SWINE MARKET CLIMBS HIGH

PORTLAND, Feb. 12.—Portland climbed to a new high record for swine during the day's trading at North Portland. The price here at $17.25 for top quality hogs, far eclipsed values in any of the recognized and leading stockyard markets of the United States.

While weakness was generally noted for hogs in the east with rather liberal runs, the North Portland market acted just the contrary, demand being very keen and supplies below requirements.

The swine trade reversed itself during the day, preference being given to light stuff by killers and these commanded a stiff premium over the heavies, while normally the reverse is the case.

General hog market range:

Prime light	$16.85@17.25
Prime heavy	16.60@16.90
Pigs	14.50@15.50
Bulk	16.80@17.00

Cattle Higher for Ordinary.

Ordinary quality cattle ruled 15 to 25c higher at North Portland during the initial trading of the week, although there was a slow market for the better class stuff. Some small business was done in top steers at $11 but among killers there was a noticeable disposition to grab the lower grade stuff and show indifference to offerings of choppers. While there were not many offerings in the top steer division and sales were generally made at the former limits, still the market price was barely maintained.

General cattle market range:

Medium to choice steers	$10.25@11.00
Good to medium steers	9.35@10.25
Common to good steers	8.00@9.40
Choice cows and heifers	8.00@10.00
Common to good cows and heifers	6.75@8.15
Canners	4.25@6.25
Bulls	5.00@8.00
Calves	7.50@11.00
Stocker and feeder steers	6.50@9.50

Sheep Trade Quiet.

There was not enough offering in the sheep and lamb division of the North Portland market to make much difference in the price one way or the other.

General trading situation was quiet and the only arrival in a carload for the day was sent in by an interest closely connected with local packers.

General sheep and lamb range:

Western lambs	$15.00@15.00
Valley lambs	14.50@15.00
Yearlings	13.00@13.50
Wethers	12.50@13.00
Ewes	10.00@11.00
