News of Pendleton

Buys Confectionary Store.
Harry K. Nisson has bought the confectionary store at Echo formerly conducted by Chester Husted. He has made many interior improvements and added new lines.

K. of P. Lodge Meeting.
The members of the Knights of Pythias are anticipating a big time tonight. There will be 18 candidates and work in the ranks of esquire and knight.

Lenten Services Begin
Marking the beginning of the Lenten season, services will be held at the Church of the Redeemer Wednesday at 10 a. m. and at 4 p. m. On Thursday, services will be held at 7:30 p. m. and on Friday at 4 p. m.

Indians Contribute.
Indians of the Presbyterian mission yesterday contributed a large sum for Christian Endeavor work than has been given this season by any society in the state. After a talk by Miss Faye Steinmetz and Carroll Roberts, C. E. officers, the Indians, unsolicited, contributed $108. Rev. J. M. Cornelison took Miss Steinmetz and Mr. Roberts to the mission for the visit.

Completes Dragging Road.
E. H. Hartung has completed dragging the telephone line road from the top of the hill to Echo, and it is now in good shape for auto travel, say motorists. It is reported, however, that the grade of the top of the hill to Pendleton is in bad shape and in need of repairs.

Umatilla Makes Fine Showing.
Umatilla county is second only to Multnomah in returns from the Chirstmas seal sale, according to returns from the sale all over the state. Out of a total of $31,796 sold in the state, Umatilla sold $1,663, with some districts yet to hear from. Excellent work was done here by Mrs. David B. Hill, Mrs. Earl P. Tulloch and Mrs. W. D. McNary.

Will Talk About Art.
Miss L. A. Migt, national director for the National Liberal Arts and Science League, with headquarters in Philadelphia, is to give an illustrated talk on the underlying principles of art at the library auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening. Miss Mint has formed classes in some of the local schools and it is said her talk this evening will be very interesting. The meeting is open to the public.

C. O. Roland Is Ill.
C. O. Roland, cashier for the E. R. Parker system, is ill. He is confined to his home by a severe cold.

Will Build New Porch.
Grant Ehrhart was issued a building permit today to place a new porch on his dwelling at 209 Hyde street. The improvement will cost $150.

Goes to Athena.
Fred Bennion, county agent, left today for Athena where he will visit the farmers of that section in the interests of county agent work.

Leaves Tonight for Enterprise.
John Joerger, who has purchased an interest in the Eagle Cap laundry at Enterprise, will leave tonight to take up his new duties. He has been with the Umatilla Auto Co., since returning from the service.

Fair Weather Forecast.
Fair weather until the end of this week is the weather bureau forecast for this section. Rains in Oregon and Washington are predicted for the final days of the week. Temperatures will be slightly below normal during the first half of the week, with rising temperatures following.

Takes Desk in Bank.
Henry W. Collins, who was recently elected to the directorate of the American National Bank, today took a desk in the bank and will spend a portion of each day hereafter attending to matters of the banking business. He occupies the desk formerly used by F. E. Judd.

Auto Violators Pay Fines.
It cost Walter Freeman $2 in police court this morning for the pleasure he derived in listening to the purr of his motor with the muffler cut out. Lloyd Bowman, who parked his car on the left side of an 80-foot street, was also pronounced guilty and required to pay $2 into the city funds.

Returns From the East.
Rudolph M. Tannler, of the Western Auto Company, returned today from a trip to the Cole, Reo and Dort factories. He says that cars are plentiful but that freight conditions are holding up deliveries. Purchasers sometimes drive the cars 500 or 600 miles because they cannot get the cars delivered by freight.

Farmers Not Worrying.
The wheat farmers have not yet begun to worry about this year's wheat crop, say local businessmen who are frequently in conversation with them. Some look upon the continued frosty nights with a bit of expectation but none is certain that any damage has been done. A few are complaining of thin spots in their fields but do not fear that many of these will fill out with time.

Start Improvements Today
Cruikshank & Hampton, furniture dealers, today started alterations to their store on East Webb street which when completed, will give them one of the largest floor spaces of any retail establishment in Pendleton. The work beginning today is the installation of a new and modern plate glass front to their present store room. Shortly after March 1 the restaurant adjoining will be vacated and that room added to the present quarters.

Cold Springs Road Dragged.
The Cold Springs road, from the Lee street grade to the Henry Struve place, nearly 10 miles out, has just been graded and dragged, putting the road in good condition. One of the county caterpillars and graders went over the route last week. Two crews are now at work on the Pendleton-Pilot Rock road with graders and it is also in much better condition for travel, say sojourners from the neighboring city today.

Boosting Local Product
Forty four- and-half pound packages of Skookum pancake flour, each containing a $1 bill, were distributed equally among local grocers today by the Umatilla flour & Grain Co., in whose mill the product is manufactured. The dollar bills are put in the packages to stimulate local consumption of the flour and encourage the home products idea among Pendleton householders. Persons who receive packages containing the bills are asked by the company to notify the office, together with their opinin of the flour after a fair trial. The campaign of introducing this product will continue all of this week.

23 Added to Christian Church.
There were 22 additions to the membership of the Christian church when Evangelist Wilhite finished his invitations yesterday. There was one more addition at the evening service, making 23 for the day and 42 to date in the meeting. The Christian Endeavor convention was a great success, say those who attended. Mr. Wilhite's two sermon subjects yesterday were morning, "Religion in the Home." Evening, "Almost Persuaded." The subject tonight will be "Influence and Power." The music is always a great feature. Prof. Gates asks all music lovers to fill the chorus platform as they have been doing thus far. Evangelist Wilhite will present to the audience tonight a copy of music sung to the tune of "Red Wing," that was written by these evangelists eleven years ago. It will be sung here for the first time tonight.

Grocery Department Grows.
An extension of 25 feet to the grocery department is being made at the Pendleton Trading Co., store to handle increased business. The offices have been removed from the main floor to a balcony erected in rear of the store and new counters and shelves installed in the 25 foot space thus made available. The company has also installed a new Remington bookkeeping system and Miss Alice Walker, of Portland, has arrived to have charge of the office. J. A. Cover, who formerly kept the books, has been added to the grocery sales force. The improvements now under way will be completed late this week at a cost exceeding $1000.

Will Attend Conference.
The state pastors' training conference, arranged by the Interchurch World Movement, which will take place in Portland at the White Temple, March 3-5, is claiming the interest of Umatilla county ministers. Pastors will attend from all over the state. Those who have already signified their intention to attend from this county are: Baptist, Rev. W. H. Cox, Pendleton; Rev. M. G. Bentley, Freewater; Rev. D. Hall, Hermiston; Rev. M. D. Lynn, Helix; Rev. W. R. Storms, Weston; Christian, Rev. R. L. Russabarger, Pendleton; Methodist, Rev. R. E. Gornall, Pndleton, Rev. Godfrey Koprivа, Athena; Presbyterian, Rev. B. F. Harper, Milton, Rev. J. Francis Morgan, Pendleton, and Rev. C. B. Babbidge, Umapine.

What Is Rheumatism? Why Suffer from It?

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection.

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unaswered.

Science has proven that Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years and many voluntary testimonials are on file from those whom it has benefitted. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. For treatment of your individual case, address Chef Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. 43, Atlanta, Ga.
