MARQUAM GRAND THEATER - Tonight 8:30 o'clock, Mile. Zelle de Lussan. CORDRAY'S THEATER-This evening at $:15. Knute Erickson, in "The Man From Sweden." THE BAKER THEATER—This evening 8:15, "The Great Diamond Robbery."

SECOND OREGON MAN MAY BE INSANE. Edward F. Denny, who was a member of the Second Oregon regiment in the Philip-pines under Captain J. M. Poorman, occupies a cell in the county fail, await-ing an examination in the County Court on a charge of insanity. The man is not entirely non compus mentis, but suffers with severe pains in the head, said to be the result of sunstroke while in the service, and his mind is more or less af-fected. Besides his discharge from the volunteers Denny also holds a regular Army discharge, and papers in his pos-session show that he was an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg. He also has documents showing that the Depart-ment of the Interior at Washington rejected a claim presented in his behalf by United States Senator J. H. Mitchell and a letter written by General O. Summers. Denny is about 30 years old.

SEEKS A FAITHLESS HUSBAND. destitute and without the means of support, Mrs. James Prentis is now trying to locate the faithless husband who de serted her. A letter was yesterday re-ceived by Chief of Police Hunt giving a complete description of the man and asking his assistance in locating the fugitive benedict. Mrs. Prentis wrote from La Prairie, Minn., and said that she thought her husband had come to Portland, "He left me 2½ years ago," she writes, "and cent we both had, I have learned since that he filed on a homestead claim in the State of Washington as a single man and 14 months ago sold his claim to a firm in Vancouver, Wash., for $2000. He promised to send for me, but never communicated with me after he left.

COUNTY INDEBTEDNESS TO BE BONDED The bill prepared by County Judge Webster and introduced by Representative Hodson to bond the indebtedness of Mult-nomah County, passed both houses and will become a law unless Governor Chamberiain vetoes it, which is highly improb-able. The bill provides for the sale of bonds at 4 per cent to take up the county bonns at 4 per cent to take up the county indebtedness of about $50,000 represented by outstanding warrants drawing 5 per cent interest. This will make a yearly saving in interest of $10,400, and, after the bonds have been sold, warrants can the bonds have been son, warrante can be cashed as soon as they are issued by the County Treasurer. The bonds are to be call bonds, to be paid off from time to time, the intention being to call them all in within five or six years.

COMMISSIONER BAILET LEAVES FOR COR-State Food and Dairy Commis sioner Balley left last night for Corvallis. where he will confer with the authori-ties of the Agricultural College regarding chemist for his office. The new pure food law that was passed by the last Leg-islature provides for a chemist and a dairy instructor at a salary of $1200 a year each. Mr. Bailey will appoint a chemist within 10 days. He has had a number of applications for the position.

Mr. Balley expects to get other rooms and fix up a good laboratory for the chemist. The dairy instructor will be appointed when Mr. Bailey sees the need of one.

IS A GREAT - GREAT GRANDFATHER Captain Lewis Love, who has lived in Portland and vicinity for over 50 years, and who is in his 8tth year, was congratulating himself yesterday in the midst of a circle of friends because he is a great - great grandfather. His great-grandson, Bert Love, became the father of son two weeks ago. Captain Love, who has been sick, is now able to go around and circulate the joyful news. Captain Love has numerous sons and great-grandchildren. The last member of the family, however, takes the prestige

THREW COFFEE AT HIS WIFE.—Charging her husband, J. A. Bush, with an assault with intent to kill, Clara Bush assault with intent to kill, Clara Bush appeared before Prosecuting Attorney Manning yesterday and told a pitiful story of domestic cruelty. "My husband and I have not got along well for some time." said she, "but yesterday's happenings make me afraid of him. We were at breakfast, and as he tasted the coffee he said it tasted like dishwater, and threw it in my face. He then threw threw it in my face. He then threw a flatiron at me and I fled from the place." Mrs. Bush said that her husband, after abusing her for some time, threatened to

LECTURED BEFORE A. O. U. W. LODGE-G. Howard Osborne gave a highly instructive lecture, accompanied by stereoption views, before the members and friends of Industry Lodge, No. 8, A. O. U. W., in the hall of the lodge, in the Selling-Hirsch building, last night. Mr. Osborne showed scenes from prominent places of Oregon, Alseka and Ireland. One feature of his lecture was the singing of the song, "Asleep in the Deep," il-lustrated with appropriate pictures on the canvas. Mr. Osborne lectures through-out the state in the endeavor to promote raternal interest among the members of the A. O. U. W. Before the lecture Willlam Colvig, of Banner Lodge, Jackson-ville, gave a short talk on the benefits of the A. O. U. W. He was followed by S. C. Beach and J. E. Werlein, who spoke on the advantages connected with the A. O. U. W. Hbrary. During a pause in the lecture Captain Devinney, one of the first men to pay an assessment in the A. O. U. W. Lodge, made a few stirring remarks on the benefits of the odge in early time. Tonight Mr. Osborn gives an entirely different lecture in Davis Hall, Williams avenue, before Eureka Lodge, No. 125, and Crescent Lodge,

CAR CRASHES INTO WAGON.-Without a eound a Lower Albina car into a wagon belonging to the warning crashed Mitchell Mitchell Fuel Company last evening, breaking the running gear and pushing the bed of the wagon along the track for some distance. Neither the driver nor the horses were injured, but the lower part of the vehicle was injured to the amount of $200, Mr. Mitchell says. The accident occurred in front of the com-pany's yard on North Second street soon after 6 o'clock. The car was going north. ward at a rapid speed when the wagon came from the yard. The car struck the vehicle almost in the center, crushing the wheels and spokes and skidding the bed filled with wood along the rails for about 30 feet. The driver, Pearl Woolworthwho is a man in spite of his name-kept the horses under control, and a runaway was averted. STOLEN JEWELRY RETURNED.-Jewelry which was stolen from his house a year ago was yesterday returned to Edgar E. Coursen. The burglar, known here as McNell, was arrested in Pasadena, Cal., and when he was searched Mr. Coursen's jewelry was part of the plunder found. The robbery was committed almost a year ago. The professor was attending a concert in the evening, and during his absence burglars entered his house and robbed him of a number of valuable articles. A vigorous search by the Portland detectives failed to reveal the criminal, out later McNell was arrested on a charge in Pasadena. It was learned that he had been in Portland and the jewelry, not identified there, was sent to the officers here. Among the collection were some valuable pins and other ornaments belong

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION MEETS .- The Civil Service Commission will meet every day hereafter until the work of classify ing the various departments is completed. The members of the commission are: P. L. Willis, A. A. Courteney and C. W. Hodson. They met in the City Hall yester-day afternoon and took up the extensive work of classification. The members will also examine the civil service rules of other cities. So large is the task before them that a meeting last evening was spoken of, but was postponed until today. The work of the commission is largely of a routine nature, including many details a routine nature, including many details and researches into the rules prevailing

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Daniel Sully Tohight.

The attraction at the Marquam Grand Theater Tuesday and Wednesday nights will be Daniel Sully in his latest success, will be Daniel Sully in his latest success,
"The Old Mill Stream," which is a dramatic gem of the first water. Like the diamond, it sparkles, no matter which way you look at it. It pleases all those who care for comedy, with situations in plenty for others who delve deeper and care for the dramatic side of life. It teaches men and women to be honorable and charitable with each other, in fact, produces a dramatic picture seldom

Mr. Sully as John Ryan presents a man ly, unpretentious Irishman, with a simple sincerity that is effective and admirable There is no straining for stage effects but, instead, a quiet reserve force that never falls to bring him his reward. He is heroic without bravado; honest without saintism, and the pure, artistic air of naturalness permeates his healthful play.

Sale for "The Little Duchess."

Tomorrow (Wednesday) morning, at 10 o'clock, the advance sale of seats will begin for Anna Held, who comes to the Marquam Grand Theater next Friday and Saturday nights, February 77 and 25, with a matinee Saturday. Not more than 10 seats will be sold to one person for any single performance. "The Little Duchess," written by those two clever collaborators, Harry B. Smith and Reginald de Koven, with Anna Held in the title role, will be the play presented. As a ve-hicle for Miss Held's talents it is beyond criticism. There is every opportunity for the display of vivacity and charm in which she is inimitable, and there is enough variety in the triple roles of the Little Duchess, Claire de Brion and the Paris street gamin to give good play to her versatility. Among those in the cast are Joseph W. Herbert, George Marion, Frank Rushworth, Edouard Durand, the Illioutlan comedian, Franz Ebert, Louise toyce, Luella Drew, Adelaide Orton, Billie Norton, Knox Wilson and Maybelle Courtney. The chorus is a large one, and is said to be more beautiful than ever. Seats must be taken at the window.

PIERCE CHILES' NEW ROL

BASEBALL PLAYER BRUTALLY STRIKES ESTHER ROE.

a a Jealous Rage He Strikes Young Girl and Is Arrested for Threatening to Kill,

For brutally assaulting Esther Roe, a mangle-worker in the Portland Hotel laundry, Pierce Chiles, first baseman of the Portland team, Pacific Coast League, was yesterday arrested and a charge of threatening to kill placed against him. Local patrons of baseball are indignant over the affair, and declare it is a dis-grace to the team to have such a man for one of the players. Chiles was drunk at the time of the trouble. He is said to have formed an attachment for the gir and was jealous because another man pai

The assault was brutal in the extrem and even supporters of the league, who know that Chiles is a star player and would be a great loss to the team, declare that he should not be permitted to play. When asked concerning the matter las night Manager Sam Vigneux, said:

"I am determined to have none

At the time the assault took place Max Wiedeman and a friend of Miss Roe were in the room. Each tells substantially the same story of the affair.

"Miss Roe was lying on the lounge asleep," explained the young weman who witnessed the scene. "I was talking to Mr. Wiedeman, when the door was suddenly opened and Pierce Chiles, accompanied by nother ballplayer whose name I do not now, came in. They wanted us to wake Miss Roe and we would not.

"Til wake her up, said Chiles and ommenced shaking her roughly. After she was awake he struck her in the eye with his fist."
"I do not know why he struck me, said Mies Roe, when asked concerning the trouble. "He was using me very roughly and I wanted him to stop. He made me angry by his actions and I may have tried to strike him. I di after he struck me." I did not know anything The witnesses are of the opinion that the girl was struck only one blow, but she is in a very bad condition. Her eye is hadly blacked and her teeth are loosened At a late hour last night she complained pains in her chest. She coughed clotted blood from her lungs during the day, showing that she was either struck more than one blow or was badly jarred by the fall. The physician who is attending her stated last night that it would be several weeks before she would be able to work again The story could not be exaggerated." said J. W. Hume, brother of the pro-prietor of the house in which Miss Roe stays. "An assault could not have been more brutal than that one. I heard the noise and ran out in the hall, but by the time that I found the room in which the trouble was, the men had gone and all was quiet. We tried to get a policeman at once, but the call was not working an we did not get one until nearly morning. Chiles was arrested yesterday on charge of threatening to kill, but was re-leased on bail. The detectives my that he has a bad record as a criminal and is an ex-convict. Since his arrest many people in Portland who knew him in the Eastern leagues have volunteered information regarding his past, and the record is any-

SCORCH THE SCORCHER. Reckless Rider Hurt a Child, and

PORTLAND, Feb. 23 .- (To the Editor.)-If the proper authorities do not put a stor to the rapid bicycle riding on Fourth street, there will be many more serious accidents besides the one which happene Saturday to a little girl near the vicinity of Harrison street.
