Stayton, Salem Unbeaten In District 11 Tourney

By PAUL HARVEY III

Stayton edged Silverton and Salem defeated Woodburn Tuesday night in the fourth night of the District eleven basketball tourney here.

In the opening game of the evening the Stayton Eagles remained undefeated in this double elimination tourney by trimming the Silverton Foxes 50-45.

The Eagles, coached by Joe Boyle, led almost all the way. Ed Small, Stayton guard, opened the game with two free throws but the Foxes tied the score midway in the first period at four-all.

After the score was tied at six-all Dave Nietling and Gene Small put the Eagles into a 10-6 lead with one and a half minute left in the quarter. The initial period ended with Stayton holding a 13-8 lead over Milt Baum's Silverton Foxes.

Wade Minton and Gene Small led the Eagles to a 26-19 halftime lead as each tallied seven points. Silverton's promising center, Fred Kasor, had eight points to aid the Silverton attack in the first half.

The second half opened with Jim Black hitting a twisting shot to narrow the Stayton lead down to 26-21 but Minton seconds later sank a lay-in to lengthen the Eagles' lead to eight points.

The torrid pace of the opening four minutes of the second half slackened off in the last minutes of the third period and the Eagles still led with the score being 40-29. Milt Baum's Foxes rallied in the closing minutes and trailed by only a few points several times. Their rally fell short and Stayton won 50-45.

High point honors for the game went to Dave Nietling of Stayton with 17 points. Fred Kasor was high for Silverton with 14 points.

In the final game of the night the Woodburn Bulldogs threw a scare into the Salem high Vikings but the Salem team came out on top with a 53-41 win.

The Vikings win was aided by a one point third period by the Bulldogs while the Vikings were hitting the hoop for 17 points. The lone point for Woodburn, coached by Marshall Barbour, was made by Sam Van Arsdale.

Jim Knapp opened the ball game for Harold Hauck's team with a long goal with 40 seconds gone. Royce Norris and Jerry Plank put the Bulldogs ahead 3-2 with 1½ minutes gone in the game but Knapp tied the score seconds later with a free throw. Domogolla of Salem and Bob Withers of Woodburn each scored a field goal to tie the score at five to five. The game was a seesaw battle until two minutes remained in the period. Then Salem began hitting with Jack Bishop, Knapp, and Tom Pickens doing most of the scoring. The score at the end of the first quarter was 15-11 with Salem in the lead.

Late in the second period Jerry Plank of the Bulldogs tied the score at 21-all with a free throw. Each team added a field goal to tie the score at 23-23 with one half of the game gone.

Then came that third period which was the downfall for the Woodburn team. Salem's offensive attack in the third period was led by Gordy Domogolla with seven points. The third quarter score was 40-24.

Woodburn outscored Salem in the last period but the Bulldogs were unable to rally enough to catch up. Bob Withers had nine points for the Bulldogs in the final quarter.

Withers took high point honors in the game with 15 on seven shots from the floor and one free throw. Jack Bishop and Jim Knapp, both of Salem, came through with 13 apiece.

In games tonight the Woodburn team meets the Sacred Heart Cardinals in the opener at 7 o'clock and Silverton meets the Cascade Cougars in the night's final.

In the feature game Friday night at 7 o'clock the Salem Vikings tangle with the Stayton Eagles and the two winners of this evening's games will meet in the night's final. The losers of the games tonight will drop out of the tournament.

District 13 Meet Moves Into 2nd Round

(By The Associated Press)

Central Catholic, Concordia of Portland, and Gresham advanced to the second round of the District 13 double elimination high school basketball tournament at Park Rose Monday night.

Central dumped Sandy 62-51, Gresham defeated Columbia Prep of Portland 58-45, and Concordia edged Park Rose 44-42. Estacada had a bye.

The tournament continues Tuesday.

In the consolation round of the District 11 tournament at Salem Monday night, Sacred Heart of Salem defeated Mt. Angel 54-43 and Cascade stopped North Marion 46-43. The losers were eliminated.

Mt. Vernon overwhelmed Crane 66-39 to win the sub-district 7B title. Warrenton won third place by shading Vernonia 56-54.

Houbregs, O'Brien Named To UP All-American Team

By NORMAN MILLER

New York (U.P.) — The United Press presents today its 1952-53 All-American college basketball team made up of Walt Dukes of Seton Hall, Johnny O'Brien of Seattle, Bob Houbregs of Washington, Tom Gola of LaSalle and Ernie Beck of Pennsylvania.

The quintet was selected by a nationwide poll of 205 sports writers and radio broadcasters, who disregarded geographical distribution in their balloting. Two of the players came from schools in Seattle, two from Philadelphia, and the other from the metropolitan New York area.

Six-foot-11 Dukes, who led Seton Hall to a record of 27 straight victories before it was beaten this week, was the outstanding selection on the team, with scrappy, five-foot-nine O'Brian not too far behind in the voting.

Dukes, in fact, was the most popular choice in the six-year history of the United Press All-American teams. He was named a first or second team selection on 99 per cent of the ballots. O'Brien was picked on 82 per cent of the votes cast, Houbregs on 72.5 per cent, Beck ond 63 and Gola on 61.

O'Brien, one of the greatest small players in recent basketball history, is the leading scorer of the group, in addition to possessing the second best shooting percentage. Displaying an amazing facility for scoring from the pivot despite lack of height, Johnny averaged 27.8 points in 27 games for the second best mark in the major college ranks. His field goal shooting percentage of 51.8, sixth among major collegians, also is remarkable. In addition, O'Brien's 285 free throws during the past season, representing 80 per cent accuracy, set a new major college record.

Ned and His Partner Ned Day, former world match bowling champion kisses the ball with which he rolled successive 300 games in practice at Milwaukee. The pair of perfect games was his second in 3 weeks, a record, experts claim.

Beaver Baseballers (OSC, That Is) Drills for Season

Oregon State College, Corvallis — Oregon State's defending Western Regional NCAA baseball champions, minus several key players from last year but still potentially-strong, moved outdoor this week in preparation for the 1953 season.

Coach Ralph Coleman's club will launch the pre-season campaign with a five-game swing into California, where the Beavers will meet Grant junior college of Sacramento, California, San Joe State and Fresno State. First game is scheduled against Grant on March 23.

Although Coleman lost seven lettermen from the 1952 squad that whipped USC in the PCC playoffs and then defeated Fresno State for the regional crown, he still has the nucleus for another good appears to be in the outfield and in pitching. OSC lost Capt. Pete Goodbrod, dependable centerfielder, through graduation, and All-American Dwaine Helbig signed a pro contract with the Portland Beavers. Helbig had two years college eligibility remaining.

Missing from the pitching staff are Don White, standout southpaw; Don Hopp, promising freshman right-hander who also signed with Portland; and Bud Berg, letterman reserve. Norb Wellman, husky right-hander who hurled two playoff victories last spring, will team up with Veteran Bailey Brem for mound duties. Brem has been a mainstay the past two years. Southpaws ready for duty are Jim Nierman and Corky Coleman, both up from the jayvees.

The Beavers should be strongest in the infield. Back are Catcher John Thomas, First Baseman Jay Dean, Second-Sacker Danny Johnston, Shortstop Bobby Buob and Third-Baseman Chuck Fisk. Only returning outfield regular is Captain-elect Bud Shortcliff. Strongest candidates for the outfield are Letterman Jim Ruggles, Jimmy Jenks, Stan Hays, Jack Pinion, Jim Withrow, Bill Turner and Jack Bowen.

Good Pitch, No Hit—Thats' Portland Bevos

Glendale, Calif. (AP)—That old classic baseball phrase "good pitch, no hit" fits the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league pretty well, says Coach Bill Fleming.

Fleming, in charge of spring training during the absence of Manager Clay Hopper, said the club had good pitching potential but needed a hard hitting outfielder or two.

The Beavers opened camp Monday with Hopper still convalescing from a minor operation at his home in Greenwood, Miss. Their first pre-season game will be with San Francisco Wednesday.

Two Outfielders Join Rainiers

Palm Springs, Calif. (AP)—The Seattle Rainiers had two more outfielders, Jackie Tobin and Clarence Maddern, in the fold Tuesday.

General Manager Leo Miller said Artie Wilson and Vern Kindsfather appeared to be standing firmest in their demands. He said he and Wilson, who handled the shortstopping chores last year, were "away apart" on a salary figure, and nothing had been heard from Kindsfather, 21-game winner last season, since training camp opened.

Others on the holdout list were Bill Pope and Carlos Pascual, pitchers, and Alex Garbowski and Merrill Combs, infielders.

Manager Bill Sweeney announced that Tom Lovrich, former USC star who was with the Vancouver Capilanos of the Western International League in 1952, would be the starting pitch- in the Rainiers' first game Friday with Portland at Glendale.

Ted Shandor to Pitch Against Portland Bevos

Riverside, Calif. (AP) — San Francisco's top pitcher of 1952, Elmer Singleton, was to start an exhibition Wednesday against the Portland Beavers.

Manager Tommy Heath also planned to use rookies Ted Shandor and Kenny Wright in three-inning turns. The Beavers expected to use Lary Ward, Dick Waibel and Ben Lorino.

Two More Suds Sign Contracts

Palm Springs, Calif. (AP) — General Manager Leo Miller of the Seattle Rainiers has five to go now in his contract signing chores.

Shortstop Alex Garbowski and Chuck Davis signed Tuesday.

Shortstops Artie Wilson and Merrill Combs and Pitchers Vern Kindsfather, Bill Pope and Carlos Pascual have yet to give Miller their autographs.
