MacDowell Club Concert This Evening

One of the most brilliant musical events of the year will be the MacDowell club concert, which is being given at the Grand theater this evening with Miss Mary Schultz, violinist, as guest artist. Some 50 women and 20 men prominent in capital city musical circles are members of the organization which has as its director Miss Lena Belle Tartar. Miss Ruth Bedford is the piano accompanist and Miss Gretchen Thielsen will provide the organ background for the concert Tuesday evening.

Following the concert a reception is being given by the club in compliment to Miss Mary Schultz in the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts on North Summer street.

Miss Louise Bryan and Mrs. Fisher will greet the guests in the attractive reception hall. Introducing to the receiving line will be Miss Grace Fawk and Miss Alma Green. Those receiving the guests will be Miss Mary Schultz, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. W. S. Levens, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Ruth Bedford, Mrs. W. A. Denton, Miss Mary Cupper, Mrs. S. W. Starr and Mrs. Harris Lietz.

Assisting about the spacious rooms will be Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. H. J. Hjort and Mrs. Frank Waters.

Presiding at the urns will be Mrs. George Pearce and Mrs. John Rand. The lace covered serving table will be graced with Christmas greens and flanked with tall red tapers in Silver candelabra. Assisting in the serving will be Miss Helen Prang, Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Billie Cupper and Mrs. Grace Brown.
