Prune Bread of Mistland Flavor Meets With Favor

After carrying on a series of experiments, the Cherry City bakery of Salem is not putting out a Mistland prune bread that has become a favorite with the public from the first day the one pound prune loaf was offered.

Through the suggestion of the Oregon Growers Cooperative association, the bakery some time ago began to experiment with the making of prune bread, as one of the means of increasing the consumption of Mistland prunes.

After trying out a number of recipes, one was found that produced an ideal prune bread in a proportion of seven to one. That is, one pound of prunes is used with seven pounds of flour and other ingredients.

By this combination, the Cherry City bakery found it could put out a prune bread with the tart sweet flavor of the Mistland prunes, making a loaf that cuts fine and one that will hold up for three or four days.

Just as an experiment, there was baked 60 loaves the first day which was sold to the local trade as a try out. The next day the demand was such that 110 loaves were baked for the local trade for distribution through the grocery stores, and now the Mistland one pound prune loaf promises to be one of the most popular breads offered.

Not only Salem, but the entire territory covered by the Cherry City bakery, extending as far south as Klamath Falls, is now receiving daily shipments of Mitsland prune bread.

Much credit is due Mr. Hillman, manager of the Cherry City bakery and William Edwards, head of the baking department, for their efforts in working with the Oregon Growers Cooperative association, in producing a prune bread that will in time add largely to the consumption of prunes and in a direct way help one of the state's leading fruit industries.

Pioneer Woman of Aurora Dead; Funeral Today

Aurora, Jan. 20.—Following an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Mrs. Kate Marks, wife of Coleman Marks of Marks Prairie, passed away Tuesday morning. The funeral services will be held this afternoon in the Presbyterian church at Aurora and interment will take place in the Aurora cemetery.

Mrs. Marks was the daughter of the late Samuel and Margaret Wolfer, who crossed the plains in ox teams in 1865, settling at what is now Aurora. They were among the earliest colonists of this county. Mrs. Marks was born August 6, 1871. She was married to Coleman Marks, son of an Oregon pioneer family, Dec. 3, 1899. Since her marriage she had lived in Clackamas county, near here. Besides her husband she is survived by 4 daughters, Vesta, Jewell, Electa and Cleo Marks, at home; a sister, Mrs. Grant B. Dimick of Oregon City, and a brother, Henry A. Wolfer, of Canby.

The area of the island of Cuba is 45,881 square miles, or about that of Pennsylvania.

Nerve-Speed When Needed

Lack of Reserve Force Cause of Most Failures in the Daily Affairs of Life

To feel weary without having earned it by hard work throws the mind into disorder and confusion.

A hundred people describing their weary condition would each tell it differently. One can't think, another is drowsy, the next feels weak, others are irritable, moody, depressed, apprehensive, as the case may be. To this great class of sufferers comes Reolo, one of the grandest reconstructive agencies ever devised for definite accomplishment. It intensifies the activity of the vital processes, provokes increased flesh, stimulates, contributes to the defense of the system against depletion and consequent exhaustion and in many other ways arouses the functional processes to make you feel that something has touched that one flickering vital spark you thought was about to go out. No amount of description can adequately convey the difference between the feeling of lack of nerve speed and the rebound, the freedom, the liberation from depressions that cause so many men and women to fall in their tracks, to go to sleep at the switch or stand still when the order is to go ahead. If you would really like to get acquainted with your real self get a $1 box of Reolo today. Ask any of the clerks at Power's drug store or any other reliable drug store. (adv)
