Twenty-seven riders participated in the Friday night fun sponsored by Bus Youngquist and Ralph Stangeby. All events were fast moving and not too much time was needed for the whole program. In the clubroom afterward a buffet luncheon was served by Thelma Youngquist and Ilene Stangeby.

The junior riding program on Saturday is increasing in size and the riders are showing improvement in seat and hands so that the program could be turned into a class in the show next May.

Miss Robbins Recent Bride

Marion — Wed Friday evening, December 8, was Miss Lucille Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Robbins, to Kenneth Dailey of Tigard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dailey of Scio. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. William A. Coates of Albany officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a forest green suit with black accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

Her only attendant was a cousin, Miss Ruth Huber of Marion. She wore a beige suit, brown accessories and a Talisman rosebud corsage.

Dave Fogo of Albany stood as best man.

Miss Vivian Boyce of Lyons, cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers.

Presiding at the serving table for the reception were aunts of the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Wayne Barber of Oakridge cut the cake, Mrs. Albert Vian of Albany served the ices, Mrs. G. O. Boyce presided at the punch bowl and Miss Elsie Dailey at the coffee urn. Miss Marilyn Pearson of Turner passed the guest book and Miss Janet Boyce, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gift tables.

Sunday, December 17, the bridegroom's parents honored the couple with a reception at their home. Serving were Mrs. Byron Vian, Mrs. Harold Mayfield, Miss Elsie Dailey and Mrs. Albert Vian. Miss Shirley Vian was in charge of gifts and Miss Carol Johnson the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Turner high school and has been employed for the state tax commission. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lebanon high school and at present is attending school in Portland.

The couple are at home at route 2, box 249, Tigard.

Lebanon Duo Entertained

Lebanon — Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Saltmarsh, descendants of early Oregon pioneers, were honored on their 60th wedding anniversary, Sunday, December 10, when their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren gathered at their home east of Lebanon.

The wedding took place in the Linn county home of John and Mary Ann Gumm, parents of Mrs. Saltmarsh. It was a double wedding ceremony with her brother, William Gumm, and Mary E. Sylvester. The two couples celebrated their golden wedding anniversary together in the Saltmarsh home with a dinner and open house in 1940.

Mrs. Saltmarsh (Nancy Ann Gumm) was born near Scio, February 29, 1872. Mr. Saltmarsh, son of Arthur and Elvira (Lee) Saltmarsh, also a native of Linn county, was born July 26, 1863, in a log cabin on his father's donation land claim near Lebanon.

With the exception of about three years, when they made their home in Portland and Canby, Mr. and Mrs. Saltmarsh have spent their married life on the farm that is part of his father's land claim.

Three of the couple's five children present for the occasion were Mrs. Ralph (Elnora) May of Everett, Wash.; Norman Saltmarsh, and Mrs. Clifford (Winifred) Raines of Lebanon. A son, Nelson, passed away in 1908. Unable to attend was a daughter, Mrs. Clyde (Irene) Fillpot, of Mesa, Arizona; a granddaughter, Mrs. Wesley Ray of Klamath Falls; two grandsons, Eugene Fillpot of Mesa, and Arthur Saltmarsh of Eugene.

Grandchildren present were Carolyn Anne May of Seattle; Mrs. Royce Sutter (Mildred Saltmarsh) and Barbara Joan Raines, both of Lebanon. The great-grandchildren are Robert and Billy Saltmarsh of Eugene; Vickie Lou and Steven Sutter of Lebanon, and Terri and Steven Ray of Klamath Falls.

Others present at the family gathering were Ralph May of Everett, Wash.; Mrs. Norman Saltmarsh, Clifford Raines, and Royce Sutter, all of Lebanon.
