring and rubbing each piece of silver separately, the whole service can be as effectively cleaned in a few minutes. After each meal the silver should be put into a pan (kept especially for the purpose) and cover with luke-warm water, to which a teaspoonfull of

Gold Dust Washing Powder

is added; set the pan on the range until the water goes to boiling point, then lift out each piece with a wire spoon and lay on a soft linen cloth, wiping quickly with chamois skin. The pieces so cleaned will be highly polished and look like new.

REPUBLICANS IN COUNCIL.

[CONCLUDED.]

ness before the convention, has also been in the legislature, serving in 1893.

To Prevent Legislative Holdups.

The chairman then read a resolution which was adopted on L. M. Watrus' motion:

"Be it resolved, by the republican delegates of Umatilla county in convention assembled, that the nominees for the legislature by this convention are hereby instructed to qualify and meet in caucus with the majority of the republicans when such caucus is called, for the purpose of electing a United States senator. The purpose of this resolution is to expedite the business for which the legislature is called and to prevent, so far as possible, another holdup of the legislature."

The County Judgeship.

Nominees for the county judgeship were then made—J. E. Bean and J. M. Lezzer, and the counting of votes began.

The result disclosed that Bean had 80 and Lezzer 33, and Mr. Bean was declared the nominee.

A Little Talking.

J. P. McManus then moved that L. B. Reeder and T. J. Kirk, the legislative nominees, be accorded five minutes each to explain why they allowed their names to go before the convention. Mr. Reeder demurred, and thought he should not consume the time of the convention, but the delegates insisted, and Mr. Reeder spoke briefly, announcing his allegiance to the principles of the republican party.

"Isn't that enough in explanation of why I am on earth, Mr. Chairman?" said he.

And the chairman said:

"It ought to be. It's better than Billy Bryan could do."

The delegates laughed thereat, and Mr. Kirk was called for. He was enthusiastially cheered and merely said that he thanked the convention for the honor and promised to do his best, and, as the veteran farmer and citizen yielded the floor, the delegates again yelled themselves hoarse.

For County Treasurer.

These names were placed before the convention for the treasurership: W. C. Kern, S. K. Yates, B. F. Renn, F. M. Oliver.

The count on treasurer showed: Yates, 80; Kern, 25; Renn, 7; Oliver, 2, Yates being the successful one.

A County Commissioner.

Horace Walker, of Helix, was nominated for the county commissionership by acclamation, and was called forward briefly to thank the convention for the honor.

The Shrievalty.

For sheriff, three were named, George Peringer, M. J. Carney, C. A. Frazier, the first vote standing—Peringer, 54, Carney, 40, Frazier, 18.

The second ballot stood: Peringer, 61; Carney, 50; Frazier, 2, Peringer being the nominee.

Mr. Carney at once stepped forward and pledged his support to the ticket entire, and received cheers for this evidence of his party fealty.

Nominees for the Clerkship.

For the county clerkship, three names were placed before the convention: B. E. Kennedy, J. T. Lambirth, Lot Livermore. The vote stood: Livermore, 63; Kennedy, 40; Lambirth, 15.

This was 116 votes, two more than there were delegates in the convention, hence Chairman Vincent called for another vote, which was taken.

The second ballot stood: Livermore, 67; Kennedy, 45; Lambirth, 2. Mr. Livermore, the nominee, was called on for a speech, but did not respond, and nominations for the county recordership were made.

The Recordership.

Wm. Ingram of McKay, Rev. L. Green of Athena, and J. P. Earl of Pendleton, were nominated. The ballot stood: Ingram, 52; Green, 51; Earl, 9. Necessary to a choice, 57, and therefore no election.

Mr. Earl withdrew in favor of Mr. Green, and another ballot was taken, resulting in Ingram receiving 65, and Green 46 votes. Ingram was declared nominated.

Geo. Buzan was nominated for assessor by acclamation.

J. F. Nowlin was nominated for school superintendent by acclamation.

As the East Oregonian went to press, Dr. W. G. Cole, Ralph Folsom and J. F. Walker were being balloted on for coroner.

DEATH OF MRS. BURGESS.

Wife of William C. Burgess Dies at Dr. Cole's Private Hospital.

Mrs. Eva T. Burgess, wife of W. C. Burgess of this city, died at Dr. Cole's private hospital at 12:30 p. m. today, after an illness of some six or seven weeks. Mrs. Burgess came to Pendleton with her husband and daughter Hazel, who survive her, about 10 years ago, and at once became actively identified with every good work to which she could lend assistance. Though a woman of delicate health she really accomplished a great deal of work, and if life be measured by that standard, she had a long life, though she died young.

She was a woman of broad sympathies and generous impulses, and was never weary in well doing. A life long member of the Episcopal church she ever found in that fold a field for her highest enthusiasms. For years she was a most successful teacher in the Sunday school, and an interested and active member of its parochial organizations. It is needless to add that the parish of the Church of the Redeemer, as well as the community, has met with a real loss in her early death.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.
