ON TRIAL FOR KIDNAPING

CASE OF WHITE, SAILORS' HOTEL KEEPER, COMES UP.

Slow Work Getting an Unprejudiced Jury-Judge Frazer Will Not Excuse Every One.

A number of persons examined concerning their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case of James E. White, who is charged jointly with his brother, Harry White, and William Smith with kidnaping C. A. Buren, expressed a prejudice against the salice boarding, house, harders.

he sailor boarding-house business. The trial of James E. White was begun efore Judge Frazer pesterday morning. and when court adjourned for the day jur ors had been accepted as follows: W. S. Drake, John A. Bell, Max B. Godfrey, E. C. Johnson, M. F. Brady, L. M. Cox, J. T. Hughes, J. M. Fowler and E. C. God-

Citizens examined and excused as jurors by either the prosecution or the de-fense were: James R McCraken, H. W. Fries, J. B. Kellogg, Joseph H. Zane, Andrew Alien, J. E. Malley, R. McD. Cowan, V. A. Billion and G. Heitkemper. Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Allen were excused by the prosecution and Fries, Malley and others by the Afforce Mr. Heitkemper.

others by the defense. Mr. Heitkemper had formed an opinion from what he had read and heard of the case.

Mr. McCraken said he was familiar with the affair as it was detailed in the news-papers, and he was acquainted with Cap-tain Porter, of the British ship Riverdale. Buren, the sailor said to have been kid-naped, was one of the crew of this ves-sel. Mr. McCraken said he had formed an opinion from what he had read in the

In answer to a question if he had any prejudice against the sailor hoarding-house business he answered in the nega-tive, but said he was opposed to the man-He stated that a he was in the position of the defendant he would not want a person of the same mind as himself to act as a juror. He was excused on a preemptory

The men examined to sit as jurors were hil asked these questions, and whether they had formed an opinion or discussed the case. The queetion was also put: "Are you acquainted with James Laidiaw, British Consul" And also: "Are you acquainted with the defendant and have you any prejudice against him personally?"

Judge Frazer ruled that if a juror said he would go into the jury box with the presumption that the defendant was innocent unless proved guilty, and would dis-rogard any opinion he might have formed, obey the instructions given by the court regarding the law and evidence, and give the defendant the benefit of all reasonable doubt, he was competent to serve.

Buren, the sailor, who is alleged to have been taken to Vancouver, Wash., against his will, signed with Captain Por-ter for the voyage. He and two of his mates are said to have been attacked while on their way to the vessel. The other two men escaped. Dan J. Malarkey and M. L. Pipes appear as attorneys for the defendants. The trials of Henry White and William Smith are set to follow that of James E. White. The courtroom yesterday was crowded with interested

He Is Not a Loving Husband. Lena McCormack has sued William G. McCormack for a divorce in the State Cir-cuit Court, for $50 per month alimony for the support of their three minor chil-dren, and for $300 to pay the expenses of The parties were married in Kansas in 1878. Mrs. McCormack in her complaint alleges that within the past ten years her husband has frequently beaten and assaulted her and called her vile and degrading names. She says his conduct has grown worse from year to year, and that re-cently he drew a knife on her and threatened to kill her. Mrs. McCormack further avers that on March 8, 1903, the defendant came home very much intoxicated and struck her a heavy blow with his fist and threatened to take her life. She aserts that she has put up with her hus-and's abuse for years because of their

For Stealing a Scalskin Sacque He Gets Sixty Days.

Edward Quinn, a young man charged with stealing a scalskin sacque in Thomp-son's restaurant, on Fifth street, pleaded guilty to simple larceny yesterday morn-ing, and was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

Quinn, while trying to escape arrest, was shot by Detective Joseph Day, and was confined for some time in a hospital re-covering from the wound received. When he was discharged from the hospital he sued the officer for damages, but after the plea of guilty was entered Quinn's at-torney dismissed the damage suit. The trial of Quinn was set for last Saturday, but was continued because of the sickness of Detective Day.

TO APPEAL TO CHARITY Boys' and Girls' Aid Society Home Needs More Than $8000.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the Boys' and Girls' board of trustees of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Oregon was held yester-day afternoon in the chamber of Judge day afternoon in the chamber of Judge Gilbert at 3 o'clock, when there were present Judge C. B. Bellinger, A. H. Breyman, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, Mrs. J. A. Sladen, Mrs. A. G. Barker and Superintendent W. T. Gardner.

The report of the superintendent was read for the month of February, in which he reported there were being cared for on February 1 80 children; received during the month, 25, making a total of 65, Out of, this number 34 were placed in homes, and 31 are now at the Receiving Home.

The superintendent size reported that

MASTER PAINTERS' SIDE.

Declare They Have Met Unions Half Way, and Want to Avoid Strike.

PORTLAND, March II .- (To the Editor.) -The conference held by the committees of the Master Painters' Association and the local union of painters and paperhangers did not come to any agreement. At the last meeting the proposition was made by the employing contractors to increase the wages as a minimum to 40 cents an hour, which would be $3.30 per day for eight hours' work; at the same time the local union was asked to reconsider their rules whereby only one of a firm is allowed to work. Both these propositions were rejected by the union

The master painters then withdrew their roposition, believing that it was impossible to come to any agreement with the union that would be just to the property. owners and to the contractors, for we be-lieve that $3.20 a day is sufficient for the ordinary house painter. The more skilled workmen do now and always will get more than the minimum. The matter is now at a standstill between the two organizations, and the master painters feel that they have some their duty in meeting the union half way. We wish to avoid anything in the nature of a strike which would obliterate the prospects of a prosperous season. The above is a true and correct statement, and is given so that the public may judge for themselves. W. W. MORSE, President. J. BURNHAM, Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Walpole assured her that he would do what he could in the matter, where-upen the following tale was narrated:

"Dear Daughter: When are you coming home? We are all well and the bantam laid three eggs and the children go to school three times a week, and to German school twice a week. There is no news except that the old man came home drunk last night and hit me on the right side of my left chest, so I am lame there yet. He broke all the pretty ornaments on the organ and broke the organ stool, too, but he is all right today, and I know he is real sorry. Give my love to Uncle Jakey and write soon. Your mother."

Secretary Walpole had hardly finished the letter when the 'phone rang.

Mayor Williams had been requested to make a donation. Mr. Walpole told the Mayor the story and the "peor woman" is still looking for the "friend with money." Notices have been published in the papers warning the public not to give money. Notices have been published in the papers warning the public not to give the woman help, as she will be cared for by the City Board of Charities.
