

THREE DAYS MORE

Extent of Legislature's Work May Then Be Known.

VETO POWER OUT THURSDAY

Governor Will Deny Himself to Visitors for Next Few Days, While He Examines Bills—Many Measures Are Local.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Three days more must pass before it will be known what the extent of the work of the recent session of the Legislature has been. The constitution gives the Governor five days (Sundays excepted) after the final adjournment of the Legislature, in which to veto any measure that has been passed.

A glance at the list of measures which were passed shows that a very large proportion of the acts of the Legislature are either local in their application or are limited in their purposes, so that they go to the Governor to be approved or disapproved. Governor Chamberlain will deny himself to visitors as much as possible during the next three days and give close attention to the large number of bills that were piled up on his table on the last day of the session.

The passage of Senator Rand's bill prescribing the terms of the Supreme Court adds six months to the term of the present Judges of the Supreme Court. The bill provides that a Judge shall take his office on the first day of the Legislature, the same as all other state officers. Under the present law they take their offices on the first Monday in July. The new law also requires the Judges to hold two terms of court a year at Pendleton, one in May and the other on the first Monday in November. Only the Spring term is now held at Pendleton.

WILL HAVE A HARD FIGHT. Measure for Change of Venue Finds Trouble in the Senate. HELENA, Mont., Feb. 23.—The bill for a change of venue in cases where all alleged Judges are prejudicial, and which caused such a hot fight in the Senate, is now in the House. From today's doing, it is likely to have a hard fight there in the Senate. When the House passed the bill today, the Governor's message was taken to tonight. Later Speaker White, who is opposed to the bill, mounted the rostrum and declared that a minority had no power to fix the time. He adjourned the House until tomorrow morning. The bill has to be referred and reported, and must be in the Governor's hands by Saturday. Otherwise he can kill it with the "pocket veto." The Amalgamated Company is fighting for the bill, and the United Copper Company against it.

MONEY FOR JUDICIARY. Montana Legislature Also Votes Appropriation for Executive. BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 23.—A Helena special says: Representative Conner introduced in the House today a bill for the general appropriation bill for the executive and judicial departments of the state government. The executive and judicial appropriation bill carries $1,120,000 for the fiscal year 1903 and $1,212,500 for the fiscal year 1904. The bill is the provision inserted in the bill to prevent the state officers who carry railway passes from collecting mileage for the same.

IN MEMORY OF BRUCE WALLACE. Montana People Revere the Brave Young Officer. BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 23.—A special to the Miner from Helena says: A bronze tablet was placed in the vestibule of the State Capitol at Helena in commemorative of the life of the late Colonel R. Bruce Wallace, the brave Montana officer who lost his life in the Philippines. Colonel Wallace was a member of the West Point Military Academy from Montana, and, graduating, became a Lieutenant in the Second Cavalry. Upon the outbreak of the Spanish-American War he was appointed Lieutenant Colonel of the First Montana Regiment. He was wounded in the charge at Calocan, from the effects of which he died later.

AN EARLY KANSAS SETTLER. Robert Phelps Riddle Dies in Salt Lake City. SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 23.—Robert Phelps Riddle, who was prominently identified with the early settlement of Kansas, died very suddenly of apoplexy in this city today, aged 75 years. Mr. Riddle was born in the town of New York, his grandfather being a member of George Washington's staff during the War of the Revolution, and his great-grandfather was an early settler of the state. Mr. Riddle was engaged in mining in Colorado. For the past ten years he has conducted a hotel in this city.

Capital City Brevities. SALEM, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Yesterday was Washington's birthday, but as it was Sunday, today is a legal holiday, under the laws of this state. The Supreme Court adjourned for the session today. All the state offices were open for business, and in most of the offices the clerks were swapped with work, incident to the close of the legislative session. Exercises were held at Chemawa Indian Training School this evening in observance of Washington's birthday. The exercises consisted of literary and musical numbers, and a patriotic address by Hon. P. H. D'Arcy, of Salem. Mr. D'Arcy's subject was "The Life of Washington and His Achievements in the Cause of Liberty." Chester G. Murphy, son of Clerk J. J. Murphy, of the Supreme Court, and well known in Oregon as the former captain of St. Mary's football team, has returned to Portland, where he will be engaged in the office of W. D. Fenton. Two hold-ups are reported to have taken place in this city at an early hour yesterday morning. James Walton, 31 years of age, is employed as a clerk in a Portland bank, was one of the victims, but he escaped from the pair of footpads who were intent on business. The hold-up that was held up was Herbert Burton, of East Salem. He was accosted by two strangers when within 100 yards of his home. The bandits took from Burton a fine silver watch and 15 cents in money, which was all the coin he had. Only meager descriptions were obtained of the two strangers, who quite probably perpetrated both hold-ups. They are described as being well-dressed, one wearing a fedora hat and the other a derby, while each was attired in an overcoat.

Mrs. Lyons Released on Bonds. EUGENE, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Mrs. E. E. Lyons, wife of the murderer of Sheriff Withers, who has been in jail for three weeks on a charge of interfering with an officer, was released today on bonds, through the efforts of her attorney.

FINDS RICH ORE POCKET

ONE PIECE OF ROCK YIELDS $14,000 IN PURE GOLD. The Old Virtue Mine, Near Baker City, Gives Up Hidden Riches as of Old.

BAKER CITY, Or., Feb. 23.—Another rich strike has been made in the old Virtue mine, six miles east of this city. The facts concerning the latest strike were given out by Manager Buckbee today. The ore was found in what is termed a pocket, several of which have been found in times past in the mine, some of which yielded hundreds of thousands of dollars. One piece of ore found in this last pocket weighing 32 pounds was placed on the scale at the mine, where it was weighed. The famous Weller Bridge bill was given another chance today, a motion in the Senate to take it from the House prevailing. As the measure had already passed both houses, it will now go to the Governor. The House today accepted an invitation to visit Salt Lake as the guest of the Utah Legislature, fixing the time after the adjournment of the session here. The Senate referred the resolution to a committee.

TWO MORE INDICTMENTS. Seattle Grand Jury Again Gets After William Chapelle. SEATTLE, Feb. 23.—The grand jury today returned two more indictments against William Chapelle, the wealthy Klondiker, who owns a number of buildings in the new district set apart for vice, charging him with renting his property for immoral purposes. Chapelle was indicted on a similar count two weeks ago. The jury today appointed a committee to verify the report of the expert accountant who certified the shortages in the accounts of ex-County Treasurer C. F. Whittlesey. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

LABOR MEN ARE WROTH

HOLD MEETING TO TAKE ACTION ON SENATOR BROWNELL. Some of the Members Think He Is Responsible for Defeat of Eight-Hour Law.

OREGON CITY, Feb. 23.—The Federal Labor Union and Painters' Union held a joint meeting tonight to take action upon the failure of State Senator George C. Brownell to secure the passage of Senate bills 148 and 149, making eight hours a day's work throughout the state. A. J. Mayville, president of the Federal Union and of the Carpenters' Union, which passed resolutions condemning Brownell, was elected chairman, and J. H. Howard, secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

TO BE PURCHASED BY THE STATE FOR GUBERNATORIAL MANSION

THE E. N. COOKE RESIDENCE AT SALEM, FOR WHICH $16,000 WILL BE PAID.

Washington's Birthday Is Observed at Pacific University. PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Today all classes were suspended at Pacific University in commemoration of Washington's birthday. It is a time-honored custom at the institution that this day shall be the time for displaying class rivalry between the freshmen and sophomores, and today was no exception. Early in the morning the freshmen colors were seen floating at the head of the flagstaff on Marsh Hall. The members of '02 set to work, and after overcoming numerous obstacles, such as hotted and padlocked doors, succeeded in removing the hated lemon and lavender and substituting the purple and white.

At 10 o'clock the freshmen presented a session of the Continental Congress at the time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. After several numbers by the freshman orchestra the class gave a burlesque play on the sophomores, the effect of which was somewhat weakened by the witty retorts of a sophomore who had stationed himself with a megaphone above the ventilator in the ceiling. During this performance, too, the sophomores swung from the gallery a dummy dressed in green and bearing a conspicuous placard, "02."

After the exercises in the chapel the audience adjourned to the campus, where Livia Ferrin, '06, dedicated a vine to the memory of Professor Robertson, and Will Shively, '06, dedicated a tree to the freshman class. The purple and white of the sophomores was waved all afternoon from the top of Marsh Hall, with several zealous sophomores always at hand to guard it, and '06 claims the victory of the day. The freshman class will hold its annual banquet tonight above Vert's Hall, which has been tastefully decorated for the occasion.

House Passes Law Removing Them, but Reconsiders Action. BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 23.—On Friday the House passed a Senate bill providing for the removal of screens in saloons. Today it concluded it wished to change its action, and proceeded to reconsider its vote before having the measure recalled from the Senate. A motion to reconsider carried and another was made indefinitely to postpone the bill. The Speaker here called a halt until they could get the bill before the House. The Senate subsequently reconsidered its action and sent this city last June from the East and purchased a farm just east of Salem. Funeral services were held this afternoon, and burial followed in Lee Mission cemetery. To Arrange the New Laws. SALEM, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—A. O. Condit, a prominent Salem attorney, has been employed by the Secretary of State to arrange the new laws for publication and prepare an index for the new volume of session laws. The manuscript will be ready for the printer about the middle of March, and the laws will be out about a month later. Mr. Condit had been engaged in the work of arranging and indexing the laws for the last volume of session laws and the excellent manner in which he performed the work led the Secretary of State to engage him again.

Residence Burned in Weiser. WEISER, Idaho, Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Fire this afternoon destroyed the residence of C. M. Hixson, paying teller of the Bank of Weiser. The building was a one-story structure of five rooms. The fire originated in a defective fuse in the kitchen. It had gained such headway

WANTS BACK WHAT HE LOST.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—George Katurich has begun an action in the Superior Court of Clark County against M. A. Minch, George Desbro and C. N. Menvenete to recover $200 alleged to have been lost in the gambling rooms of the defendants in the Albatross saloon, on last Friday. This is the third action of this character that has been brought in the Superior Court here within the past three months. The case will be tried at the coming session of court to be held next month.

Vancover Indians Make Trouble. VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 23.—Trouble is brewing in Brownsville among the Indians. One evening recently the Great Northern train was late, and in making up time it ran over and injured so badly three horses that shooting was the only way to rid the animals of their suffering. As far as can be learned the engineer failed to report the matter, and the animals lay all night in a terribly mangled condition. The Indians are in a rebellious mood.

Run Over and Killed by Wagon. VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 23.—John Burke, a foreman on the construction line of the Great Northern, was run over and killed by a wagon on the Scott road yesterday. He had come into New Westminster from the construction camp near Cloverdale, for supplies. William Koskie was driving when Burke fell off a wheel passed over his head and Burke died in a few minutes.

Jury Exonerates Marshal. BAKER CITY, Or., Feb. 23.—The Coroner's jury, before whom the inquest was held to ascertain the cause of the death of James Simons, who was shot by Marshal Robertson, at Richland, last week, completely exonerated the Marshal. The verdict of the jury is that the Marshal fired in self-defense, and was justifiable.

Governor Puts in a Busy Day. SALEM, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Governor Chamberlain worked all day today on bills that were passed by the Legislature at its recent session, but as this was his last day of office, he did not file any in the office of the Secretary of State, nor take any official action on them.

At Astoria. ASTORIA, Or., Feb. 23.—(Special.)—The schools, banks, and public offices were closed all day, and many of the business houses were closed during the afternoon in honor of Washington's birthday anniversary.

Toughs Overpower Officers. EVERETT, Wash., Feb. 23.—A dozen toughs overpowered three police officers last night in Monroe and released another of their party from jail. The officers were badly battered.

Mrs. Richter Will Press Case. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Helen Richter, mother of Private Edward P. Richter, of the United States Army, for whose death by the water-cure Lieutenant Sinclair was court-martialed and acquitted, has returned from Washington, where she made an effort to have President Roosevelt reopen the case. She said today: "I was well treated at Washington, though I did not have an interview with the President. My expenses were all paid by persons who want to see the case in the Army. I can have all the money from these men I want to press the case. I am going again to Washington very soon."

For Direct Election of Senators. TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 23.—A resolution was adopted by the Kansas House today requesting Congress to submit to the electors an amendment to the Constitution providing for the election of Senators by a direct vote of the people. There was no opposition to the measure.

Turf Company Is Bankrupt. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States District Court today against the International Investment Company, which formerly conducted a turf co-operative investment business.

No route across the continent offers so many attractions as does the Denver & Rio Grande. It is the most scenic route in the world. It is the most comfortable. It is the most economical. It is the most direct. It is the most reliable. It is the most popular. It is the most beautiful. It is the most interesting. It is the most exciting. It is the most thrilling. It is the most wonderful. It is the most magnificent. It is the most sublime. It is the most glorious. It is the most majestic. It is the most grand. It is the most noble. It is the most heroic. It is the most brave. It is the most gallant. It is the most valorous. It is the most courageous. It is the most daring. It is the most adventurous. It is the most enterprising. It is the most ambitious. It is the most successful. It is the most prosperous. It is the most wealthy. It is the most powerful. It is the most influential. It is the most respected. It is the most admired. It is the most loved. It is the most cherished. It is the most treasured. It is the most valued. It is the most prized. It is the most honored. It is the most revered. It is the most worshiped. It is the most adored. It is the most beloved. It is the most dearly loved. It is the most dearly cherished. It is the most dearly treasured. It is the most dearly valued. It is the most dearly prized. It is the most dearly honored. It is the most dearly revered. It is the most dearly worshiped. It is the most dearly adored. It is the most dearly beloved.

URGENT EIGHT-HOUR LAW. Monster Meeting Held in Boise—W. E. Borah Speaks. BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 23.—(Special.)—A mammoth meeting was held this evening under the auspices of the Federated Trades Council of Boise, in favor of the eight-hour bill pending in the Legislature. It was addressed by W. E. Borah, Representative A. E. Brown, Representative Avery C. Moore, Representative Hanlon and ex-Chief Justice Quarles. Mr. Borah took the ground that the Republican party was pledged to pass such a bill. At the direction of the party managers he had made that promise for the party on the stump. The pledge should be kept, he declared. Governor Morrison occupied a seat on the platform, but did not deliver an address.

Work to Be Investigated. VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 23.—The Interior Department has received a complaint from Dawson that Young and Hinton, formerly of Ottawa, who had to do with recording claims on Duncan Creek, were beating miners out of their claims. It was addressed by W. E. Borah, Representative A. E. Brown, Representative Avery C. Moore, Representative Hanlon and ex-Chief Justice Quarles. Mr. Borah took the ground that the Republican party was pledged to pass such a bill. At the direction of the party managers he had made that promise for the party on the stump. The pledge should be kept, he declared. Governor Morrison occupied a seat on the platform, but did not deliver an address.

No Shortage in Rosebud County. BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 23.—State Examiner William Hudnall has returned from Rosebud County, where he received Hon. H. Loud to make an investigation into the financial affairs of Rosebud County and the report of the State Examiner, which was mailed to Judge Loud, will show that there is no shortage in the accounts of the officers of the county.

Residence Burned in Weiser. WEISER, Idaho, Feb. 23.—(Special.)—Fire this afternoon destroyed the residence of C. M. Hixson, paying teller of the Bank of Weiser. The building was a one-story structure of five rooms. The fire originated in a defective fuse in the kitchen. It had gained such headway

LABOR MEN ARE WROTH

HOLD MEETING TO TAKE ACTION ON SENATOR BROWNELL. Some of the Members Think He Is Responsible for Defeat of Eight-Hour Law.

OREGON CITY, Feb. 23.—The Federal Labor Union and Painters' Union held a joint meeting tonight to take action upon the failure of State Senator George C. Brownell to secure the passage of Senate bills 148 and 149, making eight hours a day's work throughout the state. A. J. Mayville, president of the Federal Union and of the Carpenters' Union, which passed resolutions condemning Brownell, was elected chairman, and J. H. Howard, secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

secretary. After discussing a motion that action be deferred until later evidence, in the shape of the Senate journal proceedings to be introduced, was lost, a motion to adjourn until next Monday and invite Mr. Brownell to be present and make explanation was lost by one vote. Finally a motion carried to adjourn until next Monday. The secretary was instructed to secure the Senate journal record of proceedings of the Senate for the purpose of inviting to meet with the Federal Labor Union next Monday. A strong effort was made to condemn Brownell's effort, but sober counsel prevailed, and it is probable that if the resolutions are passed they will be more sweeping and include the whole Senate and judiciary committee, which brought in an adverse report on the bills. The defense of Brownell by Senators McClain, Mays and Rand was introduced as evidence

HARD DRIVEN.

The mother slowly times her footsteps to those of her baby driver. Yet she is hard driven because not alone in the brief moments of play, but all day long must she keep pace with baby's wants and needs. Generally the mother who experiences a larger demand on her energies has less and less strength to respond. Sometimes she suffers from diseases peculiar to her sex, and often has never thoroughly recovered her strength after baby's coming.

For all women who are weakened by womanly diseases or who are run-down by maternal and household cares Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is commended as a medicine which restores the strength. It establishes regularity, dries weakening, regulates, dries, weakens, drains, heals inflammation, restores the system and cures female weakness. It is unexcelled as a tonic and nerve for weak, run-down women.

If mothers who dread the baby's coming would take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they would find it a great help and benefit. writes Mrs. L. E. Henderson (President Milwaukee Women's Club, 1624 Grand Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.) "After the birth of my first child I did not seem to regain my health, but began to take Dr. Pierce