SOCIETY

Edited by Rovena Eyre, Phone 4882

Miss Margaret Engel Guest Of Honor At Formal Reception

Complimenting Miss Margaret Engel, popular member of Salem's younger set who will leave Monday to reside in Portland, a group of debutantes received at a formal reception in the home of the Misses Frances and Jean Doolittle on Rural avenue Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The guests were greeted at the door by the Misses Doolittle. Miss Frances Martin introduced to the line which included the honored guest, Miss Margaret Engel, and Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Cynthia Delano, and Miss Frances Sande

Floating about the drawing room were the assisting hostesses including Mrs. Charles Claggett, Mrs. Robert Ramsden, Mrs. Hubert Ashby, Miss Isobel George, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Frances Marie Kupper, Miss Dorotha Cannon, Miss Bula Bailey, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Viola Crozer, Miss Jean Eastridge, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Cathrin Headrick, Miss Barbara MacDonald, Miss Helen Weidmer, Miss Maxine McKillop, Miss Mary Jane Adams, Miss Ruth Hillman, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Kathryn Meyers and Miss Frances Jensen.

The serving table was centered with a striking epergne holding a colorful bouquet of summer flowers in the blue and rose tints. Tall lighted blue tapers in silver candelabra shed their light over the arrangement. Presiding at the urns were Miss Marie Patton and Miss Lorraine Kinzer.

A bevy of young maids assisting in serving were Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Cleo Ritner, Miss Anita Wagner and Miss Dorotha Corey.

Guests bidden to say goodbye to Miss Engel were Miss Mary Gould Parsons of Eugene, Miss Beulah Weddle of Stayton, Miss Gertrude Hanger of Walla Walla, Miss Margaret Downey of Fresno, Calif., Mrs. George Elmer Emigh, Jr., of Portland, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Roby Laughlin, Miss Myra Belt, Miss Kate Corey, Miss Henriette White, Miss Margaret Heltzel, Miss Bunny Miller, Miss Harriette Beall, Miss Jean Wilson, Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Iris Jorgensen, Miss Kay Laughrige, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Louise Cook, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Peggy Goodfellow, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Wilma Giese, Miss Kreta Janz, Miss Virginia Bright, Miss Yvonne Smith, Miss Evelyne Ross, Miss Betty Mae Hartung, Miss Helen Engel, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Fern Harris, Miss Velma May, Miss Wilma Wirtz, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Joyce Anderson and Miss Rovena Eyre.

• • •

Mrs. Frank Shafer entertained informally at tea in her country home Saturday afternoon in compliment to a small group of young matrons and maids.

• • •

Dr and Mrs. Jerald Backstrand are receiving felicitations upon the birth of a son at the Salem General hospital on Thursday, August 3. The young man has an older sister, Sarah Jane.

• • •

Visiting Maid Feted Friday

Miss Kay Laughrige invited a group of prominent young maids and matrons in for bridge Friday afternoon and to meet her houseguest, Miss Mary Gould Parsons of Eugene. Contract was in play at three tables with a guest prize going to Miss Parsons and high score honors to Miss Zora Farnsworth. Tea was served informally in the late afternoon.

Those bidden to greet Miss Parsons were Miss Jean Wilson, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Kate Corey, Miss Myra Belt, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Margaret Wagner, Mrs. Charles Claggett, Mrs. Robert Ramsden, Mrs. Garlen Simpson and the hostess, Miss Kay Laughrige.

• • •

Girl Scouts Have New Members

St. Paul's Episcopal Girl Scouts, Troop No. 1, announce as new members Miss Betty Burdette, Miss Maxine Gahlsdorf, Miss Frances Paris, Miss Jane Clearwater and Miss Geneva Selander.

The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Alice Fisher, Girl Scout captain, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for instruction in first aid.

• • •

Miss Beulah Cross Complimented

Silverton — Miss Beulah Cross, bride-elect, was the inspiration of a linen shower given by the senior members of the Christian church choir in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. The program was informal and consisted of group singing with Mrs. L. R. Neal at the organ. Mrs. Mary Kleeman gave a comic reading. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Essie Cross, were served by Mrs. Essie Specht, Mrs. L. Sawyer, Mrs. L. R. Neal and Mrs. Mac Hauck.

Others present were Mrs. C. W. Cross, Mrs. Allie Cross, Crita Cross, Mrs. Anna Powell, Mrs. J. W. Jordan, Mrs James Neal, Dorene Davis, Mrs. Emil Oder, Mrs. Merlin Prather, Mrs. Dan Geiser, Mrs. Frank Rahn, Mrs. S. A. Gay, Miss Rita Rahn, Mrs. Ella Brookler and Mrs. Maude Dickman.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moses returned early in the week from a several days' stay at Delake and Nehcolt.

• • •

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller of Salem visited Wednesday at the G. T. Johnston home.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hartley will entertain informally at dinner at their country place near Independence this evening for a group of Salem friends. Covers will be placed

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Neiger and daughter Helen attended a birthday dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Heyden of Salem in honor of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Heyden. Other guests for the day included Mr. and Mrs. Nick Casper and daughters and son, Clarissa, Dorothy and John; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Furher andson, Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heyden, Miss Gertrude Heyden, the honor guest, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Heyden.

• • •

Salem friends of Mrs. Murray Warner and Miss Mabel Klocker, both of Eugene, will be interested to know that they are registered at the Roosevelt hotel in New York City. They will be leaving soon with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bass Warner for an extended trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis and Miss Thelma Davis left Thursday for San Anselmo, Calif., where they will spend the month of August. Miss Davis will leave for New Orleans and go from there to New York by boat. She will study voice while in the east.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kitzmiller have returned from an extended motor trip in the east, where they visited Mr. Kitzmiller's former home in Harrisburg, Pa., New York City and the world's fair at Chicago. They will spend the remainder of the summer in Dallas with the Carl Gerlingers.

• • •

Hopmere—Mrs. A. Benham celebrated her 64th birthday anniversary at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. W. J. Mariarty of Nebraska avenue, Salem, with a few intimate friends present. Mrs. Benham has been a resident of Hopmere for several months.

Miss Sibyl White To Wed A. L. Redfern Saturday, August 12

A charmingly simple wedding will be solemnized by candlelight in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Sibyl White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. White, will become the bride of A. Leon Redfern of Eugene, son of Mrs. M. C. Redfern of Salem. Rev. George H. Swift will read the impressive service in the presence of the two immediate families and friends, many from out-of-town. There will be no attendants.

Donald Allison will play the wedding marches and will continue to play softly during the ceremony.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow immediately with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. White and Mrs. M. C. Redfern receiving with the bridal couple. Mrs. S. D. Emery will preside at the serving table and Miss Beryl Hulsey will assist in the serving.

Following a motor trip in the north the couple will be at home in Eugene, where Mr. Redfern is in business.

Both Miss White and her fiance attended Salem schools and are well known to the younger set. Many delightfully informal affairs have feted the bride-elect since the announcement of her betrothal several weeks ago and a galaxy of informal affairs are being planned in her compliment for the coming week.

• • •

Portland Debutante To Wed R. F. Luce

Of interest to Salem's younger set is the announcement of the date for the marriage of Miss Katrine Dukehart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Dukehart of Portland, to Raymond Frederick Luce of San Francisco, which was told to the group of friends who called Tuesday at the small tea for which Miss Jean Gerlinger was hostess in Portland at the penthouse apartments of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, at the Envoy. The wedding will be an event of September 9 in the garden at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock.

Miss Anne Kistner will be the maid of honor, Miss Jean Wight and Miss Erma Luce, sister of the bridegroom, will be bridesmaids, and Jack Plant of San Francisco will act as best man for Mr. Luce.

In honor of the bride-elect and of Miss Jean Gerlinger, whose betrothal to Robert C. Kirkwood Jr., of Palo Alto, Calif., recently was announced, Mrs. George Archibald Kingsley and Miss Ruth Powers will entertain with a tea at the home of the former in Portland, next Friday afternoon, August 11.

• • •

Shower Honors Mrs. Charles Breeden

Suver—A miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. Charles Breeden at the Woodman hall Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Breeden was Miss Elnora Purvine before her recent marriage. Mrs. Breeden received many beautiful gifts. At a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Stephen Benedict, Mrs. Ralph Kester, Mrs. Otto Hilke, Mrs. O J. Bagley, Mrs. Henry Lamb, Mrs. M. I. Conger, Mrs. Edwin Larsen, Mrs. Laura Hurd, Mrs. Jay Thomas, Mrs. Wesley Kester, Mrs. Mildred Belding, Mrs. E. G. Harris, Mrs. Jack Countryman, Mrs. E. B. Gobet, Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Mrs Dane Purvine, Miss Ruth McCuistion, Miss Veta Lamb, Miss Ruth Harris, Miss Verle Harris, Florence Conger, Yvonne Kerr, Marion and Emma Lou Kester, Agnes Lamb, Beth Purvine and the honored guest, Mrs. Breeden, all of Suver; Mrs. Benedict of Albany, Mrs. Grant Byers and Miss Helen Byers of Independence, Ms. Earl Conkey of Monmouth and Mrs. J. C. Purvine of Buena Vista.

• • •

Laurel Club Plans Picnic

Kingwood—Members of the Laurel Social Hour club met with Mrs. Bernard Benson, hostess in the Adams' grove. Committees named to look after a picnic August 11 include: food, Mrs. A. E. Sharp, Mrs. C. J. Jackson, Mrs. E. W. Emmett and Mrs. H. A. Cross; entertainment, Mrs. Karl P. Mobley, chairman to choose other members and reception committee, Mrs. A. L. Applewhite and Mrs. G. Elmer Vosburgh.

After a pleasant informal afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mrs. G. L. Adams.

Present for the meeting were Mesdames John A. Yantiss, Eugene Krebs, C. J. Jackson, E. W Emmett, Glenn L. Adams, H. A. Cross, Robert A. Blevins, G. E. Vosburgh, Warren B. Baker, Avery L Applewhite, Raymond Compton, Karl P. Mobley, Bernard Benson and a group of children.

Miss Edith Starrett Reveals Nuptial Date

Miss Edith Starrett, daughter of Mrs. J. V. Starrett, announced her engagement to Arthur N. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Green of Portland, and the date of her approaching marriage as Saturday, August 19, at a charmingly arranged affair given in her home Wednesday evening. The wedding will be held at the Starrett residence on North Winter street.

Miss Starrett was prominent in forensics at Salem high school and in her junior year was selected as the representative Oregon high school girl and was sent to the world's fair at Philadelphia as such. She was also a member of the Salem high school debate team which went to Salem, Mass. She attended the University of De Moines for one year and Willamette university, where she was a member of Delta Phi sorority. She later graduated from the Oregon State Normal school. Mr. Green is a former student of the University of Oregon and will complete his work at the Normal school next year.

Guests bidden for the affair were the Misses Edith May Jenks, Lola Schulz, Lou Fruit, Irene Greenbaum, Frances Graham, Mabel Dotson, Jean McElhinney, Marion Bretz, Helen Fletcher, Irene De Lisle, Bernice Zielke, Jo Jantzen, Mrs. E. P. Green, Mrs. Lillian Barnes, Misses Helen and Lucille Green and Mrs. Vera Coy, of Portland; Miss Kathleen Garrison of Woodburn; Mrs. Ralph Eggstaff, Mrs. Ruth Lear, Mrs. Leslie White, Mrs. H. Cray Egelston, and Mrs. D. D. Dotson.

• • •

Sydney Kromers Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Kromer entertained informally at dinner Monday evening in compliment to Norborne Berkeley of Santa Barbara, Calif., who was their houseguest early in the week.

Those bidden for the affair were Miss Jane O'Reilly of Portland, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Ruth Schenk of Springfield, Mass., Mr. Berkeley, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Kromer.

Mr. Berkeley was at one time on the Salem high school faculty. Since that time he has taken graduate work at Harvard and is now a member of the Midland Ranch school at Santa Barbara. He left Wednesday for Pendleton, where he will spend the remainder of the summer with his mother.

• • •

Charles McNarys To Arrive Monday

Friends of Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary are pleased to learn that they will arrive Monday from Washington, D. C., to take up their residence at their country place, Pircone. They visited the World's fair in Chicago enroute west.

Several informal affairs are being arranged to welcome them home.

• • •

Alpha Phi Alpha Maids Entertained

Miss Josephine Anderson entertained informally in her home early in the week in compliment to the members of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority who are spending the summer season in town. The evening was spent informally and at a late hour Miss Gertrude Roenickle assisted Miss Anderson in serving a prettily appointed supper.

Those enjoying the evening affair were Miss Eleanor Barth, Miss Helen Breithaupt, Miss Anna Calaba, Mrs. Grace De Harport, Mrs. Maxine Cushing, Miss Mildred Drorbaugh, Miss Dorothy Eastridge, Miss Velleda Ohmart, Miss Gertrude Roenicke, Miss Rosetta Smith, Miss Roberta Varley, Miss Mary White, Miss Loretta Varley, Miss Muriel White, Miss Eleanor Yarnes, Miss Irma Wells and Miss Josephine Anderson.

• • •

An interesting musical event of the past week was the recital presented by a group of young violinists at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Scott Monday evening. The young artists showed great development in technique and pure artistry and poise.

The Spohr Concerto No. 8 played by Jeannette Scott and the Sarasate Ziegeunerweisen played by Mary Talmadge Headrick were done with splendid musicianship.

HARRY WOODRING AND BRIDE

Harry H. Woodring, assistant secretary of war and former governor of Kansas, and his bride, the former Helen Coolidge, daughter of senator and Mrs. Marcus A. Coolidge, are shown after their wedding at the Coolidge home in Fitchburg, Mass. They sailed from New York for a honeymoon in Europe. (Associated Press Photo)

Tennis Court Dance Au Revoir Courtesy For Popular Maids

Capital city beaux and belles were entertained at one of the most beautiful affairs of the summer season Tuesday evening when a group of the deb set were hostesses at a sports dance given on the tennis courts at the home of Miss Edith Morehouse. The affair was given in honor of Miss Betty Vaughan, who will leave in the near future to make her home in San Francisco, Miss Dorothy Blaisdell, who will depart in the early fall to take up her residence in the east, and for Miss Helen Engel, who leaves Monday to reside in Portland. The three debs have been exceptionally active in the affairs of the younger set and the dance Tuesday night was only one of a series of au revoir tributes given in their compliment.

Wicker furniture, soft colored lights and a profusion of flowers made a charming setting for the debs in light summer frocks and their escorts in white linen suits—and flannels. The orchestra was arranged in the middle of the court.

Debs bidden for the affair were the honor guests, Miss Vaughan, Miss Blaisdell and Miss Engel, and Miss Margaret Downey of Fresno, Calif., Miss Velma May, Miss Angela Meyers, Miss Harriett Beall, Miss Dorothy Dahlberg, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Bonnie Baldock, Miss Bernice Croner, Miss Margaret Hauser, Miss Hoddy Wirtz, Miss Barbara Porter, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Margaret Bell, Miss Marie Stutesman, Miss Zoe Daniels, Miss Ellen Hughey, Miss Rosemary Sawyer, Miss Ruth Sawyer, Miss Betty Mae Hartung, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Dorothy McCloud, Miss Alice George, Miss Doris McCallister, Miss Fern Harris, Miss Valera Amort, Miss Frances Parks, Miss Jeanette Parks, Miss Louise Cramer and Miss Edith Morehouse.

Escorts included Art Clement, Gordon Whittington, Sam Harbison, John Hughes, Jim Burrell, Virgil Harrison, Perry Andrews, Bob Cannon, Erven Kloostra, Ike Wintermute, Ellis Harris, Ed Frand, Mickey Vale, Lorce Blaisdell, Frank Cross, Sam Earle, Bob Burdette, Pete Buren, Pete Dyer, Melvin Engel, Billy Wirtz, Ronald Hudkins, Robert Eyre, Billy Burrell, Louis Satchler, John Bone and Jimmy Emmett.

• • •

Visiting Maids Complimented

Miss Julia Johnson entertained with a beautifully arranged garden party Monday evening in compliment to two young maids, Miss Rosemond Weston of Grants Pass, Miss Johnson's houseguest, and Miss Melvabelle Savage of Stockton, Cal., who is spending the summer season with her aunt, Mrs. Cal Patton.

Guests for the affair were Miss Savage and Miss Weston, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Martha Sprague, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Dale Powers, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Margaret Doege, and the hostess, Miss Julia Johnson.

Miss Martha Sprague entertained informally at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Tuesday evening in compliment to the popular visitors. Her guests were Miss Weston and Miss Savage, Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Jean McElhinney, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Edna Savage, Miss Frances Ellis, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Dorothy Keeton, Miss Helen White, and the hostess, Miss Martha Sprague.

Mrs. Charles Claggett (Maxine Myers) complimented the visitors with a smartly arranged luncheon early in the week in her apartments at the Olympic.

• • •

The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. C. E. Siegmund will be in charge of the tea hour and assisting her will be Mrs. Bert Hulst, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. B. F. Schmoker, Mrs. G. H. Wilbur and Mrs. W. A. Burns.

• • •

The engagement of Miss Katherine Galbraith to Stanley E. Snell was announced this week in Portland. Both are well known in the university set. Miss Galbraith and her fiance are both former students on the University of Oregon campus, the bride-elect being a member of Delta Gamma sorority and Mr. Snell of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

• • •

The Pennsylvania picnic will be held at the Independence city park Sunday. All former Pennsylvania residents are requested to attend.

• • •

Miss Charlotte Zieber of Portland arrived in the city Saturday to be the week-end guest of her aunt, Miss Sally Bush.

Announcements are being received telling of the marriage of Miss Bertha Waldorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Waldorf of Salem, and Vern Elwell of Portland, which was solemnized in that city last Saturday, July 29. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home at 6203 S. E. 18th avenue, Portland. Mrs. Elwell formerly made her home in Salem and Eugene, moving to Portland several years ago.

• • •

The Rhoten clan will hold its annual picnic tomorrow at Windland Grove. A basket dinner will be served at noon and several hours of sports and games will follow.

• • •

Mrs. F. L. Waters will have as her house-guest during the coming fortnight Mrs. Ada L. Austin of Greenfield, Mass. Mrs. Austin is a graduate of Boston Art school and well-known in art circles of the east.

Smart Affair Fetes Miss Helen Worth

Mrs. H. R. Worth invited a group of the younger set to an interesting affair Wednesday evening in compliment to her daughter, Miss Helen Worth. The evening was spent with bridge and at a late hour supper was served by the hostess.

Those bidden for the smart affair were Miss Helen Worth, the guest of honor, Miss Emlyn Griggs Miss Cleo Ritner, Miss Rosemary Sawyer, Miss Iris Jorgensen, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Betty Read and Miss Marjorie Kissling.

• • •

Miss Minetta Magers Sponsors Musicale

Miss Eleanor Moore was guest artist at a musicale in Portland Friday when Miss Minetta Magers presented eight students and the Nevins chorus in a program at the Portland hotel auditorium. Miss Moore studied in Chicago last season, earning two scholarships and the distinction of singing with the accompaniment of the Symphony orchestra at Thomas Orchestra Hall. At that time she sang "Depuis le Jour" from the opera, "Louise."

An audience of 200 greeted Miss Moore's Portland appearance Friday. Among those attending from Salem were Mrs. Cora Reed, whose daughter, Rita Reed Bagley, appeared on the program in solos and as a member of the Nevins.

Miss Magers is a former Salem resident and exceptionally active in state-wide music circles.

• • •

Judge and Mrs. George Rossman left Saturday for an interesting trip in the east. They will visit the World's fair at Chicago and several days will be spent in New York and Washington, D. C. They will spend several weeks at St. Simon's isle, off the coast of Georgia. Judge Rossman will attend the meeting of the American Bar association at Grand Rapids, Mich., with Mrs. Rossman returning home by way of New Orleans.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Stratton have as their guests Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Rolleng of Calexico, Calif.

Delta Phi Maids To Give Sunday Tea At Home Of Patroness

The Delta Phi sorority maids will be hostesses at a beautifully arranged tea Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the gardens at the home of Mrs. Homer Smith, Sr., on North Summer street. Miss Betty-Mae Hartung will greet the guests at the entrance of the lovely formal gardens and Miss Gwendolyn Hunt will introduce to the receiving line. Standing in line will be Miss Naomi Hewitt of Independence, president of Delta Phi, Mrs. Homer Smith, Sr., patroness of the sorority, Mrs. Lillian R. Hagman, housemother, and Miss Mildred Miller.

Little Miss Suzanne Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brazier Small, will present old-fashioned nosegays to the guests. Miss Edith Findley and Miss Jeannette Scott will present marimba and violin solos for the pleasure of the guests.

The long tea table will be covered with a handsome lace cloth and graced with a striking bowl of mixed flowers in a galaxy of colors. Mrs. Hal Patton and Mrs. W. T. Jenks, both patronesses of Delta Phi, will preside.

Assisting the first hour will be Mrs. Oscar White, Miss Viola Crozer and Miss Bertha Babcock. Miss Pauline Findley, Miss Marion Bretz and Miss Gertrude Oehler will assist during the second hour.

Hostesses for the affair will be Miss Naomi Hewitt and Miss Marjorie Wonder, both of Independence, Miss Dorothy Durkee of Battleground, Wash., Miss Pauline Livesay and Miss Alvis Love, both of Woodburn, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Beulah Cramer, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Theresa Ulrich, Miss Esther Black, Miss Alice Speck, Miss Velma May, Miss Janet Weil, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Gwendolyn Hunt, Miss Doris Unruh, Miss Betty Martin, Miss Evelyn Shields, Miss Brenda Savage, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Gladys Hanson, Miss Pauline Findley, Miss Edith Findley, Miss Viola Crozer, Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Marion Bretz, Miss Peggy Haight, Miss Cynthia Delano and Mrs. Oscar White.

• • •

Unruh-Ruge Nuptials Said

Miss Mabel Ruge, daughter of Charles Ruge of West Salem, became the bride of Charles Unruh, son of Jacob Unruh, at a charmingly simple ceremony performed in the parsonage of the Court Street Christian church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Hugh N. McCallum read the service before the immediate families and friends of the couple. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a smartly tailored ensemble of brown wool with brown accessories and a corsage of roses.

Following a wedding trip to Canada and to Yellowstone National park Mr. and Mrs. Unruh will be at home at 1243 Edgewater street, West Salem.

Mrs. Unruh has been the assistant of Dr. D. X. Beechler for several years and Mr. Unruh is connected with the state printing department.

• • •

State Auxiliary To Meet August 10

The American Legion auxiliary state convention will be held in Klamath Falls this year August 10, 11 and 12, with many elaborate plans being made by the residents of that city for the entertainment of out-of-town delegates and visitors.

The auxiliary convention proper will be held in the Fremont school, with Mrs. Alice George of Eugene, department president, presiding. The opening ceremonies will be held at the Pelican theater at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, August 10, with the general public invited to attend. At this time Mayor Mahoney will give an address of welcome and Frank E. Samuels of Indianapolis, national adjutant of the American Legion, will speak informally. The Salem trio, national champions, will sing and other interesting musical events are being planned.

At 7:30 that evening the music contests will be held at the Fremont school. At this time the state champions will be decided of glee clubs and trios.

On Thursday evening at 9 o'clock the grand convention parade will be held. Stunts from the different auxiliaries will be given at the Pelican theater that same evening at 11 o'clock.

Friday evening there will be dancing following the judging of the drum corps. It is of interest to know that Oregon now has the national champion drum corps, the national champion auxiliary glee club, the national champion auxiliary trio and the national champion drum major.

• • •

Recent Nuptials Announced

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Genther were visitors in Monmouth this week while enroute on a 10 days jaunt to Vancouver, B. C. While here they announced their marriage which took place recently at Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Genther was formerly Miss Mary McGuire of Scio. Genther was graduated from the Oregon Normal this past year. He has been elected to the school at Halsey for the coming year.

• • •

Mill City—Mrs. Lee Morris (Doris Grimes) was the honored guest at a surprise bridal shower given by the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church on the lawn of the C. L. Atwood home Friday evening. Mrs. Morris, who was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grimes, on June 30, was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Refreshments were served to about 40 friends of the bride.

• • •

The Wallowa-Willamette association will meet at the Benton-Lane park, two miles north of Monroe, Sunday for a picnic. All former Wallowa county residents are urged to attend.

• • •

Bethel — Mrs. Frank Halik has had as her house guest for the past week Mrs. Grace Crater of Seattle, formerly of Salem. Mrs. Crater is now visiting in Portland en route to her home.

• • •

Zena—Mr and Mrs. W. D. Henry who spent several days at Rockaway as part of a group which included Dr. and Mrs. D. X. Beechler and daughter, Vera, of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gabriel returned home early this week.

Social Contingent Attends Garden Party Given By Auxiliary

The benefit garden party given by the American Legion auxiliary in the rambling gardens of the home of Mrs. Clifford Brown Thursday afternoon was perhaps the most brilliant event of the summer season for members of Salem's feminine contingent. Receiving about the gardens were Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Walter Zosel, Mrs. D. Bowe, Mrs. Robert Wyatt, Mrs. King Bartlett and active members and past presidents of the auxiliary. Bridge was in play at many tables arranged on the tennis courts High score honors for contract went to Mrs. Roy Hurst and Mrs. Frank Prime took honors for auction. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith was awarded the special prize of the afternoon.

An interesting feature of the benefit was the quilt exhibit, arranged in the sunroom of the Brown residence, which was sponsored by the American War Mothers and in charge of Mrs. Lizbeth Waters and her committee. Forty-five quilts were on display.

The beautifully appointed tea table was covered with sky blue organdy over a filet lace cloth. Two urns filled with pink and blue hydrangea flanked and exquisite Dresden bowl of mid-summer blooms in delicate pastel tones.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Lizbeth Waters, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, and Mrs. Jack Eakin of Dallas. A group of the sub-deb set including Miss Emlyn Griggs, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Helen White, Miss Shirley Cronemiller, Miss Ruth Jean Garnjobst, Miss Jean Bartlett, Miss Charlotte Hill and Miss Flavia Downs assisted in serving.

Among those glimpsed during the afternoon were Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Evelyn Haag, Miss Jennie Delzell, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Reuben Boise, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. George Manning, Mrs H. R. Woodburn, Mrs. C. W. Sawyer, Mrs. Hal Wiley, Mrs. Edwin Viesko, Mrs. L. B. Endicott, Mrs. Frank Bowersox, Mrs. Dan Kellaher, Mrs. William E. Moses, Mrs. R. Meyer, Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. John Beakey, Mrs. V. P. McNamara, Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mrs. Howard Hulsey, Mrs. William Mott, Mrs. Herbert Thomas, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mrs Keith Powell, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mrs. B. Owens, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mrs. Lynn Lambeth, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. John Hunter of Long Beach, Calif., Mrs Lyle Bartholmew, Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Charles McElhinney, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. Walter Goughnour, Mrs. Henry Fournier, Mrs. Carl Hultenburg, Mrs. Jean Manning, Mrs. E. R. Austin, Mrs. Clara Johnson, Mrs. M. N. Briggs, Mrs. Ray Binegar, Mrs Douglas Minto, Mrs. R. W. Craig, Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. T. L. Kuhns, Mrs. J. L. Sears, Mrs. George Grabenhorst, Mrs. P. Traglio, Mrs. E. G. Clark, Mrs. H. Wechter, Mrs. Ed Gabriel, Mrs M. E. Canfield, Mrs. William P. Ellis, Mrs. J. C. Pease, Mrs. Robert Menzies, Mrs. Charles Du Bois, Mrs. William H. Rush, Mrs. E. Wetzel, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. T. A. McBride, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. George Belt, Mrs. Albert E. Ullman, Mrs. G. W. Shaffner, Mrs. Susan Varty, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. A. H. Moore, Mrs. P. G. Varley, Mrs. Kittie Graver, Mrs. Rose W. Babcock, Mrs George Nelson, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. Roy Simmons, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. W. H. Darby, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. James Young, Mrs. William Poorman, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. W. A. Delzell, Mrs Gurnee Fiesher, Mrs. Nota Henderson, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. Langdon Rand, Mrs. Christopher Butte, Mrs. Elbert Bradford and Mrs. Frank Prime.

• • •

Luncheon Honors New York Matron

Mrs. Frederick S. Lamport presided at a smartly appointed luncheon in her home in Ben Lomand park Thursday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. C. W. Shantz of New York City, who is spending the summer season as the houseguest of the Dan McClellans. Two tables of contract followed the luncheon hour.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Shantz, the guest of honor, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Mrs. Linn C. Smith, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. V. R. Griggs, Mrs. Dan McLellan and the hostess, Mrs. Frederick S. Lamport.

• • •

Miss Waters Studies With German Dancer

Salem friends of Miss Elizabeth Waters, daughter of Mrs. F. L. Waters, will be interested to hear that she is spending the summer season in New York City, where she is studying with Hani Haeghne, German dancer. Following her work there she will go on a cruise to Panama, returning to Boston in the early fall, where she is with the Winslow Studio of the Dance.

• • •

A group of the debutante set will entertain with a charminly arranged supper party at the home of Miss Emlyn Griggs on South High street Monday evening. Sixteen guests have been bidden to attend.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lane will leave Sunday by motor for Nebraska, where they will spend a month visiting with relatives and friends.

• • •

Tommy Livesley entertained informally in the T. A. Livesley residence on Fairmount hill Tuesday evening in compliment to a group of the younger contingent.

• • •

The Northwest Convention of Writers will be held at the Multnomah hotel in Portland August 7 to 11 and several Salem folk plan to attend. Among the speakers included on the program are Anne Shannon Monroe, Eleanor T. MacMillan, B. F. Irvine, Dean Collins, Sabra Conner, Alexander Hull, Ethel Romig Fuller and Richard G Montgomery.

• • •

Mrs. Thomas Holman, Miss Cora Litchfield and Miss Grace Elizabeth Helman plan to leave Monday for Newport.

• • •

Suver—Mrs. Harry Kester was given a miscellaneous shower by women of Independence. Mrs. Kester was Miss Bossent of Independence before her marriage a few weeks ago.

Bridge Party Compliments Bride-Elect

Miss Eunice Robertson, bride-elect of Rufus Sumner of Portland, was the incentive for a smartly arranged evening of bridge and prenuptial shower Thursday when Mrs. Theron Hoover, Mrs. Richard Kriesel, Miss Irma Bolander, Miss Thora Boesen and Miss Winifred Graham entertained jointly in the Hoover residence on West Meyers street. Miss Velna Gillian, Miss Vivian Elker and Miss Helen Marcus won high score honors for the evening of cards. Preceding the supper hour Miss Robertson was presented with her gifts, which were arranged on a beautifully appointed table centered with a great bowl of pink sweet peas.

Those bidden in compliment to Miss Robertson were Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. John R. Caughell, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Walter Fuhrer, Mrs. Arthur Knox, Mrs. Warren Jensen, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. David Adolph, Mrs. Leroy Gard, Mrs. John A. Heltzel, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs Donald Pritchett, Mrs. J. R. Robertson and Mrs. Quentin Cox, Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Mrs. Merle Garnett and Miss Alice McGrath, all of Portland; Mrs. Guy Bagley of West Fir, Miss Ruby Johnson, Miss Bernice Hector, Miss Fay Cornutt, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Vivian Elker, Miss Velna Gillian, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Myra Jordan, Miss Rovena Eyre and the hostesses, Mrs. Theron Hoover, Mrs. Richard Kriesel, Miss Irma Bolander, Miss Thora Boesen and Miss Winifred Graham.

• • •

Mrs. D. D. Olmstead entertained members of the Loyan Women's Bible class of the First Christian church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Walcher was in charge of the program and Mrs. T. C. Crabtree arranged the devotionals. Tea was served informally.

Those present were Mrs. E. L. Townsend, Mrs. W. A. Penny, Mrs. Cass Gibson, Mrs. T. C. Crabtree, Mrs. W. S. Birdwell, Mrs. Curtis Cole, Mrs. E. W. Cooley, Mrs. D. B. Simpson, Mrs. Cassie Kutch, Mrs. S. Ritchie, Mrs. B. Riggs, Mrs. Sarah Drager, Mrs. Alice Riggs, Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. E. C. Case and Mrs. B. W. Macy.

• • •

Miss Rose Baumgarten will return during the week-end from a fortnight's stay in Brookings where she was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crissey.

• • •

Jefferson—Mrs. Mabel Thompson left for her home in Altadena, Cal., the first of the week after being here several weeks during the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. S Thomas.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hartley spent Friday at Cascadia.