Angels Jar Bevos, 9-1 And 2-1, in Make-up Go

San Francisco, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—The cellar-sitting Los Angeles Angels suddenly came to life last night to jolt the Portland Beavers twice, 9 to 1 and 2 to 1, in a pair of make-up Pacific coast league games.

The Angels blasted out 11 hits and took advantage of three Portland errors in the opening game to give winning hurler Booker T. McDaniels a wide margin of victory. It was the Negro pitcher's seventh win of the season as he allowed only six hits.

The nightcap was a pitchers battle between Lee Anthony of Los Angeles and Vince Dibiasi of the Beavers. Each gave up only seven hits and were supported by the flawless playing of their mates.

The Angels made both of their tallies in the second game on home runs. Cece Garriott blasted the initial round-tripper in the first inning and Rube Novotney slammed out the game winning homer in the seventh. Portland got its lone score in the third inning when Leo Thomas doubled to bring home Mark Marquez.

OCE Wolves Hold Game Scrimmage

Monmouth—Coach Bill McArthur received his first idea of starting combinations Monday afternoon in an inter-squad battle when his Wolves saw contact for the first time.

Quarterback Roger Dasch of Salem and End Hank Decker proved to be a potent pass-receiver combination.

The Wolves will work out under the arc for the remainder of the week in preparation for a Saturday night opener against a naval crew. They will be pointing for the tough Linfield Wildcats on Sept. 24.

Landis' car flew into the air, plunged over an embankment and turned over twice. Landis was unhurt except for bruises. Driving by at right is Joe Alder, Philadelphia, who had to swerve to avoid a collision. (AP Wirephoto)

This Wilson Shows Real Interest in Sports and Kids

By JACK HEWINS

Seattle, Sept. 20 (AP)—We often wonder what the old world has done to deserve people like James P. Wilson.

Jim will be embarrassed over us introducing you to him this way. He's never thought of putting a bill for services rendered; never figured the hours he spent with the kids amounted to anything special. Shucks, Lotsa men spend their spare time shaggin' balls for the kids over in the vacant lot—in vacant lots all the way from New York to San Francisco, from Seattle to Miami.

He lives in a little community north of Seattle — Richmond Highlands — and Jim is a car painter by trade. One day last summer a gang of youngsters dropped by and said they needed a basemall coach and would Mr. Wilson please help out, would he, please?

Once shanghaied, Jim was a happy victim. Two evenings a week and a long session on Saturday was all the time it took, until the county park board took an interest and the North and South county leagues were formed. Then Jim had to attend league meetings and one day he discovered he had been made North county president. There went a few more spare evenings.

This summer Wilson had about 45 youngsters, 12 through 17 years old. They were split into two squads, 12-14 and 14-17. His older boys romped through to the North county championship and then won the Shaughnessy playoff, while the younger boys failed to win a game. Jim kept statistics on every boy, made each one feel he was an iimportant cog in the team.

The local Lions club provided equipment and uniforms, with the understanding it would be repaid. A paper drive may raise the needed cash; if not, Jim's boys will find a way. Right now they're looking ahead to the tough football season, and then to basketball.

Why do guys like Jim Wilson give up their spare time, without pay, to help little guys become big guys? Let's ask:

"I dunno," says Jim, self consciously. "Maybe it's only because I like sports . . . and kids."

We've an unconfirmed hunch that Earl Stelle may be Oregon's passer on wet days, with Jim Calderwood or Joe Tom the fast-field flinger . . .and that Don Heinrich may do most of the punting for Washington, although Howie Odell likes the sky-scraping boots of end Fritz Apking. Heinrich, who hasn't looked too good as a punter in practice, performs best under fire . . . LaVerne Torgeson at WSC should grab all-coast honors this year at center.

Things-that-make-coaches-cry department: Lloyd Bardsley, his only experienced tackle, writes Olympic Coach Roy Carlson that he had decided to become a sailor and signed on a tanker at Juneau . . . college coaches note: An excellent crop of tackles will be ready for harvest from Washington high schools next season.

Proof that small town boys can make the grade in college football: Probable starters on the WSC team enrolled from Edmonds, Zillah, Chewelah, Cle Elum, Fife, Montesano and LaCrosse . . . in practice, Dix Howell dresses his Idaho centers in orange, his tackles and guards in green, ends and backs in red. Makes 'em easier to locate . . .

The Guilty Finger Points to Rolfe

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—Red Rolfe, who had charge of the Detroit farm system before he was promoted to the manager's post is in the unfortunate position of not being able to blame anyone else for his troubles . . . Detroit, the hottest team in the American league for a while, began to slip when George Kell was hurt and Red is finding that he not only hasn't adequate replacements now, but the prospects for help from the farms next year are poor . . . "Not a first baseman in sight and we also need hard-hitting outfielders and a catcher," is Rolfe's complaint. . . . Word from Cleveland is that Hank Greenberg has abandoned whatever effort he was making to buy the Indians . . . Hank couldn't raise the kind of money Bill Veeck wants and there's some question whether any prospective buyer will get it up for a club that is beginning to show its age. . . .

Dick Metz, who'll abandon the golf trail next summer to run a golf and riding school on his 2,000 acre ranch near Arkansas City, Kansas, figures to make more dough that way than he would in tournaments. Metz says he has had more than 50 inquires about the three-month course, but he'll only accept 20 kids who'll pay $1,000 apiece for the course. . . . If Dick needs an assistant in this ranching-golfing proposition, the obvious guy seems to be Johnny Bulla.

Monday Matinee

Rocky Graziano has an usual explanation for his difficulty in getting off against Charley Fusari . . . In training camp, the Rock explains, he fought four-minute rounds and those three-minute sessions seemed to end too quickly. At that you can't help applauding Jerry Mitchell's crack that Graziano and Fusari were the best combination seen around second base at Polo Grounds this summer. . . Johnny Rye, All-state selection in three sports at Russelville, Ark., high and one of the most sought-after athletes in the state, has turned up on the Vanderbilt Freshman football squad . . . Reason is that Johnny's father is a Vanderbilt grad . . . Maybe next season you can have a Vandy sandwich—Rye between two big hams.

Cleaning the Cuff

Don't go picking Indiana to upset Notre Dame next Saturday just because Frank Leahy figures the 47-7 victory his first stringers scored over the seconds showed weakness in reserve strength . . . Honey Russell, who returned this fall as Seton Hall basketball coach, started his varsity and freshman squads to work last Thursday . . . What became of the football season? The wooden stands at the U. of Michigan baseball field built in 1907, will be replaced with steel before next spring. Must be the game is here to stay. Noisiest player on the Detroit Lions squad is reported to be Fullback John Hollar. A team that beats Hollar should be able to drum up some business.

49ers Trim Dons Eddie Carr, San Francisco Forty-niner halfback, picks up his own fumble on the first bounce and rambles by the on-coming Los Angeles Dons' John Brown (29) and Leonard Ford (50), to gain 16 yards in the second quarter of the Dons-49ers game at San Francisco. The 49ers took the game, 42-14. Acme Telephoto)

Fighter Charges Manager Gambled His Purses Away

Chicago, Sept. 20 (AP)—Charges by welterweight Johnny Bratton that his manager gambled away some of his fight purses are being investigated by the Illinois Athletic commission.

Howard Frazier, one of Bratton's pilots, yesterday testified before the commission that he paid off money lost by gamblers who thought the boxer took a dive in losing a decision to Gene Burton Oct. 6, 1947.

"I paid Bratton every cent for every fight," Frazier asserted. "However, I did pay out some money after the Burton fight to keep gamblers from harming Bratton. They threatened his life and I paid back the money they lost to protect the kid."

Frazier testified that both he and Bratton's lives had been threatened. The 22-year-old Southside Negro, once a leading lightweight contender, told the commission he did not believe this.

At the request of the commission, two detectives were assigned as bodyguards for Bratton.

Pep Favored to Defend Title in Bout Tuesday

Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 20 (U.P.) Wee Willie Pep, one of the great fighters of our time, was favored at 4-1 today to defend successfully his recaptured featherweight crown against young Eddie Compo at Municipal stadium tonight.

Pep, who was 27 yesterday according to his mother, was favored because he had hammered out a remarkable record against the best men his division could produce for 10 years; whereas Compo of New Haven had performed brilliantly against opponents who generally were mediocre.

Promoter Rocco Mara hoped for a crowd of 10,000 and a gate of $40,000.

Compo, 22, lost but one of 60 professional fights.

Williams Boosts American Hitting

Chicago, Sept. 20 (AP) — Boston's Ted Williams is tightening his monopoly on American league batting marks, taking the lead in six divisions of play.

He topped five brackets a week ago and now has added a sixth—most runs batted in. In statistics through Sunday's games, Williams is ahead in batting with .351; scored the most runs, 143; slammed the most hits, 188, most doubles, 39, and homers, 40; and has hammered across 153 runs.

Kiner Clouts No. 50 in Race for New Homer Mark

New York, Sept. 20 (AP) — Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner hit his 50th home run last night to go ahead of the pace set by Hack Wilson when he established the National league record of 56 in 1930.

Kiner, however, is still behind the major league record pace of Babe Ruth, who poled 60 homers in 1927 for the New York Yankees.

Kiner's home run against the New York Giants was made in his 143rd game with 11 to play.

Wilson hit No. 50 on September 15 in his 145th game. Ruth's 50th came in his 138th game on September 11.

Southworth Says He'll Return to Braves Next Year

Columbus, O., Sept. 17 (AP)—Billy Southworth, manager on sick leave from the Boston Braves, is going back to the Hub city next year.

The 56-year-old pilot of the 1948 National League pennant winners yesterday spiked all rumors that his sudden unannounced departure one month ago was for any reason other than his health.

In his first meeting with newsmen since he left Boston, Southworth said:

"My only reason for leaving was to recuperate, and now my doctor tells me that I'm going to live. So I'll be back."

Bear Wrestler Meets Neilsen

A match between a man and a 310 pound trained bear will feature Tuesday night's wrestling program. Stocky Neilsen will be the man while the bear's name is "Ginger."

The preliminaries will include an 8:30 event between Les Welch and Al Szasz, and another which pits Carl Myers against George Dusette. The main event sends Pierre LaBelle against Leo Karlinko.

79 Points Worth Of Mistakes at That, Dixie!!

Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 20 (AP) Four Idaho Vandals came out of Saturday's rollicking 79-0 win over Willamette with injuries. And Coach Dixie Howell still suffered a slight case of pessimism.

End Ken Fourcar and Tackle Bill Fray needed stitches on eye cuts, Fullback Jim Chadband nursed a sore nose and Guard Roy Colquitt also was banged up. All probably will be on hand for Saturday's go with Oregon.

Howell's pessimism resulted from Willamette's failure to give the Vandals a stiff test.

"The boys made a lot of mistakes out there Saturday," he commented.

Man-to-Man Race Marks National League Batting

New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn and Enos Slaughter of St. Louis are hooked up in a man-to-man battle for the National league batting title that is every bit as close as the Dodger - Cardinal struggle for the pennant.

Robinson's lead, once some 35 points, has melted to three points under Slaughter's persistent attack. Jackie has faded a bit, to be sure, but Slaughter's sensational rise has been the main factor.
