FORTUNATE FREEWATER.

Entirely Out of Debt and Has a Handsome Surplus.

A. S. Pearson, city recorder of Freewater, is in town today to attend the county convention, being one of the delegates.

Mr. Pearson is proud of Freewater and thinks it is one of the most prosperous places in the state. It now has $2,000 in cold cash in the city treasury and does not owe a cent to any person or corporation, being entirely out of debt and running on a cash basis.

During the spring the city has built about 2,000 feet of sidewalk, put up several new business buildings, made a great many other improvements, and is on the upward road generally.

There are three saloons in the place which pay a license of $500 each, thus raising funds enough in one lump to pay the running expenses of the city, so that all the rest of the income is clear velvet for the lining of the vault.
