War Memorial Rites Sunday

Silverton — The Sunday evening dedication of the Youth Luther League hour, was a program in memory of two young who gave their lives in sacrifice during World War II. Rev. S. L. Almlie arranged the affair.

Harold Odman was killed in in England in 1943 while on a flying mission. Born in Norway, he was brought to America at the age of 4 years entering the work of the Immanuel Lutheran Sunday school at that age. He attended Silverton public and high schools, took training at Mt. Angel where he earned his pilot's license, later at the Canadian "Little Norway" ports he completed the course for entry into the service in January preceding his death later in the year.

Albert H. Nerison (Harlan), native of Silverton, parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Nerison. Born December 7, 1922, was trained in his religious life at Immanuel Lutheran church. A graduate of the local high school. Married in January 1943 to Opal Tokstad. His wife and their small daughter make their home with the Olaf Tokstads, her parents, in Silverton. He entered the service February 23, 1943, in the Marines. Took training in San Diego. In December of the same year was sent overseas and participated in various battles and landings in the South Pacific areas. He was killed in action on the Island of Guam.

Brief talks, devotionals in prayer and song, and the formal dedication of the rustic finished fireplace room for the activities of the Immanuel Lutheran young people in the recently constructed parish house, was an impressive ceremonial in memory of these two valiant young men, fellow members of the group.
