Grains Move Upward Today

Chicago, June 18 (AP)—Grains moved upward in fairly brisk dealings toward the close on the board of trade today. Early easiness in wheat and a ragged appearance in corn and oats was followed by a show of strength in all pits.

Wheat led the advance, gaining more than a cent at times over the previous close. Buying followed a financial service dispatch quoting an agricultural department source as denying recent trade rumors that the 90-day temporary storage plan would be limited to certain states.

Previously, the trade had heard that the emergency support loan program would be confined to Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico. The newest declaration on this subject was that the program would be extended to any area where it is needed.

Also influencing the wheat price rise was a gain of 2 cents a bushel in the trading basis for cash wheat at Kansas City and a report the Commodity Credit corporation there might take a little cash wheat for immediate delivery at Gulf of Mexico ports. The CCC has not bought any wheat for weeks.

Wheat closed ¼-1¼ higher, July $1.94⅞-⅝, corn was ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, July $1.31⅛-¼, oats were ½-⅞ higher, July 59⅞, rye was ¾ higher, July $1.35¾, soybeans were ½-¾ higher, July $2.28¾-2.29, and Lard was 5 cents lower to 2 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $11.30.

Columbia River Flood Now Ended

Portland, June 18 (AP) — The Columbia river sank below the flood mark today and ended the spring freshet without any serious damage.

The river dropped below flood stage of 18 feet at Vancouver, Wash., this morning for the first time in 31 days. That put an end to any danger for this season.

The crest this year was 22.5 feet—highest in a decade except for last year's disastrous peak. It was not high enough, however, to do anything worse than flood a few pastures and roads, and close some waterfront plants.

Planes War on Grasshoppers

(By the United Press)

Airplanes loaded with poison bombs struck out again today at hordes of young grasshoppers threatening to wipe out a large share of the nation's corn and wheat crops while rains swept toward New York, promising an end to a record drought.

An armada of 26 planes, most of them flown by ex-combat pilots, dropped brah laced with the chemical 2, 4-D on thousands of acres of Wyoming fields.

They hope to kill the young insects before they sprout wings and invade the rich fields of the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa and Kansas.

Some of the fields in the 1,000,000-acre area set for the bombings contain as many as 1,500 'hoppers per square yard — the highest concentration ever recorded.

Farmers battled insects on two other fronts. In South Dakota there was "green bug" plague. In Mississippi, crop experts feared the boll weevil might be ready to sweep through the cotton crop.

The South Dakotans said they would welcome a little of New York's dry weather. The believed lack of moisture would bolt development of the bugs.

Contractors Lien Filed on Annex to Senator Hotel

Notice of a contractor's lien for $62,447.43 was filed in the county clerk's office Saturday morning against Hotel Senator, Inc., and W. W. Chadwick, covering part of the Hotel Senator property on High street, by Edward Viesko, Marie B. Viesko and Claude H. Post, doing business as Viesko & Post.

The lien is claimed for work, labor and materials allegedly furnished in construction, alteration and repair of the building between August 1, 1948, and April 27, 1949.

The claimants aver that under an agreement, copy of which is attached to the lien notice, that W. W. Charwick and Hotel Senator, Inc., agreed to pay $109,485.74 for the work, labor and materials, and that $47,038.31 has been paid.

The lien is claimed not only on the building but upon the land on which it was constructed, "together with a convenient space about same, or so much thereof as may be required for the convenient use and occupation thereof (to be determined by the circuit court at the time of the foreclosure of this lien)." It is further asserted that "the whole of said real premises hereinbefore described is necessary for convenient use and accupation of said building."

The property involved is the new four-story annex to the old Hotel Senator building. The upper three floors are devoted to the hotel. On the ground floor is the Senator Food shop, three storerooms and a large storage garage. The main Hotel Senator property at Court and High streets is property of the late Frank N. Derby and Marion Derby estate and understood to be not involved in the proceedings.

Oregon Grange Places 22 Legislators on Purge List

Coos Bay, June 18 (AP)—Twenty-two Oregon legislators found themselves on the "purge" list of the state Grange today.

In its first such action, the Grange voted to go out after the defeat of the lawmakers who attempted to revise Oregon's initiative and referendum last spring.

The measure — which would have enabled the legislature to fix the number of signatures necessary to place an initiative on the ballot—did not pass. But it made Grangemaster Morton Tompkins fighting mad.

He called for the defeat of those who tried to tamper with the initiative act, often used by the Grange. Delegates to the annual convention here responded yesterday with a resolution endorsing the purge plan.

In other resolutions the delegates gave tentative approval to the Brannan farm program, calling it "deserving of our study and consideration." The resolution did not go as strongly for the program as Tompkins did in an earlier speech.

Oregon State college and the extension service were asked to withdraw from the field of farm administration, concentrating instead of education and research work.

Other resolutions:

Advocating raising legislators' pay to $600 a year.

Proposed to make the state superintendent of public instruction a member of the state land board.

Urged an increased severance tax on timber from the present 5 cents to 25 cents a thousand board feet to finance "an adequate reforestation and timber conservation" program.

Recommended that dog and horse racing revenues not be used for state and county fair appropriations.

Pledged opposition to any attempt to legalize slot machines.

Upheld congressional filibusters as necessary to defeat "dangerous legislation."

Called for a lieutenant governor in Oregon.

Opposed daylight saving time again.

Asked that Oregon banks remain open Saturdays.

Rejected a proposal to limit county officials and state legislators' service to two terms.

Urged strict enforcement of logging truck speed and load-chaining laws.
