Record Republican Landslide Sweeps Over The Nation

Republicans Win Control Of Congress

Victory for Senators And Congressmen in Most Contests is Assured

Washington, Nov. 3.—Republican control of congress for another two years with an increased majority in the house and a prospective increase in the senate was the major part of the election news. A net gain of twenty votes in the house was shown with complete returns from only seventeen states, but with most of the democratic strongholds reporting.

Eight of the 15 republican senatorial candidates had come in winners today, the seven others had substantial leads, while in the other states all of the republican entrants were reported in the lead. For the 19 democratic senate seats, nine of the minority party had been returned winners all from southern states, while in the border and western states the others fighting an uphill battle.

Claim Safe Majority

That the general republican landslide would seat several more republican senators was predicted confidently by republican campaign managers, whose claims included a majority of eight to ten in the next senate. Both the republican presidential and senatorial tickets were reported early today as ahead in California, Nebraska, Missouri, Colorado, South Dakota, Idaho, Ohio and Washington.

Of the democrats, Senator Underwood of Alabama, minority leader, was reelected and Representative Heflin chosen to succeed the late Senator Bankhead. A new face in the senate on the democratic side will be Representative Caraway of Arkansas, who defeated Senator Kirby in the primaries and was elected yesterday. Among the republican leaders reelected were Senators Brandegee, Kenyon, Dillingham, Watson and Penrose.

Few Changes in House

In the house, most of the veteran, both republicans and democrats were reelected, including Speaker Gillett, now holding the record for continuous service and elected for his fifteenth term.

Chairman Good of the appropriations committee and other prominent committee chairmen were reelected.

Taxation, tariff and other fiscal measures will remain in charge of Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate finance committee, and Representative Forney, chairman of the house ways and means committee, both of whom were reelected.

Senator Wadsworth of New York is expected to continue as chairman of the senate military affairs committee and, under the seniority rule, Representative Kahn of California, also reelected, would continue in like capacity for the house committee.

Chairmanships Unchanged

Most of the important senate committee chairmanships remain in the hands of senators not involved in yesterday's elections.

By defeat of Senator Gronna of North Dakota, in the primaries, Senator Morris of Nebraska, is next in line to head the agriculture committee.

Among prospective changes in house committee heads is probable promotion of Representative McFadden Pennsylvania banker who clashed with John Skelton Williams, controller of currency, to the chairmanship of the house banking committee, succeeding Representative Platt of New York, retiring.

Harding Will Take Holiday Voyage at Sea

Marion, Ohio, Nov. 2.—No longer a party nominee, but president-elect of the United States, Warren G. Harding turned his thoughts toward rest and recreation today as he neared approaching the formulation of his administration machinery and policies.

He plans to take a real vacation trip which will give him two weeks of seclusion on the Gulf coast and a week of scouting in the Panama canal zone before he goes seriously to work choosing his cabinet and mapping the work he is to do after March 4.

He probably will leave Saturday morning, not to return until about mid-December.

One of his tasks today was to read and acknowledge hundreds of telegrams of congratulation that had been pouring in since the ballots began beginning yesterday. During the night, as the proportions of the landslide to him became apparent, the Marion telegraph offices were flooded beyond capacity and today the influx of messages of greeting and good wishes promised to come in proportions that out did the liveliest days of the campaign.

Democrats Fail to Gain; Single Doubtful States In Presidential Contest

New York, Nov. 3.—One of the most sweeping republican victories in party history today stood recorded for Senator W. G. Harding for president and a republican congress.

Tremendous and unparalleled republican pluralities beginning with the first count of ballots in yesterday's election continued mounting today.

Congress Lost Also.

Defeat in their fight both for the presidency and congress was conceded early by democratic national leaders on the basis of the crushing republican vote and despite the absence of final and official figures.

With the presidency and congress went loss to the democrats of governors, state legislatures and other state and local candidates. The break even threatened to extend to the border states hitherto "solid south" with republican gains in some southern states larger than any since the Civil war.

Senator Harding's victory, in what Governor Cox and other democratic leaders and many prominent republicans hailed as the "solemn referendum" on the league of nations was impressive. In the absence of final figures, the swelling tide of huge pluralities early today gave him assurance of 329 votes in the electoral college as against 127 for Governor Cox with 75 doubtful, inclusive of states where the republican tide was running strong.

Lead Is Decisive.

Unofficial results presaged a larger majority in the electoral college for Senator Harding and his running mate, Governor Coolidge, than any since 1888, except alone the vote of 435 for President Wilson in 1912 during the republican "split."

The republican congressional swing was as strong, increased majorities n both senate and house being marked up. Early today victory for virtually for all fifteen republican senators for re-election, was spelled by the returns, while about a half dozen of the nineteen democratic candidates were battling against republican leads.

The first trial of woman suffrage contributed largely to the republican majorities and also was a factor in delaying the count in many states. The millions of women's ballots also swelled the popular vote recorded beyond all records.

Senator Harding accepted his victory without exultation, stating he "was more given to prayer to God to make me capable of playing my part."

To Governor Coolidge, the next vice-president, he sent a message stating: "We've got a real job and we'll tackle it together."

Cox Hears Result.

Governor Cox also receiving his defeat wthout untoward show of feeling. He withheld comment after remaining at his newspaper office at Dayton, Ohio, until almost midnight and seeing his own paper issue an early extra edition recounting his defeat.

Senator Harding, Governor Coolidge, Will H. Hays chairman of the republican national committee and other republican leaders, exchanged telegrams of congratulation. Senator Harding commended Mr. Hays upon "successful management of a great campaign" and also told Governor Coolidge that he would expect him to "play a full part in the coming republican administration."

The league of nations issue was stressed by Senator Borah of Idaho, prominent among the league's foes, in a statement declaring he regarded the election as 'the triumph for nationalism and the death of the league of nations."

Harding to Rest.

None of the minor parties, the socialist, farmer-labor or prohibition figured in the presidential result. Socialist headquarters at Chicago claimed an increased vote and the party reelected three New York socialist assemblymen who had been expelled. The first woman socialist ever elected to the New York asembly, Marion H. Laing, also was successful.

Eugene V. Debs, socialist presidential candidate, receiving the returns in Atlanta penitentiary.

Senator Harding with the receipt of the ballot tidings—on his fifty-fifth birthday—announced plans for a vacation beginning Friday. He will spend several days near Brownsville, Texas, and then tour the Panama canal one. Governor Cox also is planning a vacation on a hunting trip in Mississippi.

New York, Ohio—the home of both Senator Harding and Governor Cox—Illinois and Pennsylvania furnished the largest republican pluralities. That of New York, where Governor Smith, democrat, and Nathan L. Miller, republican, were neck and neck in the gubernatorial fight—was close to the million mark; Ohio was around 150,000; Illinois, at the present ratio, about 800,000 and Pennsylvania about 400,000.

Volstead Running Close ..

In California, where Senator Phelan, democrat, was trailing far behind Samuel M. Shortridge, republican, and with Senator Harding even farther ahead, adoption of the alien land law amendment had a wide majority.

Prohibition was a subject not reflected upon the face of returns by Representative Volstead, Minnesota, author of the prohibition enforcement law, was in a close race.

Republican governors in Connecticut, Illinois—where former Senator Lewis was defeated by Len Small—Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan and New Hampshire were successful. And in Tennessee, Governor Roberts, upon unofficial returns, was behind Alfred Taylor, republican, but the democrats claim Roberts' election.

With but final or official returns, decisive pluralities and leads indicated certainty of the following for Harding:

California 13 votes; Colorado 6; Connecticut 7; Delaware 3; Illinois 29; Indiana 15; Iowa 13; Kansas 10; Maine 6; Massachusetts 18; Michigan 15; Minnesota 12; Nebraska 8; New Hampshire 4; New Jersey 14; New York 45; Ohio 24; Oregon 5; Pennsylvania 38; Rhode Island 5; Utah 4; Vermont 4; Washington 7; West Virginia 8; Wisconsin 13; Wyoming 3. Total 329.

Governor Cox has safely the following:

Alabama 12; Arkansas 9; Florida 6; Georgia 14; Kentucky 13; Louisiana 10; Mississippi 10; North Carolina 12; South Carolina 9; Texas 20; Virginia 12. Total 127.

Lacking sufficient returns and doubtful were the following:

Arizona 3 votes; Idaho 4; Maryland 8; Missouri 18; Montana 4; Nevada 3; New Mexico 33; North Dakota 5; Oklahoma 10; Tennessee 12; South Dakota 5. Total 75.

Harding 329; Cox 127; doubtful 75. Total 531.

The republican ticket, presidential and senatorial was leading in Arizona, Nevada, Idaho, Missouri, Montana and South Dakota. In Oklahoma the race was said to be the closest in history with the democrats ahead. Official figures from Tennessee gave Governor Cox a lead of 11,000 with but one-fifth of the returns in. In Maryland, Senator Harding had a slight lead.

The contest in Missouri also was close, with the republican presidential and senatorial tickets. Former Speaker Clark was in a close race but with about a thousand votes to the good.

A remarkable feature in New York city was the socialist vote. For Eugene V. Debs, the party's presidential candidate, now imprisoned in the Atlanta prison for violation of the espionage act, were cast 131,856 votes, more than four times the total the socialist candidate received here in 1916, when the vote was 313,788. Debs received more than a third as many votes as were chalked up to Cox's account.

Harding's Vote In Ohio Breaks All Past Records

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Ohio, home of the democratic and republican candidates for president, yesterday cast its vote decisively for Senator Harding. His election came on his fifty-fifth birthday.

On returns from 4128 out of the 7145 precincts in the state early today Senator Harding was leading his opponent by 196,070. If this ratio continues, Harding would cary his home state by approximately 339,000, the greatest plurality ever given by the Buckeye state for any candidate for office. The vote from the 4128 precincts was Harding 631,109; Cox 435,039.

Former Mayor Harry L. Davis, republican of Cleveland, continued to gain on late returns over State Auditor A. V. Donahey, democrat, in the race for the governorship. The vote from 2539 precincts gave Davis 318,975; Donahey 263,091.

Former Governor Frank B. Willis, republican, had a substantial lead of 81,533 over W. A. Julian, democrat, for United States senator. Returns from 2397 precincts gave Willis 309,706 and Julian 228,173.

Negro, Refused Vote, Kills 2; Crowds Lynch

Orlando Fla. Nov. 3.—A negro named Perry who shot and killed two men at Ocoee after he had been refused a vote, was lynched earlyt oday outside the corporate limits of Orlando. He was hanged to a tree and his body was riddled with bullets.

Orlando, Fla., Nov. 3.—Five negroes have been burned to death and another hanged to a tree as a resutl of a fight which started at the polls at Ocoee, near here, last night, after election officials had refusedto permit Mose Norman, a negro to vote on the ground that he had failed to pay his toll tax.

County For Harding 2-1; Stanfield Leads by 500; Marion Frowns On Bills

After offering a vote of more than two to one for Senator Harding, Marion county had, up to a late hour this afternoon, at least done its share toward decisively defeating each of the principal proposed measures which had been proposed.

Robert N. Sanfield, republican, is the choice of Marion county for United States senator over Senator George Chamberlain, by 500 votes, late returns show.

For attorney general, Van Winkle was this afternoon maintaining a huge lead over his opponents, Coshow and Bailey.

Buchtel, for public service commissioner, had twice the number of votes accorded his nearest rival by Marion county. Bennett was second in the race.

The compulsory voting amendment was defeated more than three to one by this county; the legislative sessions measure was lost approximately three to one; the oleomargarine bill was rejected by about the same margin, and the single tax measure was defeated approximately eight to one. The measure regulating the pay of county officers was turned down by a comparatively small vote, while a large number of persons decided against the Portland dock measure. By a vote of nearly three to one the proposed anti-vaccination bill was defeated, and by a four to one ratio the five per cent interest measure was lost. The Roosevelt bird refuge was apparently frowned on by Marion county by a two to one vote.

All Democrats Meet Defeat Polk County

Dallas, Nov. 3.—Every democrat on the county ticket went down to defeat in the republican landslide of yesterday. Harding carried the county by 750 or more votes. Chamberlain and Stanfield are running neck and neck. Van Winkle received the county vote for attorney general and Buchtel's plurality for public service commissioner will be about 1000.

The chief local interest centered in the contest for representative, in which Percy O. Powell defeated L. D. Brown by approxximately 250 votes. J. M. Helgerson defeated E. K. Piasecki, the present district attorney for reelection by nearly 1000 votes. Ezra Hart defeated Chas. C. Gardner for county commissioner

All the referendum measures met defeat. With 30 out of 37 precincts complete, the vote stands

Harding 2170; Cox 1420. For senator, Chamberlain 1852; Hayes 54; Stanfield 1847. Attorney general, Van Winkle 444. Public service commissioner, Bennett 1031; Buchtel 17970; Newman 140. CHAMBERLAIN LEADS IN JACKSON COUNTY

Moffitt Now Has 2 to 1 Lead Over Welsh for Chief

On the face of late returns, Officer Verden M. Moffitt is the choice over Chief of Police Jack Welsh for the office of city marshal of Salem. Complete returns from six precincts show Moffitt to have 782 votes to Welsh's 379. No final figures are available but the office is conceded to be Moffitt's.

Even the most ardent Moffitt supporter did not anticipate the landslide which took place in the police voting, and most observers had held that the race would be close.

"Frankly, I didn't expect anything like this," Officer Moffitt smiled this morning. "But I want to thank my supporters."

From the earliest returns Officer Moffitt lead the race consistently, and maintained a strong lead throughout the time that returns were being received. Last night there was only one precinct out of the city's 14 in which Moffitt had not proved the favorite.

Officer Moffitt has been on the Salem police force about two years. He is an ex-service man and spent several months overseas. Moffitt has lived in Salem practically all his life.

At the primaries in May Moffitt lead the field. During the past few months he has been serving as a motorcycle officer and has centered his attention on traffic violations.

Idaho

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 3.—All democratic candidates for national office and the democratic candidates for governor are far behind on the face of returns from 398 precincts out of 825 in Idaho early today which give: Harding 49,430; Cox 25,190.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 3.—Late returnst oday served only to increase the leads of republican candidates. Seven of these were in ratio of two republican votes to every democratic one.

Robert N. Dunn had the largest lead of the lesser offices. Eighty-eight precincts in five counties gave him 12,707 and his democrat oopnent, J. H. Forney, 5572.

The school election held at Pe Ell to aprove a 7½ mil tax to carry the schools through the year carried by a 2 to 1 vote.

Salem Casts 3-1 Vote for Better Fire Protection

By a vote of almost four to one, Salem has adopted the two platoon system for its fire department, it became evident late this afternoon. Complete returns were not available from all precincts, but in six sections of the town the firemen have received 834 favorable votes against 253 opposing the two shifts.

"We are more than pleased," Fire Chief "Buck" Hutton said this afternoon. "We were confident that Salem people would vote for the new plan when they understood it fully."

The two platoon system measure carried in virtually every precinct, and there has been no time during the election when the result seemed doubtful.

Funds Refused, Salem's Plight Serious, Belief

If aught may be judged from late returns, Salem voters have refused the $25,000 asked by the city council to carry on the business of the city. In six precincts there were 599 votes cast against the budget, and only 354 for it.

The overwhelming defeat accorded the budget measure is credited to the voters ignorance of the dire need which prompted the city council to ask for more money. At the present time the city is said to be approximately $20,000 in debt, and the $25,000 asked for would not have taken care of the extra expense which might be incurred through the addition of more firemen.

Firemen and Police Hit

"It is a wonderful example of inconsistency," Councilman H. H. Vandervort said this morning. "They vote for the two platoon system for firemen—which is undoubtedly a good thing—but they turn right around and refuse the city money on which to operate."

The present situation of the city is serious, was the opinion expressed by many citizens. Just what will be done in view of the fact that the budget increase has been refused, is apparently not known, but councilmen said today that it is likely the police department, fire department, and street department will be cut down, or the salaries of the men employed in these departments lessened. It is believed likely that the foreen will simply be cut, unless some other means of raising money is found.

Special Election Possible

Councilman George E. Halvorsen's comment was similar to that of Mr. Vandervort's. "It seems strange to me," he said, "that the will vote to spend more money, but will not vote for the funds."

Mr. Halvorsen intimated that a special election might be called in the hope of raising further funds.

With the fire and police departments already held inadequate for a city of Salem's size, and the prospect of cutting down the forces even lower, need for immediate action of some kind is believed necessary.

"We'll simply have to spend less money," Mayor Otto Wilson said today.

The body of Mrs. Eli Campbell, aged 58, was found with neck and back broken lying by the roadside near Idaho Falls. It is thought she was struck by an automobile.
