TWO MEN IN CUSTODY FOR REFUSING HELP IN SUPPRESSING FIRE

La Grande Men, Who Would Not Assist in Fighting Fire at Cove are Lodged in Jail; Term in Jail Looms.

LA GRANDE, Aug. 27.—Two men are lodged in the county jail as a result of refusing to aid in the suppression of forest fires when asked to.

The new government ruling, which the fire supervisor put into force last week when fighting the forest fire above Cove, is what caused the young men's arrest. The new government ruling allows the fire warden to draft anyone, unless he has a good eligible excuse, to aid in fighting fires.

When the fire warden approached the two men in question, J. F. O'Connor and Douglas Lawson, asking them to help fight fire, although they had no excuse, they refused to be drafted, saying they would not fight fire for anyone, not even the U. S.

It was not long until their anarchistic utterances reached the ears of the sheriff and soon the two men were safely in the county jail to think the matter over.

When called to plead their case, the one man refused to talk either way. Evidently Judge Knowles was prepared for such, for after one question, the Judge did not ask any more but said he would make a plea of "Not Quilty" for the prisoner. The prisoner seemed surprised and asked him what this meant. Then it was explained to him that by not pleading guilty and getting off by being fined, he would now have to spend several months in the county jail and stand trial at the October session of court.

Hereafter, the men to fight forest fires can be drafted just as they were for the army the past year. Unless a good excuse is given, the man will have to serve.

Brilliant falsehoods dazzle more eyes than gems of truth.

CALIFORNIA, NEVADA, ARIZONA, PRACTICALLY ISOLATED

southern California suddenly made its appearance here. The strike which began in Los Angeles in sympathy with the workers of the Pacific Electric and Los Angeles street car systems first jumped north as far as Bakersfield and Fresno and south to San Diego. Overnight, without warning it leaped the intervening distance to San Francisco. All trains scheduled to leave over the Southern Pacific, Western Pacific and Santa Fe from San Francisco and Oakland, including suburban trains down the peninsula, are cancelled. No tickets are sold at the railroad administration's union ticket office. The walkout is expected to spread today to Sacramento, Stockton and other points.

The strike paralysis California when thousands of tourists from eastern states are returning home. Several hundred are stranded at Barstow a junction point on the Santa Fe in the desert above Los Angeles. No supplies have been received at the hotel there for several days. Los Angeles itself is threatened with a food shortage. The strike has spread despite an order from brotherhood chiefs that the men will return.

Strike Is Spontaneous

Those striking include the yardmasters, switchmen, engineers, firemen and shopmen. The strike began when a hundred men walked out of the Southern Pacific yards. It spread to the entire bay district within an hour. It was spontaneous, practically without leadership. The men at the meeting last night formulated the demands as follows; Reinstatement of all strikers of the Pacific Electric on the terms of the original demands; of all Los Angeles brotherhood men, discharged for refusing to handle P. E. cars; of all San Francisco strikers after the demands affecting southern California are satisfied. Ocean travel between San Francisco and Los Angeles has been unhampered but the boats are inadequate to handle the great rush of passengers. Though unsanctioned by the brotherhoods, the state federation of labor is backing the strike.

TWO BADLY HURT IN PLANE CRASH

CLEVELAND, O., Aug 27.—Fred O. Price of Canton, Ohio, a passenger, was fatally injured and Lieutenant Joseph Skoening of Chicago, air mail pilot, was seriously injured when the airplane in which they were flying crashed 1800 feet to the ground this evining.

CROPS GROWN ON RAILROAD RIGHT OF WAY

GRAND RAPIDS.—The right of way along this railroad from Richmond, Ind., to the Straits of Mackinac bears not only traffic but crops. Encouraged by the rail officials, farmers along the road cultivated this land that is usually seen lying idle.

FATAL SHOOTING IN LOS ANGELES STRIKE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—Irwin R. Day, a switchman employed by the Southern Pacific Company, was shot and probably fataly wounded last night at Sixth and Alameda streets, where a crowd of strike sympathizers was gathered. Day was riding in an automobile at the time. His assailant was not discovered.
