Chicago Livestock

Chicago (AP)—An overrun of hogs, matching Monday's highest numbers of the month, forced prices another 50 to 75 cents lower Tuesday. Cattle ranged from weak on some lower grades and classes to 50 cents and occasionally $1.00 higher on better steers. Sheep were mostly steady to weak.

Most butcher weights of hogs sold from $22.50 to the top of $25.50 while most sows brought $19.50 to $22.75. A few sows were worth as much as $22.50.

Good to prime steers generally broadened their range to $19.50 to $28.00 with several loads extending the top of $29.00. Good to prime heifers were $18.00 to $29.75. Cows topped at $13.00, bulls at $15.50 and prime vealers at $22.00.

Good to prime native spring lambs sold from $21.00 to $23.50. Receipts were 9,000 hogs, 2,500 cattle and 2,000 sheep.

Riegel Returns From Korea

Back in Salem after a year of duty in Korea is W.O. L. T. Riegel, Jr., who when he was called for active duty with the Army was with the Oregon State police.

Riegel reported for active duty with the 369th engineers in October, 1950. Prior to leaving for duty in Korea he attended the Army's CIC school in Baltimore, Md. In Korea he was with the 704th CIC detachment.

The former state policeman arrived in Seattle on the Marine Linx, the ship met by the governors who were in that city to attend the governors' conference. He was met by his wife.

Mrs. Riegel and the couple's young daughter, Roniece, were with him in Baltimore, but returned to Salem to reside while he was in Korea. Mrs. Riegel was in Seattle to meet her husband when he returned.

Vote to Bar Reds As U. S. Lawyers

Boston (AP) — The American Bar Association's house of delegates Tuesday adopted without debate a resolution asserting that no Communist should be permitted to be a lawyer in the United States.

The resolution, presented by the ABA committee on Communist tactics, strategy and objectives, recommended that both the U. S. attorney general and state authorities with jurisdiction be asked to act against lawyers who are Reds.

The committee is headed by Herbert R. O'Conor, former democratic senator from Maryland.

Stock Market

New York (AP)—The stock market was lower Tuesday, but a recovery movement erased a great part of the extreme loss.

Losses seldom went past a point. At one time early in the day minus signs of major fractions to between 1 and 2 points were frequent throughout the list.

Trading was heavy at an estimated 1,600,000 shares, the busiest day since early in June. Monday's total was 1,330,000 shares.

The market started lower and continued to slip until early afternoon. Most of the selling was centered in the railroads, as it was Monday.

When the recovery movement got underway, the railroads began to post plus signs almost immediately, and all sections of the market marched along the recovery trail.

Chicago Grain

Chicago (AP)—Grains moved ahead several cents in another brisk trading session on the board of trade Tuesday.

Wheat was aided by continued relatively light receipts of new crop spring wheat in northwestern markets, plus moderate export business.

New crop corn contracts provided an exceptional strong spot. Prospect of continued dry weather in the corn belt over the next five days stimulated demand.

Lard ran into considerable profit taking after its spectacular advance of the past few weeks.

Wheat closed 2 to 3 cents higher, September $1.88¾-⅛; corn 1⅝ lower to 3⅝ higher, September $1.51½-$1.51; oats ⅛-⅜ higher, September 74-73⅝; rye 1⅝ to 2 cents higher, September $1.07⅝-⅛; soybeans 1⅛ to 4 cents higher, September $2.54½-¼, and lard 38 to 62 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $15.55.

Portland Grain

Portland (AP)—No grain bid or offered.

Tuesday's car receipts: Wheat 55, barley 1; flour 2; corn 2; mill feed 8.

Portland Eastside Market

Portland (UP)—Loose packed Yakima Hale peaches continued to sell at 2.25-2.35 a 26-lb. lug on the Eastside Farmers' market today; Elbertas were 2.00; lettuce prices for local district growers were 2.00-2.75 a crate to wholesalers.

3 Forest Fires Despite Rain

Despite the damp weather Oregon had three fires Monday in forests lands under the control of the state forestry department.

Northeast Oregon had one lighting fire, which was between a tenth of an acre and a quarter of an acre in size.

In southwest Oregon there was a miscellaneous fire and in the Coos district one fire from debris burning. Both of these were less than a tenth of an acre in size.

All three of the fires were controlled.

Weather reports received by the forestry department indicated that the weather man would continue to dampen the forest areas in western Oregon and that the humidities would remain high, being above 45 per cent.

Southerly winds of from eight to 15 miles per hour with occasional gusts to 20 or 25 miles per hour were predicted for Western Oregon and the Columbia gorge was to have changeable winds, mostly easterly of from 10 to 20 miles per hour, becoming westerly Wednesday.
