Hid Mail—William E. Lilley (above), 46-year-old letter carrier who hid some 5000 letters in a closet in his Los Angeles home during the past year, was arrested by Federal authorities for delaying and detaining U.S. mails. Lilley said, "The more letters I delivered, the more people mailed. There wasn't any end to it." (Acme Telephoto)

Mrs. Lynch President Baptist Church Circle

Amity—Mrs. Ted Boyer was hostess for the Baptist Women's Mission circle at her home south of McMinnville. Mrs. Edward Lehman in charge.

New officers elected were Mrs. Louis Lynch, president; Mrs. William Neely, vice president; Mrs. W. H. Loop, secretary-treasurer. The officers will appoint the department chairman and arrange the yearly program. Members reported on the annual meeting at Salem.

A letter was read from the Elmer Boyers, missionaries in the Belgian Congo. Mrs. Andrew Wakeman, a former missionary to the Belgian Congo, had the lesson hour and told of the people and customs of the African people. Guests were Mrs. Ted Lehman and Mrs. Ralph Konzelman. Refreshments were served.

Court Affirms Conviction Of Attempted Bribers

Washington, May 2 (AP)—By a 4 to 4 split, the supreme court today affirmed the convictions of two New York men found guilty of attempting to bribe New York Giants football players.

The two men, Harvey Stemmer and David Krakower, were convicted on charges of attempting to bribe Frankie Filchock and Merle Hapes to throw a game with the Chicago Bears in December, 1947. Filchock and Hapes subsequently were suspended by the National Football league.

Stemmer and Krakower were tried and convicted in New York City and were given 5 to 10 year sentences. They challenged the convictions on grounds that evidence against them had been obtained by wire-tapping.

Wire-tapping is lawful in New York when done under court authorization. Introduction of evidence obtained by wire-tapping is not permitted in federal courts.

In other actions today the court:

1. Refused to reconsider its two month old decision that states may ban union slowdowns in wage dispute cases. The national labor relations board sought to reopen the case on the grounds that the NLRB did not realize full significance when it first came to the court from Wisconsin.

2. Refused to consider a new test case involving properties bought by Negroes in white residential developments covered by restrictive covenants. The court last year held lower courts cannot enforce such covenants.

3. Agreed to consider the case of a 33 year old German war bride who claims she has been improperly denied admission to the United States. Mrs. Ellen Knauff said the attorney general gave no reason for barring her last August, five and one-half months after her marriage in Germany.

4. Unanimously upheld the government's right to use in an anti-trust suit documents barred from a lower court trial on the grounds that they were the fruit of an illegal search and seizure. The charge of illegality was based on the lower court's contention that the grand jury which ordered the documents produced was improperly set up because women are excluded.

5. Agreed to review a California court decision that Negroes may be barred from picketing a store in an effort to induce it to hire more Negro workers.
