District Attorney Francis Galloway of Wasco county will deliver the Elks memorial address at the anual Lodge of Sorrow in Salem, the first Sunday in December according to an announcement made mout Friday by a committee of Elks composed of August Heinstein, Charles R. Archerd and Oliver Myers.

The eulogy will be delivered by Justice George H. Burnett of the supreme court.

Country Receives Sum From Forest

A check and warrant claim $877.56 from the United States forest service was a pleasant surprise Friday for County Treasurer Drager.

"We had expected only nothing $80," stated Mr. Drager. Saturday "as Marion county has never received more than that as an annual return from the Oregon and Washington forests."

The sum will be placed to the credit of Marion county schools. This is the 25 per cent share which each county received from national forest returns.

$199,659.94 Is Tax Turnover

Sheriff Needham made his fourteenth tax turnover for 1920 when he placed the sum of $199,659.94 in County Treasurer Drager's hands Saturday.

This amount is a portion of the second half of payments to be made on the tax levy for 1920. Payment of the second half of the tax amounts became due October 5, and collection for this period has not yet been completed.

Building On State Street Purchased For Hauser Store

Paul H. Hauser and Lloyd Hauser, owners of a string of sporting goods stores in the Willamette valley, Friday completed the purchase of the building where their Salem store has occupied for five years, on State street between Liberty and Commercial.

The building was purchased from J. I. Thompson and the estate of Eber Lafore, who have owned the property for 40 years. It is a two story structure and has a frontage of 35 feet on State street. It is considered one of the best sporting store buildings in the city and well adapted to the needs of a sporting goods firm.

Fire Chiefs Are Urged to Enter Trophy Contest

Oregon fire chiefs are urged in a letter sent out by State Fire Marshal Barber today, to enter their departments in the contest for the Thos. H. Ince Trophy. Only fifteen Oregon departments have been entered in the contest so far according to Barber who says the time for entry in the contest has been extended to November 15.

Bear Meat Is Satisfactory

F. C. Scott, a farmer of Yamhill county who Thursday delivered a bear weighing 160 pounds, killed the animal to Salem where it was exhibited at the Peoples Market, the meat later sold at 15 cents a pound.

According to manager Wolcher of the market, the venture proved to be tender and satisfactory to those who purchased it, the bear was young and in good condition.
