All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

2—Rotary Club luncheon Marion.

4.—Marion County Women's Bureau meets in Commercial Club.

3-4—Bazaar in St. Joseph hall.

5—Winifred Byrd and Clarence Whitehill concert at armory.

8—Special school election for increases in teachers' salaries.

8.—Business Men's luncheon at Commercial Club.

8—Up in Mabel's Room at opera house.

11—W. A. M. F. club at home of Miss Goldie Gilkey, 415 North Cottage.

11, 12, 13—Convention district attorneys of the state of Oregon at Commercial club.

11 — Marion County Sunday school association at McCornack hall.

19—"The House Next Door" high school auditorium.

Terwilliger, licensed lady embalmer. Terwilliger Funeral Home.

Governor Oswald West left this evening for southern California where he will spend a month.

Salmon 12 1-2c. Fitts Market. 286*

Laundry Queen Washing Machine. Welch Electric Co., 379 State St. 286*

Mrs. J. E. Garrison of Portland is in Salem for a few days visit with friends.

Laundry Queen Washing Machine. Welch Electric Co., 379 State St. 286*

Nature appreciation class of the Art league will meet today at 2:30 in the public library.

Salmon 12 1-2c. Fitts Market. 286*

Laundry Queen Washing Machine. Welch Electric Co., 379 State St. 286*

Body of Mrs. Clara Spivey, who died yesterday morning in a local hotel, was sent last evening to Albany for burial. Webb and Clough have charge of the arrangements.

Electric Vacuum Cleaner. Welch Electric Co., 379 State St. 286*

Smoker, just try a Kinsmen cigar. The mild Havana short filler is of satisfacton. Jacobs & Vick, distributors. 309*

Ed Kettler, proprietor of the Elite, leaves this evening for Portland where he will attend a meeting of the Oregon Retail Shoe Dealers association.

Electric Vacuum Cleaner. Welch Electric Co., 379 State St. 286*

Miss Blanche Jones is attending the teachers institute in Tillamook and will be there for several days.

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 32, A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the degree. Visiting brethren welcome. 286*

Sheriff Hanneroy, deputy in the state sheriff's office, will go to Oregon City Thursday, where he will present the Clackamas county grand jury evidence gathered by him in connection with his investigation into the recent fire at Barlow which destroyed a warehouse and several bales of hay.

The account of the estate of Mary E. Will, made by the administrator, E. E. Will, was submitted to Judge Bushey Tuesday, and was set for 10 o'clock was set as the time for hearing objections to the account. The estate was valued at $6,-

Mrs. R. A. Blevins of the Willamette spent the week end at her home at Shaw where they entertained a company of old friends at a turkey dinner. The dining table was decorated with pompom chrysanthemums. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Peterson, Jean and Donald Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoxie and Mrs. G. Ivan Putnam, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Gilkey, Salem.

Elk 30 has been definitely decided by members of the O. A. C. club as the date for their big annual armory dance during the holidays. Plans are being planned to make this one of the best events of the winter season. Special preparations are under way for the occasion. If possible President and Governor Olcott will be asked upon to deliver addresses. A chief program which will include dancing. The dance will be a number of things which have been present as a "boost" for the Oregon Agricultural college.

EGON
IAN MARTIN
Official Financee
-JONES ORGAN
RECITAL
NOW

RIGDON & CO.
Undertakers
rth High Street

Dance tonight Moose hall. 286*

Judge W. J. Mariner of Blalock, a member of the Oregon legislature from Gilliam county for two terms, was a state capitol visitor Tuesday.

Fresh salmon 12 1-2c. Fitts Market. 286*

Ed Wright, secretary of the public service commission, transacted official business in Portland Tuesday.

The Royal Vacuum Cleaner. Welch Electric Co., 379 State St. 286*

C. J. McCulloch, bridge engineer with the state highway department, went to Portland Tuesday on business.

Love, the jeweler, 337 State street, Salem. 304*

Miss Eva Ferguson of Mendon, Mich., was the guest over Sunday at the A. E. Gibbard home on Union street. Miss Ferguson is on her way to California for the winter and was pleased to find a number of friends from her home state in Salem.

You are invited to attend the evangelistic meetings at the Jason Lee Memorial church. Services every night this week at 7:30. 286

P. M. Gregory of the Weatherly Ice Cream company on South Commercial, is in Spokane attending a convention of the ice cream manufacturers of the northwest.

Over half million Dreadnaught burners in cook stoves, heaters, etc., in successful operation. Guaranteed for 5 years. 343 1-2 Court St. 286

Mrs. D. Davidson of Independence was a Salem visitor yesterday. Mrs. Davidson was formerly a resident of the capital city and was the guest of old friends during her short stay here.

Dance at Hurst hall Thursday eve. Knights and Ladies of Security. 287*

The remains of Warren Belcher, Portland man, who died at a Salem hospital yesterday have been shipped by Webb and Clough, to Portland for burial. Mr. Belcher was 81 years old.

The world's greatest artists all use the Steinway. E. L. Stiff & Son. 286*

The Marion county children's bureau will meet tomorrow in the Commercial club rooms at 2:30 o'clock. This will be strictly a business gathering, and not a clinic. All members of the clinic are urgently requested to attend as business of an important nature will be taken up.

Pathe talking machines play all makes of records better. E. L. Stiff & Son. 286*

Among the recent recruits for army service is Arthur Mooney, 24, of Boston, Mass., whose application was received yesterday by Corporal W. W. Site, local recruiting agent. Mr. Mooney chose the Hawaiian Islands as a desirable place to be stationed, and selected the ordnance corps.

We carry Sherman Clay & Co. pianos, exclusively. They need no introduction. E. L. Stiff & Son. 286*

The bazaar at St. Joseph's church opened today in the parish hall, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Monica's Altar society. One of the principal attractions of the affair will be the contest for the most popular young lady in the parish, and keen competition is expected among the candidates. The prize is a gold wrist watch, donated by the Hartman Bros. jewelry store.

Trade in that old machine as part payment on a new Victrola or Pathe. E. L. Stiff & Son. 286*

The funeral for Mrs. Mabel Ellis Johns, wife of Chief Justice Johns of the supreme court, who died at the family residence, 985 Chemeketa street, yesterday, will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the residence. Rev. Powell of the Episcopal church will officiate. The burial is in charge of the W. T. Rigdon undertaking company, and will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Friends will be admitted to the funeral.

Why not a Universal range to cook Xmas dinner on. E. L. Stiff & Son. 286*

Rufus Holman, commissioner from Multnomah county, was a visitor in Salem Tuesday. Holman owns a half block on Capitol street, between F and F streets, and plans to erect homes on the lots and assist in relieving the shortage of homes here. He conferred with Manager T. E. McCroskey, at the Commercial club, on matters relative to home building, and gathered information preparatory to beginning construction of the homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Gibbard of 805 Union street have been entertaining for the past week their sister, Mrs. F. F. Eddy of Bellingham, Wn. For Thanksgiving dinner a number of former Michigan people including the C. D. Barhyte family, Mrs. Ida Miller, Miss Lenah Brunger, Miss Hester Welch and Miss Helen Pollock were asked. Fourteen circled the table, which had for its centerpiece a large pumpkin overflowing with fruit. Chrysanthemums were used about the rooms. In the evening twenty high school and O. A. C. young people were asked in to dance as a compliment to Miss Catherine Barhyte, who was home for the vacation.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends who so kindly assisted us in so many kind acts, flowers, music and words of sympathy during the sickness and death of our beloved husband, son and brother —Mrs. Mary A. Starr and family. 286*

Miss Hazel Downing is in Portland where she will remain several days as the guest of friends.

W. H. Galvanni, engineer for the Pacific Power and Light company of Portland is a Salem visitor on business before the state tax commission.

State Senator B. L. Eddy, of Roseburg called on the Industrial accident commission today in the interest of an injured workman who has a claim before the commission.

B. F. Mulkey, formerly a state senator from Linn county, afterwards principal of the Ashland Normal school and later prosecuting attorney of the first district, now an attorney of Portland, was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hartley, accompanied by Miss Catherine Hartley, will leave today for Long Beach, California, where Miss Hartley will attend school. The entire winter will be spent in the southern state.

Funeral services for John G. Jackson, father of the first Salem boy to die for his country in the world war, were held at the Highland church today at 11 o'clock. Jackson died in Newberg Sunday.

A permit to alter his one and a half story frame dwelling at 1533 Mission street was granted J. F. Good this morning by Deputy City Recorder Paulson. Costs of this work will be $590.

A chimney blaze at 1645 South 12th street, reported at 6:30 o'clock this morning to be burning down the dwelling, was quickly placed under control by firemen using the chemical fire truck, and no damage resulted.

The funeral of Henry Brady Hoffman, 63, was held at the chapel of the W. T. Rigdon undertaking company at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Hoff officiating. Burial followed in the Lee Mission cemetery.

Edward Welp, 46, Mt. Angel, was today named administrator of the estate of his father, Henry Welp, who died at Mt. Angel July 2, 1919. The estate is valued at $5000. Alois Keber, C. J. Terhaar and J. W. Ebner were chosen appraisers.

The next meeting of the Marion County Community Federation will be held at Donald December 11. All members of the federation are urged to come, and are asked to let C. J. Espy of Donald know if they, and how many others, will attend. Invitations to attend this meeting of the federation were mailed out today to all the district leaders.

In an effort to apprehend thieves who robbed the hen roost at the home of Mrs. D. Stranahan, 2470 Oak street, some time Sunday night of six big Plymouth Rock chickens, police today were working on the theory that the proverbial "niggah possum huntah" is at large. No clues were left by the thieves, and it is not known whether their skin was black or white.

Little Erma King, 11, who July 1 was seriously burned when her dress caught afire from a camp stove, was reported improving this morning. She is at the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Higgins, McGilchrist and East Nob Hill streets. Two weeks ago much apprehension was felt for her recovery, but Mrs. Higgins was pleased to announce this morning for the benefit of Erma's many friends that the little girl is now much better.

According to a report made to police by the janitor at the Yew Park school, the school was robbed some time Sunday night. Nothing of value was found missing. A bicycle believed to have been used by the thief was left standing at the school house steps, and the janitor, thinking that the owner would return, and he would be able to catch him, did not report it to police until today. An officer was dispatched to investigate.

In an effort to place as many men as possible who apply for jobs, the city recorder, Earl Race, head of the municipal labor bureau, today issued a request that all employers needing help give him their name. Then he can direct unemployed to the vacancies. The number of unemployed men continues to increase in the city, and a citizen this morning predicted a breadline in the city before mid-winter is reached.

Through victory won at the game Monday night at the "Y" gymnasium, John Todd's biff ball team now stands 2 1-2 points ahead of James Elvin's squad. The game was closely fought, and carried through with a rush from the start. It was announced that the monthly banquet and election of new biff ball team captains will be held at the next meeting Friday night. All members of the teams and business men's class are asked to inform Elvin (phone 225) before Friday morning, whether or not they will come.

L. H. Compton, Dr. M. C. Findley and G. Ed Ross were elected directors of the Y. M. C. A. at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. The board now consists of 18 members. An unanimous vote of thanks was extended to Joseph H. Albert, of the Capital National bank for the donation of a large brick fireplace in the social room of the Y. M. C. A. Additional improvements in the room will be made in the near future, James Elvin and the executive committee having been empowered to rejuvenate the interior.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Will are enjoying a visit of several days duration in Portland.

The Drill team of the United Artisan lodge will give a dance tomorrow night in the Masonic Temple. It will be an informal affair, and all members of the lodge are invited to attend.

Miss Dora Andresen, who was connected with the Capital Journal for a number of years, has returned from a several month's stay in San Francisco, and is at present the guest of her father, Peter Andresen, of the Farmer's Produce Company. Miss Andresen will leave in the near future for Portland where she will engage in business.

The county court today advertised in local and Portland papers for two paving plants and ten trucks. Bids on the trucks and plants will be received up to the 16th. Two types of plants will be considered. The court aims to purchase two plants, and necessary trucks to operate them, this month, and have everything ready for the huge paving program next spring.

Explaining that her husband had signed an agreement with her to treat her properly in the future and pay her a certain sum each month for her support, Mrs. Mary Brueggar today, thru her attorney Elmo S. White, filed motion in the circuit court for an order to dismiss the divorce proceedings she had started against August E. Brueggar. Mrs. Bruegger, in her motion, expressed willingness to give her spouse an opportunity to reform.

Previous reports of negligence on the part of a driver for the Star Bottling Works when a truck he was driving collided with a horse and buggy driven by J. W. Evans, on the River road, several days ago, were corrected this morning by Evans. It was stated at the time that the driver did not stop, and that passing motorists brought Evans, who was injured, to the city. Evans said today that the driver did stop and that he brought he and his wife to Salem.

By a decree rendered in circuit court here today by Judge George Bingham a judgment for $175, and $70 for costs of the suit and attorney fees, was granted B. J. Niles, who had brought suit against Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Skewis to collect on a promissory note. Judge Bingham also ordered the foreclosure of a mortgage on certain property, assuring the payment of the judgment, and issued an order retaining Mr. and Mrs. Skewis from claiming any title to the property.

It seemed for a while last night that the city would have 45 additional population. But through the efforts of Patrolman Victor, the estimated 20,000 remains today. In his report for the night's activities made at headquarters this morning he said that on train 13, southbound, late last night, he found 45 "weary willies." They indicated their intention of remaining in this city Victor reported; but he advised them of the shortage of work here, and the inclination of police to frown upon loafers, and they continued their journey.

Born.

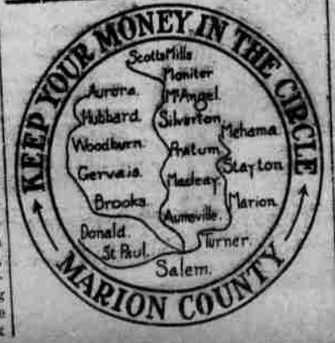
NELSON—To Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nelson, 675 N. 16th street, Suunuday, an eight pound girl.

Name Evelyn Josephine Melson.

TURNER POSTMASTER NAMED

J. E. Whitehead, a retired farmer residing at Turner and master of the Marion county Pomona grange, received notification Tuesday from the government of his appointment as postmaster at Turner. He will assume charge of the office at once. He recently took the civil service examination for the post.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY



TICKET SALE FOR SHARKEY—WILDE MILL BREAKS RECORD

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 3.—The advance ticket sale for the bout between Jimmy Wilde, English flyweight, and Jack Sharkey, New York bantamweight, Saturday night was breaking all records today, according to officials of the Cream City club.

The fighters are finishing their training in Milwaukee. Sharkey arrived from Chicago last night.

Kilbane Signed Up

Cleveland, O., Dec. 3.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, today was signed up for three eight round bouts to be staged at Jersey City by Manager Dave Driscoll of that city. Driscoll said he expected to sign Benny Valgar, Johnny Dundee and Joey Fox for the scraps.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

MEET ME AT MEYERS

Holiday Gifts

Santa's Headquarters

Santa's Proclamation:

Be it known to all my subjects---which include all people, young and old, rich and poor, that CHRISTMAS is the FESTIVAL of HAPPINESS, and all must do their part, to not only be happy themselves, but to make others happy---and in GIFT- GIVING--- DON'T give "cheap," "Inferior," "Undesirable" merchandise, but "GOOD GOODS" that the recipient will smile one big glad smile all next year. GOOD MERCHANDISE is scarce and difficult to get. No merchant has received the goods he purchased---therefore, there is a real reason why you should shop early.

BRING IN THE KIDDIES

EVERY DEPARTMENT Is Ready to Serve the Christmas Shopper

You can always do better at

Meyers Good Goods

Who Always Does Better By You

We supply the gifts most Appreciated — Because most practical and absolutely dependable.

PIANOS

and Player Pianos---Best and Cheaper Makes at

GEO. C. WILL

Salem, Oregon

Phonographs and Records

EDISONS VICTORS COLUMBIA AND STARR

GEO. C. WILL

Sewing Machines

All Makes
Genuine Needles
and Oil
Sewing Machines Repaired and Rented

GEO. C. WILL

Sheet Music

And

Music Studies

McKinley and Century
10c Editions
at

GEO. C. WILL
Music Store

WINIFRED BYRD, PIANIST
Clarence Whitehill, baritone,
Friday, Dec. 5, 8:15 P. M.
ARMORY
Reserved seats $1.50---$2.00
Plus War Tax
Box office open Friday, 10 a. m.
Mail orders now
Mrs. W. E. Anderson
1491 Court Street

W. W. MOORE
House Furnisher
HOME OF THE VICTROLA
You get more for your Money at Moore's.

SPECIAL
Good 5 passenger car will trade for what have you
U. S. GARAGE
Phone 1752 554 Ferry St.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Ladd & Bush Bank Building
City State and Commercial Bls.
STATE STREET
COMMERCIAL STREET
Phone 625

DRAPERIES
MADE TO ORDER TO FIT YOU RWINDOWS.
C. S. HAMILTON
340 Court Street

BUY REMNANTS
AT THE Remnant Store
254 North Commercial