WHEAT HIGHER CORN NERVOUS

Chicago, Oct. 9—Aggregate buying led to a brisk early advance in wheat values today.

The opening, ⅝ lower to ¼ higher, new style, December $1.36¾ to $1.37 and May $1.38 to $1.38½, was followed by a rise to $1.38⅞ for December and $1.40 for May.

After opening at ½ to 1 higher, December 75¼ to 75⅜, corn continued to advance. December touching 76⅞.

Oats were inclined to lag. Starting at ⅛ decline to ⅛ gain, December 39⅝, the market showed only a slight upturn.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1¼ to 2 cents net higher, December $1.38⅞ to $1.39 and May $1.39¾ to $1.40.

Corn closed nervous 1⅛ to 2⅜ net higher; December 76⅛ to 76⅝.

WALL STREET STOCKS HIGHER

New York, Oct. 9—(AP)—Spectacular gains in the high priced industrials featured the resumption of a broad upward movement in today's stock market.

Nearly two score issues had mounted to new high levels for the year before the end of the third hour. Buying operations in the early afternoon centered in such issues as Foundation company, United Cigar Stores and Allied Chemical, which ruled 4 to 5 points above last night's final quotations.

The closing was strong. General Motors crossed 114 to a new high record and was followed into high ground by DuPont, Associated Drygoods, American Brake Shoe and Foundry and Mathieson Alkali in which gains ranged from 3 to 5 points. Adams Express, however, receded seven points from its high and General Railway Signal sold 9½ points under the previous closing. Sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

FORECAST SHOWS WHEAT DECREASE

Washington, Oct. 9—With harvesting in progress, more definite idea of the size of this year's principal farm crops was given today by the department of agriculture's monthly report.

Corn production was forecast at 2,918,000,000 bushels, compared with 2,885,000,000 bushels a month ago and 2,437,000,000 bushels harvested last year.

A preliminary estimate places winter wheat production at 416,000,000 bushels and the forecast of spring wheat is 282,000,000 bushels, making the total wheat crop 697,000,000 bushels compared with 700,000,000 forecast last month and 873,000,000 bushels produced last year.
