News of Pendleton

Instructor Is Ill.
Miss Mary Johns, English teacher at Pendleton high school, is ill this week and her place is being filled by Mrs. R. I. Keator.

Easter Lilies Plentiful.
Unlike last year, Easter lilies are plentiful this year, says S. H. Forshaw, local florist. Despite the cold weather the blossoms are flourishing and are in full bloom.

Illness Prevents Shipment.
Because of the illness of Bluford Buzbee, brother of Rev. E. V. Buzbee, deceased, the body of Rev. Buzbee has not yet been shipped to Texas for burial. Mr. Buzbee was taken sick at the train and was forced to remain in Pendleton.

Services In Pastime Theatre.
A noon service will be held at the Pastime Theatre on Good Friday, with Rev. MacCallum, evangelist, as speaker. Guy Matlock donated the theatre for use by the church. The service will be from 12:30 to 1:20 p. m. There will be special music and the public has been asked to attend.

County Conference Arranged.
A county conference for Umatilla county has been arranged for by the Baptist new world movement, and will be held in Weston previous to and following the intensive campaign. May 7 to 9, a conference will be held at Weston, by Rev. J. J. Ticknor, moderator, of Adams and Rev. R. F. Storms, clerk, of Weston.

Committee Will Not Meet.
Because of the absence from town of several members, the committee on nursing activities of the Umatilla County Red Cross will not hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday evening. The nurse's report, the only item of business scheduled, will be given at the first Monday in May.

Elks Will Install Officers.
Officers to serve during the coming year will be installed tonight by Pendleton lodge of Elks at their regular meeting. Charles C. Vinler heads the list as exalted ruler and will take over the duties of that office from L. D. Drake, who has served since last April. Initiation will also be held for a class of candidates and entertainment and refreshments will close the evening.

Speaker To Be Here.
Mrs. Millie R. Trumbell secretary of the State of Oregon Board of Inspectors of Child Labor, will be in Pendleton Monday evening, April 5, to speak to Pendleton people. She comes here from Portland under the auspices of the Parent Teacher Associations of Pendleton. She will speak at the Christian Church auditorium, and her topic will be Federal and State Laws, regulating child labor in Oregon. Admission to the meeting will be free.

Two Drunks Forfeit $10 Each.
John Doe and Sam O'Connor, arrested last night for being drunk, forfeited $10 bail each in police court this morning. Vanilla extracts were responsible for O'Connor's inebriation.

Van Orsdall Creditors Meet.
The first meeting of the creditors of W. H. Van Orsdall, bankrupt was held in the office of Thomas Fitz Gerald, referee in bankruptcy, this morning. Adrian Ingleman of Ione, was appointed trustee.

This Is Coffee Week.
Local stores are observing Coffee Week, which began Monday and ends April 4, by special displays of coffee. It is estimated that the amount of coffee consumed in the United States each year averages a cup each day for every man, woman and child.

Posters On Display.
Posters advertising the benefit dinner of the Church of the Redeemer, to be held on Monday at the Wyrick home on Jackson street, are shown in Pendleton windows today. They are the work of Miss Sabra Nason. The church promises "all you can eat" for the price of the dinner.

Boy in Trouble in Portland.
Gordon Nelson, former Pendleton boy who was arrested here a month ago charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, has been arrested in Portland for forgery, the sheriff's office learned today. The boy was released here when his mother made good his defalcations.

Precipitation is .03 Inches.
Snow which fell today has reached a total precipitation of .03 inches, says Major Lee Moorhouse, weather observer. The snow is of the moist variety and melts as it falls. It is reported that it is snowing hard in the mountains. The maximum temperature today is 40, while the minimum last night was 23. The barometer registers 29.45, and is rising a little.

Snow Suits Farmers.
The snowfall today was welcomed by farmers hereabouts, following the freezing cold winds of the past several days. Not only is the moisture going into the ground, but it is moderating the temperature considerably. Fear is expressed in some quarters that the cold winds killed off the weaker wheat plants where the stand is not yet heavy enough to withstand cold. On the other hand, this fear may be exaggerated, some say.

CERTAIN RISE OF LABOR PARTY IN U. S. FORECAST

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 1.—An American labor party is sure to rise from present political conditions, Professor E. M. Sait, of Columbia University, declared here today. Sait believes the party will assume the power of the British labor party which will result in the bringing together of republicans and democrats into one party.

RUHR REBELS REFUSE TO LAY DOWN ARMS

PARIS, April 1.—The French foreign office was today advised from Berlin that the German Ruhr rebels have refused General Von Watters ultimatum demanding that they surrender arms and disband their soviet.

In the meantime, advices said, independent socialists in Berlin have issued an ultimatum to the government, demanding the removal of Von Watter, commanding government troops, which have taken the field against the rebels.

HEIR TO MILLIONS

CHICAGO—Here you are, kids—the real soda queen! She's little Rosemary Baur of Chicago, and the tax on ice cream sodas shouldn't worry her a bit. Why? Because she has fallen heir to two-thirds of the estate of the late Jacob Baur of the Liquid Carbonic Co., and owns 742 shares of stock, said to be worth $1,300,000. And she's just 9 years old—the soda age.
