Idaho Executive Invites Governors

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 3 (AP) — Gov. Chase A. Clark today asked the governors of Wyoming, Oregon, Utah and Nevada to join with Idaho in removing restrictions on the interstate shipment of farm products, including livestock.

In a letter addressed to Gov. Nels N. Smith of Wyoming, Gov. Charles A. Sprague of Oregon, Gov. Herbert B. Maw of Utah, and Gov. E. P. Carville of Nevada, Clark proposed that private, common and contract carriers moving farm products between Idaho and the four other states be "excluded from any taxes as may be required under regulatory acts governing the operation of motor vehicles."
