HE WEARS SAME COLLAR BUTTON FOR FIFTY-FIVE YEARS

We read in the paper of a man named Mr. Hoffman in New Cannan, Conn., who has worn the same collar button since 1870. We pay homage to this gentleman, for if we could wear one a month without losing it we would be proud of ourselves.

Of course nobody is going to drive the same car for fifty five years, but if you want a car that will stand up and wear for a long time, come in and see our BETTER USED CARS. Many of them are like new, all of them are sound, and every value we offer is an honest bargain.

THIS IS A FINE CAR:

1923 Chevrolet coupe, five oversize cord tires, good paint, bumpers, cut out, parking light, step plates. Just the car for winter driving. Be sure and see this one for $375

Out 3 miles from the hills town of Turner where the soil is deep and rich and the trees grow strong and big we have a 33 acre fruit farm, mostly fine prunes—17 acres of them—then there are a lot of fine cherry trees, ½ acre of loganberries and other fruit, there is a 6 room almost new country modern cottage, a small barn, chicken house and a good prune dryer and it's a half mile from school and on a good gravel road and circumstances force this man to sell and you can buy it for $5,000 and because he can not be on the farm to care for it he would consider trading it for a good rental home in Salem.

It looks like winter were about to "set in" and we have a couple of vacant houses that are wanting fires in their furnaces, one's new and not quite finished and 6 strictly modern rooms for $2500 and the other has just been used enough to be well broken in, with a beautiful lawn and fruit trees and shrubbery and flowers and 7 nice rooms all modern except fire place, and the price is only $5000
