Post Resigned By Bartlett

Portland (AP) — Members of the State Aeronautics Board said today they have accepted the resignation of W. M. (Jack) Bartlett as state director of aeronautics. At the same time, members announced appointment of Earl Snider, airport director at Eugene, to succeed Bartlett.

Bartlett served as state director since 1947. He said he planned to go into other work. He is a professional engineer.

The Board also reported it had leased the Aurora air strip from the Bureau of Public Roads and would use it as a commercial field.

Silverton Changes Santa Claus Plans

Silverton — Bill Wortman, chairman of the Christmas "treat" program for the Silverton youngsters, representing the local Chamber of ommerce, is announcing a change in the original plans when two Santa Claus days were to have been observed.

A free show, Saturday, Dec. 13, will be an afternoon affair at the Palace theater.

Saturday, Dec. 19, Santa in person will welcome all visitors, and do the usual annual treat stunts. The special place from which Santa "operates" will depend on the weather.

R. A. Fish is assisting chairman with Wortman for the plans.

Fire Dist. Officers Elected at Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel — A membership meeting of the Mount Angel Rural Fire District was held Monday evening in the Fire Hall.

C. L. Willig and Clem Duda were elected to the board of directors. Willig succeeds himself for a term of five years, and Duda was elected to fill out the unexpired term of Ernest Walker, who moved to California.

The organization election was postponed to the January meeting due to the absence of two directors because of illness.

The five-man board of directors consists of Wibert Aman, Joseph Obersinner, C. L. Willig, Clem Duda and F. J. Schwab. Schwab is president of the board.
