HOW HE ESCAPED.

"I understand," says the special correspondent to the long, lang, bewhiskered native of Adams county, Gale, "that you are the only man in your section who was not indicted for accepting a bribe for his vote at the last election."

"That's right, sir," replied the native.

"Would you object to telling me your reasons for not taking a bribe? You are, you being the only man who didn't sell his vote, anything you have to say will be——"

"I don't know a thing about 'em sellin' votes. I was up in Logan county visitin' my sick ma an' I missed the election."—Chicago Post.

Wifely Retort.

Will—Mamma, am I descended from monkeys?

Mamma—I don't know, dear; I never saw any of your father's relations.

CAR LOAD OF NEW SETTLERS AT ECHO

MANY HAVE ALREADY MADE PURCHASES AND OTHERS WILL

Wisconsin and Illinois Farmers to Cast Their Lot in Umatilla County —Homes Already Established.

(Special Correspondence.)

Echo, Ore., March 25.—This morning a car of representative people arrived here from Wisconsin and Illinois. A number of them had already purchased land under the Western Land company's project and have now come to establish their homes here, while others have come with the intention of purchasing land. The eastern people are fast recognizing the opportunity of securing land.

Miss Ina Watenburger visited in Pendleton today.

Mrs. F. M. Ackley and daughters were among those going to Pendleton this morning.

J. R. Watson was transacting business at the county seat today.

Justice Is Swift.

Swift justice was meted out yesterday when John Allen better known as Tim, who was arrested the night before when detected in the act of stealing potatoes from the George & Miller company, was brought before Justice Schell. Allen pleaded not guilty, but as there were seveal eye-witnesses to the stealing and the evidence was so conclusive he received a sentence of 40 days in the county jail. Allen has hung up a record for being dead in his repertoire of a seven bam. Constable Perry Wimmer took him to Pendleton on the first part evening. There was some considerable yelling done on the 30 days the poor soldier got it is expected that this will have a salutary effect on the habit.

[illegible] meeting on Tuesday night at the M. E. church. Considering the weather a good crowd was present. After the business meeting and addresses refreshments were served and a good time was enjoyed by those present.

The ladies of the M. E. church met last Wednesday and reorganized the ladies aid society. The following officers were elected: Mrs. L. W. Rosler, president; Mrs. W. F. Kesler, vice president; Mrs. Mary A. Baker, treasurer; Mrs. Bert Buckles, secretary. The ladies also decided to entertain this Saturday evening at a third dime social which will be given for the benefit of the M. E. church.

H. H. Lewis, the Hermiston furniture man, was a business visitor here yesterday.

Mrs. Julia Guilford has returned to Pendleton after several weeks' visit here with her son, C. J. Guilford and family.

E. M. Dyer and little daughter Phyllis, are here yesterday from Hermiston.

L. T. King went up to Pendleton this morning to spend the day.

Ed Hammer returned last evening from Iowa.

Plaintiff Wins Suit.

The civil suit of Gillette vs. McCullough and Cecil was heard before Justice Schell yesterday with the result of a decision in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $75 and costs. Notice of appeal was given. This case involves the renting of pasture lands and is the second suit brought against defendants for almost identicaly the same cause. In both cases the decisions were in favor of the plaintiffs. The first case was decided by a jury and the second by the justice. Both cases were appealed to the higher courts.

Mrs. Lilly Corder and Miss Laura Bonney left last evening with a troupe of local talent for Hermiston, where they expected to stage the play of "Topsy Turvey." Miss Bonney is the leading lady in the play.

Miss Laura Bonney and Mrs. Ruth Young visited in Hermiston yesterday.
