Tri-weekly trips over two routes are planned, one by way of Lewiston-Clarkston, Walla Walla, Dayton, Ritzville and return, and a shorter trip to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Wallace, Plummer and Fairfield, Wash. Business men of these cities are backing the venture, it was stated.

NOTICE

Owing to the strike of the coal miners on the Pacific coast we are unable to obtain coal gas from Rosyln mines. We have been compelled to resort to Utah coal full of free sulphur and are unable to properly purify it. The odor from this coal is very objectionable but unavoidable on our part. Would suggest that proper ventilation be given where used as we can give no further relief.

OREGON STATE GRANGE MASTER MAKES SPEECH

EUGENE, Ore., June 2.—(A. P.)—Peonage or peasantry of the middle ages, political action and the state ownership and operation of the system of distribution, or revolution—these are the three possibilities open to the American farmer should the cooperative movement fail, said C. E. Spence, master of the Oregon state grange, which is here in 48th annual session. Spence's report, which paints in dark colors the condition of the American farmer, attacks the railroads, burdensome taxes and the federal reserve system, has been referred to committees.
