Rev. Gressman Returns

Rev. W. A. Gressman returned to Pendleton this morning from Eugene where he was called recently on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Henry Gressmann. Funeral services for Mrs. Gressman were held Monday. The country in the valley is badly in need of rain, according to Rev. Gressman.

After the shoot they plan to visit the lakes and streams and enjoy the excellent fishing that district affords. They will be gone a week or 10 days.

Are Taking Examinations.

Pupils of the eighth grade schools in Umatilla county started today taking examinations for their diplomas. The tests are being held in the different school houses all over the county. The examinations are regularly held in May, June and September. This is the second examination of the year. Two days are required to take the examination.

DeMott Draws Fine.

A fine of $100 was assessed against George DeMott Wednesday by Judge Thomas FitzGerald in city court when the defendant was found guilty of a charge of maintaining a nuisance. The evidence introduced showed that DeMott had been selling alleged cider to the Indians at a quarter a drink. The police declare that the drink had "dynamite" in it. DeMott's place is on Railroad street in the Bowman building.

Institute Comes In November.

The county teachers' institute in Umatilla county will be held next fall during the first three days of November. The dates have been announced by Supt. W. W. Green. This will be the first regular institute held for a number of years. Heretofore, the teachers have been diverting the funds for this purpose to the summer normal school. Now that the state has taken over the normal here and is supporting it, the institute has been resumed.

Insurance Men Talked

Bert Jerard and J. H. Estes were the speakers at the Rotary luncheon yesterday, both speaking on the subject of insurance. Fred W. Lampkin, newly wed was also called upon for a speech. New members present today included George Wallace, Mack Hoke and John Dickson. Tentative plans are being made for a joint meeting with the Astoria Rotary Club at the Columbia Gorge hotel Saturday evening June 24, for a dinner dance. Definite plans have not yet been made however.

Salaries Remain Same.

The salaries of school teachers in the schools of Umatilla county will be approximately the same for next year that they were this year, according to Supt. W. W. Green of the county schools. In some cases where an experienced teacher has resigned, the place has been filled by employing a teacher who may not have had much training to her credit, and in such cases salaries are somewhat lower, he states. The efficient, trained teachers, however, have had their salaries maintained at the present standard of wages. In a few scattered cases, salaries are slightly higher, he states.

FOR THE MAN WHO CARES

AMERICAN WILD GAME FAST DISAPPEARING, EXPLORER DECLARES

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—African game is disappearing very rapidly, according to Carl Akeley, famous scientist and naturalist.

And Akeley blames man for this situation—man who, to quote the naturalist, "was the only dangerous animal created in the beginning." He expressed the hope that man will "kill off enough of his kind before he has wiped out all the wild animal life in the world."

He believes that wanton killers of wild game should be given doses of their own medicine.

"I recently traveled northward from Cape Town, by rail, going 3,000 miles before I saw a single head of wild game from the train," Akeley states. "The game is being killed by civilized men who haven't put a thing there in place of it."

It is only the wild animal which has been taught by man to kill that is dangerous, he continued, saying there are certain elephants in Africa who will kill a human as quickly as the beasts see one, but that is done only by individual animals that have had "dealings with these so-called sportsmen."

He found there is very little danger hunting wild animals in Africa with a camera, because in almost every case the game will try to get away instead of trying to get at one.

JAPS SHOW INCREASE IN HAWAIIAN BIRTHS

HONOLULU, T. H., June 8.—Out of a total of slightly over 10,000 children born in Hawaii during the calendar year 1921, 4,940 were of Japanese parentage, according to figures just made public by the territorial board of health at Honolulu.

Figures compiled by the Japanese consulate at Honolulu for the year 1921 show only 4,628 Japanese births or 312 less than the number shown by the board of health figures. This discrepancy is accounted for by the fact that a number of American-born Japanese in Hawaii have discontinued filing any records with the Japanese consulate.

The Japanese birth rate for 1921, based on an estimated Japanese population of 114,879, is 43.01 births for each 1,000 of population. This figure does not vary greatly from those of the last three years.

Orientals including Koreans, Filipinos and Chinese, as well as Japanese, had a majority of the births during 1921, their percentage of total births in the territory for the year being 63.2, or practically 6,700 out of 10,000.
