NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Executive Meeting Tomorrow.
A regular weekly meeting of the executive committee of the Umatilla Red Cross will be held tomorrow at 3 p. m. in the Red Cross rooms.

Mrs. Willard Bond and little daughter, Betty Bond, returned last night from Portland. They have been visiting in Portland since the return of Mrs. Bond's brother, Frank R. Hays, who was in France and Germany as a member of the 148th Field Artillery.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sprankle of Renovo, Pennsylvania, arrived today to be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wickland. Mrs. Sprankle and Mrs. Wickland are old friends, and have not seen each other since five years ago, when they were together in Atlantic City.

Franklin Miller With Troops.
Franklin Miller, who was stationed near Pendleton while the Third Oregon, passed through the city last night going to Camp Lewis for discharge. He was with the 140 casuals from Camp Merritt, who landed recently after overseas service.

John Bentley in Portland.
J. M. Bentley, one of Pendleton's pioneers, is at the New Perkins. Mr. Bentley has lived for 50 years in Umatilla county and has served as United States marshal, sheriff, assessor and in various other law-enforcing capacities until recent years, when he settled down to the quiet routine of a real estate and insurance office.—Oregon Journal.

Philip Jackson Returning.
Captain Philip O. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, will return home Saturday. Captain Jackson went to training camp, was sent overseas and was given a commission as captain. He has been 18 months in the service.—Oregonian.

118 Families Served.
One hundred eighteen families were served by the Home Service section of the Umatilla County Red Cross, during June, according to a report made today by Miss Virginia Todd, secretary. The sum of $73.10 was loaned as financial assistance.

Ivan McCormmach Returns.
Ivan H. McCormmach has returned from France after being in the service as a member of Base Hospitals 52, 23 and 64. He was also in the 13 Escort Company. He brought several interesting souvenirs with him, including pieces of French money.

Ex-Soldier Becomes Grocer.
Lee Johnson of Milton today accepted a position with the Pendleton Cash Market after receiving his discharge from the service. He served 18 months overseas. Before entering the army, Johnson had considerable experience as a grocery clerk.

Is On Reception Committee.
R. Alexander has been notified by Mayor Baker of Portland of his appointment on the committee to welcome the arrival of the new Pacific fleet in Portland on its expected visit to that city in August.

Has Resumed Old Business.
Ed Lannings, who was in France and Germany with the Troop D boys and was within 100 miles of Berlin hile with the Army of Occupation, is no running his old business, the Independent City Scavenger Co.

Milton Man Attends Convention.
C. D. Hobbs, of Milton, is in Portland attending the seventeenth annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Association of Nurserymen held at the Imperial Hotel. The shortage of nursery stock and the question of higher prices are the principal things being discussed at the convention.

Grows 60 Bushel Barley.
Tom Gillette, who recently turned his sword into a plowshare, is cutting barley on his ranch at Cayuse. The yield so far has approximated 60 bushels to the acre, which Gillette claims is some barley. He has a big field of wheat, also, which he will begin cutting soon but looks for the barley to be every bit as profitable.

Intervention Is Endorsed.
At a meeting of the Commercial Club board of managers this morning official action was taken towards intervention in the rate case brought by the Inland Empire Shippers' League. The subject was recently presented to the officers of the club by Edward Ostrander of Portland and Ralph Watson of the Journal.

Threw Match Carelessly.
Carelessly throwing down a match after lighting a cigarette, the brother of Mrs. Skeels, living at 613 West Bluff, caused a small fire this morning. When the department arrived the fire was blazing on the porch of the place and bedding on a porch bed was afire. The fire was put out with the chemical and the damage is estimated at $25.

Synod of Oregon to Meet.
The Rev. J. Francis Morgan, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and E. A. McCulley, elder, expect to attend the Synod of Oregon for the church which will be held in Eugene July 15-22. Every minister of the church in Oregon is a delegate and each Presbyterian church is entitled to send an elder. A course of lectures, and other studies are included in the synod.

Councilman Back from Trip.
Councilman Claude E. Penland, Mrs. Penland and family returned last night from a ten days' auto trip to Tacoma and Seattle. They spent Friday at Tacoma where they witnessed the auto races. Three days ago Mr. Penland engaged in a snow fight near Easton in the Cascades and a day later ran into weather as hot as Pendleton has been having.

Brother of Mrs. Hester Here.
Guy Schattner, brother of Mrs. R. C. Hester of this city, arrived today after service as first doctor's assistant in the navy, and will visit here on his way to his home in San Francisco. He has been in the navy for the past two years and has been stationed on the Pocahontas, but was on the Ophir which went up in flames recently. Schattner completed his eighth trip across the ocean before receiving his discharge.

Colonel Patch, 146th F. A., Here.
Colonel Leroy V. Patch, who commanded the 146th Field Artillery during its engagements in France, was a Pendleton visitor this morning on his way from his home in Payette, Idaho, to San Point, Idaho, where he will give an address tomorrow. Colonel Patch is now adjutant general of the state of Idaho, having received his appointment upon his return from overseas. Colonel Patch says he is proud of the record of the 146th, of which many Pendleton and Umatilla county men were members. The address in Sand Point is part of a tour that the colonel is making.

To Make Survey of Birds.
Stanley Jewett, of the United States Biological Survey and who has his headquarters in Pendleton left yesterday for a trip to Rainier National Park, on a national park service survey of birds and animals of the park. Mr. Jewett is accompanying State Biologist William L. Finley, and others in the party are Walter P. Taylor, of Washington, and William Shum of Pullman College. The government expedition will spend two weeks in the park and Mr. Finley will take moving pictures of the wild life. It is the intention of the party to confine its attention moistly to the earlier birds on this trip.

Two Couples Held by Police.
E. F. Young and John Collet, youths about 18 years old, and Edna McCarty and Alice Graham, roomers at 608 Willow street, were arrested last night on complaint of Mrs. Annie G. Ireland, owner of the rooming house. She charged them with immoral conduct. The boys pleaded not guilty in police court this morning and were returned to jail in default or $50 bail each, to have their trial at 3 o'clock today. At 1:30, however, the boys changed their pleas to guilty and were fined $50 or 25 days each. The two young women each posted a $50 Liberty bond which was forfeited by their non-appearance.

Little Girl Run Over.
While crossing West Court street yesterday to get an ice cream cone from a wagon, little Mary Frances Crabtree, aged four, was knocked down by a Goedecke taxi driven by Charles Bowers and badly bruised. Mrs. Crabtree was standing on the corner waiting for the little girl and neither the child nor her mother saw the car until the accident happened. Mr. Crabtree said today that the accident was unavoidable.

Newcomers Invited to Library.
New residents in Pendleton are especially urged to take advantage of the opportunity to take books from the county library. The library gives a borrower's card to anyone who secures the signature of a county property owner. Cards are given also to borrowers whose names are in the county directory.

Let 'er Buck Signs Appear.
Signs bearing the words "Let 'er Buck" appear on the walls in the headquarters of the Oregon Welcome Committee in New York, say Pendleton boys who have been welcomed there upon their return from service. Papers from all over the United States are on hand so that every service man has a chance to read the home news.
