X Disease in Oregon Cattle

The first case of X-disease ever found in Oregon cattle was discovered late this summer in the northeastern part of the state, the division of animal industry of the state department of agriculture reported today.

Dr. Charles F. Haynes, state veterinarian, said only one case—a four-months-old calf which died—has been found. The case was diagnosed as X-disease—also known as hyperkeratosis—by veterinarians here, but a further check was requested of the U. S. pathological laboratory at Denver, Colo. That laboratory made a histological examination and he reported its diagnosis as hyperkeratosis to the Oregon officials here.

A federal survey about a year ago uncovered X-disease in a number of southern states. The malady has caused heavy death losses in some states and has been reported from 32 states. In the survey last year in five southern states, 31 percent of 4120 cattle studied had been infected and more than half the infected animals died.

The state department of agriculture warned today that it will quarantine any Oregon herds found infected.

Cause of X-disease has not been established, although it has been determined that it is not from poisoning by a specific plant. Other items suspended but not proved are a virus or fungus, a poisonous mineral or a nutritional imbalance.

Corn Advances In Tuesday Trade

Chicago, Sept. 28 (AP)—Wheat rested while corn raced upward on the board of trade today.

Profit-taking after yesterday's advance to new seasonal highs, climaxing several weeks of climbing prices, kept wheat pretty much under control. However, there was one flurry of buying which sent the December and May contracts above yesterday's peak for a time.

Wheat closed 1 to 1⅛ lower, December $2.15-2.15⅛; corn was ⅜ to 1 cent higher, December $1.18½-⅝, oats were ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, December 68¼, rye was ½-¾ higher, December $1.45¾-½, soybeans were unchanged to ½ lower, November $2.26¾-2.27, and lard was 13 cents lower to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $10.87.

Coast Hop Markets Generally Firm

Portland, Sept. 28 (AP)—Pacific coast hop markets were reported generally firm by the U.S. department of agriculture today.

The hop supply was estimated at 68,940,000 pounds; 29,940,000 pounds held over from last year, plus the 39,000,000 pounds which are salable under the federal marketing agreement from the current crop. Most of the holdover was in brewers' hands.

The USDA report said Oregon's market was "very firm, despite rather slow trading." Several deals were reported at 53 cents a pound for fuggles, and 52 cents for clusters (6 percent leaf and stem). Export inquiry was good.

Top Egg Grades Drop 2 Cts. in Price

Top grades of eggs dropped one and two cents here Wednesday morning, following similar changes in the Portland produce market list.

New prices quoted on eggs in the buying list include the following: Extra large AA, 66 cents; large AA, 65 cents; large A, 63-66 cents; medium AA, 53 cents; medium A, 51-54 cents; pullets, 36-37 cents. In the wholesale list, grade As generally are listed at 71 cents, mediums at 59 cents.

Butter, butterfat and other produce remained unchanged here Wednesday.

Stocks Advance Up to 2 Points

New York, Sept. 28 (AP)—The stock market clung to substantial early gains today in the face of a renewed threat that a strike will tie up the steel industry at midnight Friday.

Gains of fractions to around 2 points were maintained as Wall Street studied implications of the latest maneuvers between U. S. Steel Corp., and the CIO United Steel Workers.

News that the union had renewed its insistance that social benefits be financed entirely by the industry appeared a short time before the market closed. Turnover for the day was around 1,300,000 shares.

In mid-morning a sudden burst of buying lifted prices fractions to 2 points or so.

In this favorable atmosphere Steel, Motors and other shares advanced rapidly. Losses of Monday and Tuesday, when apprehension was mounting over the possibility of a strike, were wiped out.
