SOCIETY

Edited by Rovena Eyre. Phone 4882

Large Reception At C. P. Bishop Home To Honor Artists

Most outstanding on the social calendar for the early days of July is the large reception which will be given tonight at 8 o'clock at the C. P. Bishop residence on Court street by members of the Salem Arts League, in compliment to M. and Mme. Hubert-Robert, distinguished French artists. The spacious rooms of the Bishop home will be beautifully decorated with huge bouquets of summer flowers, and the serving table will be attractively appointed with a centerpiece of mixed garden flowers, silver service and lighted tapers. The affair has been arranged by a committee consisting of Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. D. L. Shrode, Mrs. Elsa Ebsen, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. Ora MacIntyre and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith. Mrs. Ella Hathaway, past leader of the Salem Arts League, will meet the guests at the door and will introduce them to the honor guests. Mrs. Blanche M. Jones will be in charge of the dining room, with Mrs. Edna Daily and Mrs. Ray Yocum presiding at the urns. They will be assisted in serving by Miss Orma McIntyre, Miss Helen Lytle, Miss Rachel Yocum, Mrs. Nellie Roland Greene and Mrs. Merle Smith.

Some of the more famous portraits of M. Hubert-Robert will be brought to the reception and Mme. Hubert-Robert will give an interesting talk in regard to the pictures. The reception is to be entirely informal and, although invitational, anyone who would like to meet the artists may do so by calling any Arts League member. M. and Mme. Hubert-Robert are anxious to meet all the young artists of Salem as well as the people who are lovers and sponsors of art.

Prominent Salem folk who have helped to make the exhibit at the Y. M. C. A. so delightful and who have so graciously given their aid in every respect are Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells, Miss Mirpah Blair, Dr. Mary Rowland, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. D. L. Shrode, Miss Constance Fowler, Mrs. Ralph Gilbert, Miss Mary Schultz, Mr. Mayo, who arranged and hung the pictures, Mrs. Humphreys, Mrs. Ella Hathaway, Mr. Ralph Schomp, Mrs. Blanche Allen and Miss Beatrice Humphrey.

• • •

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet in the gardens of the J. Vinton Scott home next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. O. K. Ohling is in charge of the program and Mrs. Scott will give an interesting talk on China. Mrs. Oren Stratton will give a review of the experiences of Dr. E. Stanley Jones, missionary, who recently was in Portland.

Tea will be served late in the afternoon.

• • •

Mrs. Moorehead Fetes Visitors

Complimenting Leland Nelson of Hollywood and James Keller of Los Angeles, Calif., who are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Moorehead, Mrs. Moorehead entertained at a delightfully informal evening of bridge Thursday at her home on North Cottage street. Roses and mock orange blossoms were effectively arranged about the rooms as the decorative motif. A buffet supper was served late in the evening with Mrs. Hubert Riley assisting the hostess.

Those bidden to meet the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Riley, Miss Doris McCallister, Miss Margaret Daugherty, Miss Edith Morehouse, Miss Flavia Downs, Miss Margaret Mowrey of Seattle, Norman Winslow, Galen Deane and Fred Blatchford.

• • •

Tea Honors Miss Patterson

Miss Martha Patterson of Eugene, who will be married next month to Clarence Veal of Albany, was honored Thursday afternoon by Alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma at a lovely garden tea at the home of Mrs. E. E. DeCou of Eugene. Hours were from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lawrence W. Manerud, Mrs. Lloyd A. Payne, Mrs. Edmund S. Conklin, Mrs. Frank Strong and Mrs. A. F. Barnett.

Miss Patterson is prominent in musical circles throughout the state and has many friends in Salem.

• • •

Thursday night Mrs. Hollis Smith and Miss Helen Hoover were joint hostesses at an al fresco dinner complimenting Miss Patricia Draper who left Friday for Chicago to visit the Century of Progress exposition, and to visit friends in Kentucky.

Covers were placed for Miss Draper, Miss Thelma Hoover, Miss Anne Linnen, Miss Joan Jesten, Miss Genevieve Woodward and the hostesses, Mrs. Smith and Miss Hoover.

• • •

The Leslie Ladies' Aid and the Home and Foreign Missionary society will hold a joint meeting at the country home of Mrs. C. S. Teeple on Wallace Road, Wednesday.

Members are requested to meet at the church at 10.30 and bring sandwiches, a covered dish and table service. Transportation will be provided for those who do not have cars.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee will hold open house Thursday, July 13, in observance of their 40th wedding anniversary. Hours in the afternoon will be from 3 to 5 o'clock and in the evening 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

• • •

Past Presidents of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet with Laura McAdams, 245 D street, Tuesday afternoon. A record attendance is desired.

• • •

The Royal Neighbors will meet at the Fraternal Temple Monday evening, July 10, at 8 o'clock. There will be a juvenile meeting in the afternoon at 2 o'clock in the same place. All members are urged to be present for initiation services.

• • •

Miss Hermina Klaus of St. Paul, Minn., has been the guest of friends and relatives in Salem for the past few weeks. She left Thursday for Portland where she will spend a few days before leaving for her home in the east.

Beauty Winner

Participation in beauty contests has become almost a habit with Mary Katherine Chute, junior at Ohio university, Athens, O. Her latest victory has given her the title of junior prom queen. (Associated Press Photo)

Brookview Scene Of Dance

Miss Kathryn Rowe, Miss Roberta Varley and Miss Faye Thompson were joint hostesses Thursday night at a lovely garden party and dance at "Brookview" the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Thompson on Summer street.

Ocean spray and large baskets of delphinium were used effectively about the rooms as the decorative motif. The supper table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of lavender and pink sweet peas flanked by matching tapers. Mrs. Grace Thompson Mrs. Harry Rowe and Mrs. Ella Jones of Portland assisted the hostesses in serving.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rabens, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sodamen, Miss Constance Krebs, Miss Georgia Nash, Miss Lottie Nash, Miss Frances Reid, Miss Phyllis Hauge, Miss Dolores Mills, Miss Alta Johnson, Miss Peggy Fronk, Miss Lucile Bushnell, Miss Faye Thompson, Miss Kathryn Rowe, Miss Roberta Varley and their escorts, Mark Spears, Harold Domogalla, Ed Busick, Paul Todd, Richard Devers, Avery Thompson, Howard Mills, Andy Anderson, Jack Dutro, Glen Dolan, Chuck Heltzel, Lowell Gribble, Matt Dorks and Arthur Fisher.

• • •

Mrs. Schreiber Entertains Group

Wednesday evening Mrs. Dan Schreiber (Ethel Adam) entertained informally a group of her Beta Chi sorority sisters at the chapter house on State street. The spacious rooms were decorated with large bouquets of summer flowers. At the supper hour Mrs. Schreiber was assisted in serving by Miss Margaret Purvine.

Those bidden were Miss Dorothy Dalk, Miss Roberta Mills, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Eloise White, Miss Florence Marshall, Miss Margaret Purvine, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Dorothy Alexander and Miss Virginia Kiser.

• • •

The Senior Christian Endeavor class held its monthly business meeting last night at the home of Sam Saunders. Late in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. D. A. Saunders who was assisted by Mrs. S. A. Gardener.

Those present were Mrs. Lauretta Fish, Mrs. Shepherd, Miss Garnet Larkins, Mr. R. V. Willson, Mr. Ralph Koerner, Sam Saunders and Donald Stewart of Forest Grove.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Miss Patsy, who have been visiting in Vancouver, B. C., with Mrs. Livesley's parents, returned to their home in Salem Thursday.

• • •

Miss Ethel Livesley, Miss Margaret Livesley and Charles Livesley left the first part of the week for Chicago where they will view the Century of Progress exposition.

• • •

The Alpha Phi Alpha Alumnae club and all town members will meet at the home of Loretta and Roberta Varley for a pot luck supper Monday night. Miss Helen Breithaupt will be assisting hostess.

All members are urged to be present.

• • •

Miss Loretta Fox and Miss Mary Fox have left for an extended visit in California.

• • •

Allan L. Hubbard, Jr., is registered at the Hotel Sir Francis Drake in San Francisco, Calif.

• • •

Mrs. David W. Eyre, Miss Rovena Eyre and David Eyre, Jr., are the guests of friends at Teskowin.

A's For Four Years

It would be impossible to beat Marjorie Henninger's scholastic record. She has graduated from a Cleveland high school with grades of A in every subject for four years! (Associated Press Photo)

Gay Affair Honors Robert Brady

One of the gayest affairs of the week was the surprise old fashioned "hayrack" party given last night by Mrs. R. G. Brady in compliment to her son, Robert Brady.

The young folk all gathered at the Brady home and then spent three hours driving into the country. At a late hour the group returned to the lovely gardens of the Brady home where Mrs. Brady, assisted by Mrs. D. B. Hill, served supper.

Guests bidden were Miss Ruth Jean Garnjobst, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Barbara Cross, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Janet Brown, Miss Jean Bartlett, Miss Flavia Downs, Miss Shirley Cronemiller, Miss Emelyn Griggs, Miss Jeanne Houk, Miss Isabel Hill, Miss Charlotte Hill and their escorts, Jim Earl, Allan McCallister, Dean Ellis, Billy Phillips, Wilbur Curry, Bruce Stencer, Marion Ritchie, John Ritchie, Tommy Gabriel and Dan McLellan.

• • •

Young Couple Wed in Salem

Miss Mary McCormick Ferguson and Fay Anson Grisley, both of Portland, were married last Saturday at noon in the First Christian church, Salem, with Reverend E. F. Leske of Portland reading the simple service.

Mrs. Grisley for the past five years has been director of the Portland Girl Scouts, and her wedding is of unusual interest to Salem and Portland people who are actively connected with the Girl Scout activities. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas James Ferguson of Mechanicsburg, Pa., and is a graduate of Penn hall and of Beaver college. Mr. Grisley attended Buchtel college and is now in business in Portland where the young couple will make their home.

• • •

Mrs. Wirth Honors Daughter

Friday afternoon Mrs. Ralph Wirth entertained at her home on McGilchrist street complimenting her daughter, Betty, on her 11th birthday. The afternoon hours were spent informally playing games in the garden and yard of the Wirth home. At the tea hour Mrs. Wirth presided at the prettily appointed table which was centered with a large bowl of yellow roses.

About 12 small guests called to honor Miss Betty.

• • •

Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes were hosts Friday night at their home on 23rd street complimenting the 21st birthday anniversary of their son, Lawrence. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock followed by an evening of informal entertainment.

Covers were placed for Laurence Yarnes, Claude Cook, Miss Eleanor Yarnes and Dr. and Mrs. Yarnes.

• • •

Independence—Miss Doris Grieg was united in marriage to Donald Barnum on the last day of June in Vancouver, Wash. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Barnum.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. F. W. Krieg of this city. Mr. Barnum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnum and has just arrived here from Washington, D. C., where he was stationed in radio work with the U. S. navy.

The groom will leave this week for San Francisco where he will sail for Guam. Mrs. Barnum will join her husband in a few months.

It Never Pays To Neglect YOUR EYES

It's the poorest possible economy to put off visiting your oculist — particularly when your eyes can be tested and glasses supplied for so little.

POMEROY & KEENE 379 STATE ST. SALEM

Miss Lillie Johnson Weds Ward Davis At Quiet Ceremony

A simple but charming wedding was that which united Miss Lillie Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Peter Johnson of Vancouver, Wn., to Ward R. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex W. Davis of Salem, at the home of the bride's mother in Vancouver this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Reverend Paul L. Kunzman of the Lutheran church read the impressive rites before an improvised altar of roses, gladiolus and mixed summer flowers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John W. Johnson, wore an informal afternoon frock of blue sheer crepe with white accessories. She carried a shower bouquet of cream roses and forget-me-nots. The honor attendants, Miss Bertha Staples and Mrs. Floyd K. Bowers of Vancouver, were gowned in similar frocks of heavy crepe in pastel shades.

Mr. Floyd K. Bowers acted as best man for Mr. Davis.

Folowing the ceremony a reception was held at the Johnson home. Presiding at the beautifully appointed tea table were Mrs. Frederick Staples of Vancouver and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers of Salem. They were assisted by Mrs. B. J. Ericksen, Mrs. Leslie Wise, Miss Dorothy Foley and Miss Margaret Mott.

Following a short trip the couple will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Oregon State college where she was a member of Delta Zeta sorority. Mr. Davis also is a graduate of Oregon State college and was affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Both are well known in Salem where they have a large circle of friends.

A large number of prominent Salem folk motored to Vancouver for the wedding.

• • •

The Hanson-Stevens clan will meet for its 41st annual reunion Sunday, July 16, at the state fairgrounds.

The arrangements for this yearly affair are always in charge of the children of Mrs. Rispa Ringo, a direct descendant of the Stevens family. Hosts for the day will be Mrs. B. F. Feiger of West Salem, Mrs. B. J. Ritchey of Hayesville, Mrs. C. N. McKey of Salem, Mrs. W. A. Bucher and Robert C. Ringo of Albany, and Jessie M. Ringo of Salem.

Several hundred people from all parts of the state will be in attendance.

A Nebraska picnic will be held tomorrow, July 9, at the country home of J. W. Gelham, Salem rural route, on Pudding river.

A pot-luck luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and special features of the afternoon will be an address by O. W. Emmons, numbers by the Haywire band and two special violin solos.

Nebraskans may find Mr. Gelham's home by driving east on the Penitentiary road four miles past the McGear track.

• • •

The monthly meeting of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. L. O. Clement, 345 North 17th street, with Mrs. O. H. Kent as hostess. Those assisting her are Mrs. Minerva Holcomb, Mrs. Leora Evans, Mrs. E. A. Lee, Mrs. E. Rinderman, Mrs. S. Probert and Mrs. S. Boardman.

• • •

Miss Florence Power, and Miss Jean White of Portland are making extensive plans for a month's trip to California the latter part of July. They will be guests of friends in Oakland, Berkley, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and La Jolla. While in southern California they plan to motor into Mexico.

• • •

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winston are back from Portland where they went to attend the wedding of Miss Cleste Freidman to Lee F. Temple of Pendleton where the couple will make their home.

The bride is a former teacher at Scotts Mills and lived in the Winston home while attending the Oregon Normal school.

• • •

Miss Vivian Carr, who has been a guest of friends in North Bend, has returned to Salem.

Social Activities Of Young Folk Gain Prominence

Exciting affairs being arranged for and by members of the younger contingent are appearing rapidly in increasing numbers and the month of July promises to be anything but dull, according to discussions heard here and there among prominent debutantes of the city. With the advent of really hot "summer weather" thoughts of the young folk seem to turn first to out-door affairs, and a group of popular Salem maids have made plans for a gay picnic and swimming party to be held at Hazel Green Sunday, with luncheon served at noon.

Those present will be Miss Esther Wood, Miss Margaret Engel, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Isobel George, Miss Bula Bailey, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Jean Eastridge, Miss Marie Patton, Miss Cleo Ritner, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Anita Wagner, Miss Dorotha Cannon, Miss Lorraine Kinzer, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Kay Headricks, Miss Barbara MacDonald, Miss Dot Corey, Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Helen Weidmer, Miss Ruth Hillman, Miss Mary Jane Adams, Miss Kathryn Myers, Miss Frances Jensen, Miss Maxine McKillop, Miss Jean Doolittle, Miss Frances Doolittle, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Frances Marie Kupper, Mrs. Hubert Ashby, Mrs. Charles Claggett, and Mrs. Robert Ramsden.

• • •

Miss Marie Ledbetter, a Willamette university student and a popular member of the younger set, has returned to her home in La Grande for the summer season to be with her father, W. R. Ledbetter. The latter part of June, Miss Ledbetter motored to San Mateo in the company of a group of sorority sisters who were attendants at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Atkinson. Prior to her departure for La Grande she was houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ledbetter (Grace White) of Portland.

Mrs. H. R. White Compliments Visitor

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. H. R. White entertained at her home on South 23rd street in honor of Mrs. A. W. Marker and son, Gordon, of Corvallis, who are guests of Mrs. White. The afternoon was spent informally with the hostess serving tea assisted by Mrs. Ray Metcalf.

Those who called were Mrs. E. A. Brown, Mrs. G. W. Day, Mrs. John Foley, Mrs. B. Earle Parker, Mrs. J. D. White and daughters, Grace and Barbara, Mrs. Ray Metcalf of Los Angeles and Mrs. C. Mundinger.

• • •

Clear Lake—The Ladies' Improvement club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Stolk Wednesday to finish her quilt which was started last week. A business meeting was held with Mrs. Stolk presiding, at which time it was decided to hold the annual picnic at Silverton park August 6. Also that the club should furnish ice cream. Those on the ice cream committee are Mrs. Cecil Boyd and Mrs. Orall Garner and on the refreshment committee are Mrs. John Barr and Mrs. Arthur Baker. Each member is asked to provide table service for their own families. Lunch was served with a cake baked in honor of Mrs. Orall Garner's birthday anniversary. She was unable to attend.

Those present were Mesdames Stolk, Arthur Baker, Petzel, James O'Neil, Sherman, Amos Smith, John Barr, Roy Smith, Dunn, Misses Pearl Baker, and Rose Marie Sherman.

New "Times" With A New Deal For You!

$18.50

American Tissue Tint Hecolite with Gold Pin Teeth

Silver Filling 50c, $1.00
Porcelain Filling $1.50
Plate Repair $1.50
Reline Plate $4.00
Clean Teeth $1.00
Other Plates .....$7.00 - $25

Daylite Sleep ABSOLUTELY MINIMIZES DENTAL PAIN EXTRACTIONS Each 50c

Dr. C. C. HIGGINS

Over J. C. Penney's Store Telephone 6834

Carolina Beauty

The most beautiful girl among the graduates this year at the University of North Carolina is Sara Walser, petite blond of Lexington, N. C., according to a vote taken by her classmates. (Associated Press Photo)

Prominent Salem Girl Featured

Word has been received in Salem that Miss Joyce Chambers, daughter of Mildred Boyt Chambers, was prominently featured in an acrobatic act in a Fanchon and Marco production which opened at the Paramount theater in Los Angeles June 29.

Little Miss Chambers left here in January for Los Angeles and for the past few months has been studying at the Fanchon and Marco school. While appearing in an amateur performance at the Rampart theater in Los Angeles, she was picked from a large group by Fanchon and Marco to appear in their production as a featured dancer. She is fifteen years of age and has just graduated from Junior high school.

Miss Chambers is a former pupil of Miss Barbara Barnes with whom she studied for four years. Before her departure for California she studied for three months with Miss Phyllis Grant.

The little girl was a popular young dancer in Salem and will be remembered by a large number of Salem Folk.

• • •

Sunday evening Mrs. Clifford Brown will entertain friends at an informal buffet supper in compliment to M. and Mme. Hubert-Robert at her home on Mission street.

Later in the evening moving picture slides of Morocco and Old Paris taken by M. Hubert-Robert will be shown to the group.

• • •

Salem Hostess Honors Guest

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall was a delightful hostess at an informal luncheon Monday afternoon at her home on Wallace Road, complimenting Mrs. B. A. Cathey of Portland. The rooms were attractively decorated with garden flowers of pastel hues and the luncheon table was centered with a bouquet of African daisies and ocean spray arranged in a large silver bowl.

Guests were Mrs. B. A. Cathey, Mrs. Minnie Poorman and son and Mrs. W. F. Poorman, all of Portland.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Bostrack, who were recent visitors in Vancouver, B. C., were registered at the Hotel Georgia.

Miss Margaret Lewis Married Friday To Willis Hathaway

Of great interest to the University set is the marriage of Miss Margaret Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis of Portland, to Willis Hathaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hathaway of Washougal, Wash. The wedding was a quiet but impressive one performed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Rose City park with Dr. Carl Gregg Doney of Salem and Dr. Donald MacCluer of the Rose City Presbyterian church reading the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in a simple afternoon frock of shell pink and carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Betty Lewis, wore a gown of lavender georgette and carried a bouquet of lavender and pink sweet peas.

Mr. Leslie Frewing of Amity was best man for Mr. Hathaway.

Following the wedding an informal reception was held in the gardens of the Lewis home with the briday party greeting about 50 intimate friends and relatives.

Mrs. Hathaway attended Willamette university and was prominent in musical circles of the city. Following her graduation she taught for several years in the Mary Farnham Mission school in Shanghai and was there with her sister, Miss Betty Lewis. The two girls returned home last October by way of the Mediterranean and across Europe. Mr. Hathaway has been on the faculty of the high school in Ketchikan, Alaska, for the past several years.

The young couple sailed last night for Shanghai where they will make their home.

• • •

S. L. Girls Install Officers

The S. L. Girls were entertained at the home of Mrs. George Naderman, Thursday at an informal evening following the installation of officers and initiation services. The rooms of the Naderman home were attractively decorated with summer flowers and the fireplace was banked with pink and yellow roses combined with green fern. Supper was served at a late hour by the hostess.

Officers installed were Mrs. Chester Lanktree, Mrs. Archie Wars, Miss Sibyl White, Miss Helen McElroy and Mrs. George Beaty. Members present were Mrs. George Naderman, Mrs. Glen Harbaugh, Mrs. William Hesselman, Mrs. Chester Lanktree, Mrs. Archie Wars, Mrs. Mrs. George Beaty, Miss Maida Caldwell, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Helen McElroy, Miss Hazel McElroy, Miss Sibyl White, Miss Dena Hart, Miss Opal Desner and Miss Dean Cladek.

• • •

Salem Zonta Club Has Dinner

The Salem Zonta club held its "Treasury" dinner at the home of Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce Thursday evening. Miss Lena Belle Tartar gave a report of the Zonta International conference held in Chicago and also told of her experience at the Century of Progress exposition.

Those present were Miss Hazel Cook, Miss Alene Phillips, Miss Barbara Barnes, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Mrs. Belle Niles Brown, Dr. Helen Pearce, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallahar, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Helen Yockey, Mrs. Mabel Brownell, Mrs. La Verne Winkler, Miss Dorothy Pearce and Mrs. Ora P. McIntyre.

There will be a board meeting July 11 at the Pearce home and on July 27 the group will go to Camp Santaly for a dinner and informal evening of swimming and entertainment.

• • •

Miss Frances Martin and Miss Helen Darby returned Thursday from Newport where they had been the guests of friends.

• • •

Mrs. Joseph Niemeyer and son, James Joseph, of Seattle, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cornoyer.

• • •

Marion—Mrs. Marian Stafford and young son Douglas who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Barber, have returned to her home in Salem.

• • •

Miss Betty Lou Burdette and Miss Margaret Anne Bligh have returned from Portland where they were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burdette.

Colorado Beauty

Lillian Walberg, Colorado college sophomore, who was adjudged winner of the school's annual beauty contest, is smart, too—for she leads her class in scholastic standing for the year. (Associated Press Photo)

Miss Davis Honored At Bridge Party

In compliment to Miss Thelma Davis, who has just returned from a winter spent in Philadelphia, Pa., Miss Rosalind Van Winkle was hostess this afternoon at an informal afternoon of bridge, at her home on North 17th street.

The guest rooms were attractively decorated with a profusion of roses and vari-colored summer flowers with pastel shades carried out as the color scheme in the table appointments.

Guests bidden to greet Miss Davis were Mrs. Clarence Emmons, Miss Gaynelle Beckett, Miss Mary Cupper, Miss Minnie Shrode, Miss Billy Cupper, Miss Florence Power, Miss Jennie Delzell and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding.

STARTS SUNDAY

A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD

Used Furniture READ WANT ADS

MEMBER United States National Group

Lending Money is a part of good banking

If you have need for a loan and that loan is justified from a standpoint of good banking, you will never find us hesitant about making it. And we can point back to the period of darkest depression with satisfaction that this same policy held good then as now.

UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK

SALEM, OREGON

"The Bank that Service Built"