RECORD OF THE PAST.

What Stronger Evidence Can the Reader Ask for?

Look well to the record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee for future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles from any kidney ills, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand.

Eugene E. Larlo, of 715 20th Ave., ticket seller in the Union Station, Denver, Colo., says: "You are at liberty to repeat what I first stated through our Denver papers about Doan's Kidney Pills in the summer of 1899, for I have had no reason in the interim to change my opinion of the remedy. I said when first interviewed that if I had a friend or acquaintance suffering from backache or kidney trouble, I would unhesitatingly advise them to go to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills and take a course o fthe treatment. I was subject to severe attacks of backache for a considerable length of time, always aggravated if I sat long at a desk. It struck me while reading a newspaper that if Doan's Kidney Pills performed half what they promised, they might at least help. This induced me to try the remedy. It absolutely stopped the backache. I have never had a touch or a twinge since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

WANTED—YOUR ORDERS FOR ENgraved cards, wedding invitations, etc.; 100 engraved visiting cards with plate, $1.50; additional cards in future, $1 per hundred. The East Oregonian.

THE RHODES GIFTS

NINETY AMERICAN BOYS TO STUDY AT OXFORD.

South African Autocrat Made Gifts That are World Wide in Effect—Meetings Now Being Held in the West to Arrange Scholarships.

Spokane, March 6.—Dr. J. R. Parkin, late president of Canada college, Toronto, is in the city today representing the trustees of the Cecil Rhodes estate.

The trustees are seven well known public men and were prominently connected with South African affairs. They are: Lord Roseberry, late prime minister of England; Lord Grey, Lord Milner, Alfred Beit, Dr. Jameson and Mr. Hawksley, a London attorney.

These men, numbered among the very busy men of the world, have appointed Dr. Parkin to make inquiries in all countries about the Rhodes educational bequest and to report to them the opinions of educated men about the best methods of making the trust effective.

Dr. Parkin has already held conferences in all provinces of Canada and in most of the large cities in the United States.

From Spokane he will proceed to San Francisco and Denver. The meeting held today at the rooms of the Spokane Amateur Athletic club is for the states of Washington, Idaho and Oregon. Those present were:

President Kane University of Washington; Dr. Penrose, Walla Walla; President Bryan, Washington Agricultural college; Dr. Gault, Whitworth college, Tacoma; Dean Ferrin, Pacific university, Oregon, and J. A. McLean, University of Idaho, Moseow.

Speaking of the object of his mission, Dr. Parkin said:

"When the Rhodes trust is in full working operations there will be 90 young Americans educated at Oxford. Three of this number will be from Montana. The 90 will constitute part of about 200 young men drawn from all parts of the world where the English language is spoken.

"Mr. Rhodes' will provides that these students have $1500 a year for three years to pursue their studies. His idea was that a common education would tend to produce mutual understanding among people of the Anglo-Saxon race and he believed that this could be done at an ancient center of culture like Oxford.

"Perhaps some day some American millionaire will match this feat with some provision to bring young Englishment out to an American university."

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM BRUTE.

Walla Walla Woman Asks That She Be Freed From Her Lord.

It takes two pages of closely typewritten matter for Laura Hulett to tell of the indignities that her husband, James Hulett, has heaped upon herself and children during the past seven years of their married life, and half of another page to ask that an absolute divorce be granted, says the Walla Walla Statesman. The papers were filed in the superior court this morning.

Hulett's chief amusement the past few years, according to his wife's statements, has been to abuse her in a shameful manner, throw butcher knives at her, call her names that a loving wife should not be called and to conduct himself in a manner that no fond husband and father should.

Mrs. Hulett states that she and her husband were married in Ottumwa, Iowa, March 28, 1893, and that three children are the result of the union. For the past three years she has been compelled to provide a living for herself and little ones, and when that was impossible, to accept aid from the Ladies' Relief Society. She asks that the custody of the children be awarded to her.

Hulett is a well known painter around town and has been in custody several times for alleged brutal conduct and threatening to kill his wife. A few months ago he was arrested and placed under $200 bonds, but after lying in the county jail several weeks promised to mend his ways and was released.
