Australia Gets Six Destroyers

London, Mar. 22.—The flotilla of six destroyers presented by the admiralty as a free gift to the Australia navy has just been taken over formally by the Australian high commissioner, Andrew Fisher, and is timed to arrive in Sydney on Anzac day, April 25. They are the Tatto, Success, Taemania, Stalwart, Anzac and Swordeman.

Mr. Fisher states that these new vessels all of which have left the slips since the armistice, differ so greatly in design, armament, maneuvering speed and range from the destroyers already belonging to the Australian navy that if pitted against them not one of the earlier vessels could live for more than a minute or two.

Separate Trials For Syndicalism Defendants Asked

Portland, Or., Mar. 22.—Separate trials for each of the 26 alleged I. W. W. charged with violation of the state criminal syndicalism act, was asked by defense counsel when the cases were brought to trial, Judge Harry H. Belt of Dallas, presiding.

Proceeding today were confined to an effort on the part of George F. Vanderveer, defense counsel, to obtain an order from the court returning to Laundy some personal jetters and papers seized at the time of his arrest, November 11, 1919, during a raid on local I. W. W. headquarters. Vanderveer declares the papers were taken without a search warrant and that the state now proposes to use them in evidence, illegally.

Chile Promises Good Offices In Ending Dispute

Buenos Aires, Mar. 22.—Chile has replied to the United States' note asking the former country to "leave nothing undone to prevent a conflict between Peru and Bolivia, according to Santiago dispatches.

Chile has no other desire than peace, says the note, which expresses full confidence that Bolivia will appreciate her duties in respect to foreigners domiciled in her territory.

The Peruvian charge d'affairs here, interviewed today by La Nacion said: "Official dispatches received at the legation give the impression of a disappearance of the possibility of a serious conflict between Peru and Bolivia."

France, England Boycotted By Syria

Beirut, Mar. 22.—Emil Feisal, the newly elected king of Syria has declared a boycott against countries occupying territory of Arabs—France and England—and has organized a commission for the purpose of bringing Moslems and Christians into a better understanding.

Posters displayed at Damascus, where the Syrian congress proclaimedthe independence of that country, declared:

"In spite of himself, the Moslem is a brother to the Christian and the Jew. The Arabs existed before Christ, Moses or Mohammed, and freedom and independence are rights of Syria. Religion is of God and the fatherland belongs to His children."

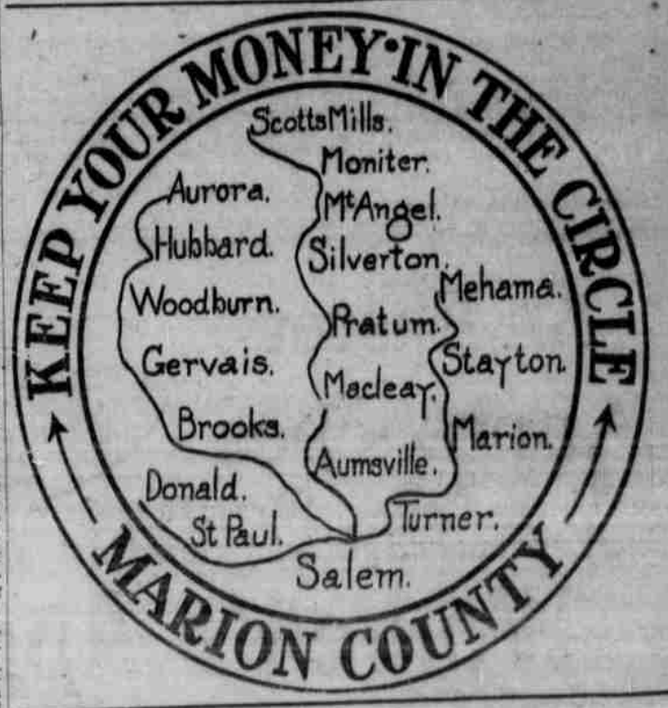
Washington Solons In Special Session

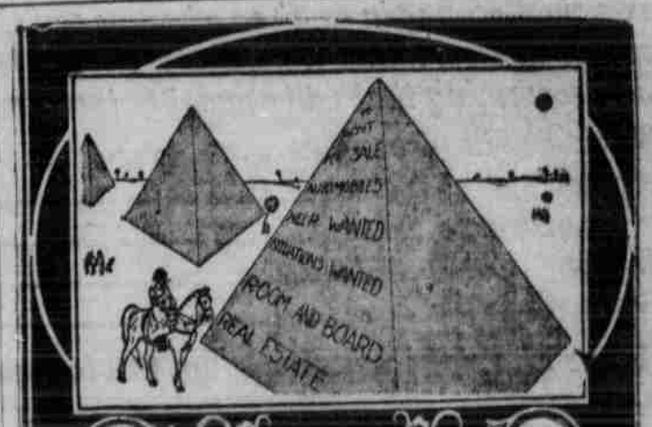
Olympia, Wash., March 22.—Washington's legislature met here today in a special session, called by Governor Louis F. Hart, to act on the proposed federal suffrage amendment and to furnish money for the state's depleted school funds.

A measure providing a bonus for former service men from Washington will also be considered, according to a program mapped by the joint appropriations committee and approved by Governor Hart.

Wood's Name On Montana Ballot

Helena, Mont., Mar. 22. — Major General Leonard Wood's name will be placed on the presidential preferencial primary ballot in Montana for vote April 23, according to Fletcher Maddox of Great Falls, assistant attorney general of the United States during the Taft administration. Petitions to place the general's name on the Montana ballot are being mailed to republican organizations in all parts of the state from Helena today, and will be filed shortly.





"The Little Corporal"
